

SPEND TIME IN GOOD CAUSE

Business Men Sacrifice Their Own Interests in Auditorium's Behalf.

STOCK WILL BE OFFERED TO EACH CITIZEN

City is Divided into Districts to be Conveyed by the Subscribers—Explanatory Letter to Holders—Their Approach.

Twenty-five members of the board of directors of the Auditorium company have consented to devote all of their time this week to the sale of stock in the new project. Beginning at 9:30 o'clock Monday morning they will make a thorough canvass of all the business section of the city and before Saturday night they expect to secure subscriptions for an additional $75,000 worth of stock. Special committees have been selected to visit the jobbers, manufacturers and retailers and an effort will be made to reach every business man who has already been interested in the new building.

Election excitement interfered temporarily with the solicitation of funds, but the work will now be taken up with renewed vigor and with the constant assistance of the directors and the board of directors are confident that they will secure even better results than were attained in the previous canvass. Seventy thousand dollars has been subscribed and an additional $50,000 has been promised.

Business Men Forewarned. A letter explaining the plan of the directors has been mailed to business men of the city that they may be fully informed as to the progress of the auditorium project before the committees wait upon them. This was done that partners might confer and have the minds made up so that the directors will not be delayed in the canvass. The directors who have consented to give one week's time to the work are men whose own affairs demand their time and they hope to dispose of the matter in one week if possible. An estimate of the work made as to the sum that different firms may be expected to give and in case the subscriptions fall short of the report of the estimate committee the matter will be reconsidered by the directors and the plans will be revised.

It is the duty of every business man in Omaha to subscribe for stock in the new building, said a prominent business man who is one of the ardent supporters of the auditorium. These men who have consented to give a week of their time to putting the project on its feet are making a great sacrifice. Citizens should respond liberally to their requests for subscriptions. We are all agreed that Omaha needs an auditorium and if the new structure is to be one of the best in the west it is necessary that every man in the city put his shoulder to the wheel and help the cause along.

Information Spread Abroad. The plans of the directors of the company have been given publicly and every man in Omaha has had time enough to make up his mind how much stock he will take. When the directors begin their canvass they should be greeted with liberal subscriptions and should not be compelled to waste their time in giving information which has already been put in the hands of all prospective stockholders.

The directors are not expecting to devote their efforts to setting forth the great need of an auditorium—that is conceded. Omaha has spent several years in discussing the matter and now the time has come when the talk must be backed up with funds. The project is no longer in the air and public spirited citizens will no doubt do all in their power to make the erection of the building possible before another year rolls around.

POLICE LOOKING FOR CURLY

Hot Air Vehicle Wanted in Omaha for Alleged Theft of Horse and Buggy.

The police are looking for a man known as "Curly," wanted on a charge of horse stealing. Curly is a prominent member of the Nebraska Music hall. Friday night, about 1:30, it is alleged, he called at Solon Walker's livery barn in South Omaha and told the man in charge that Walker was in Omaha and couldn't get home, as the car had stopped running, and so wanted a horse and buggy sent for him. He ("Curly") had been detailed to deliver the vehicle. He was given a fine bay horse and new top buggy for the purpose.

About 8 o'clock yesterday morning Walker dropped into his place of business as usual and was much surprised to learn of "Curly's" errand, as he (Walker) had been at his home in South Omaha all night. The rig had not yet returned and "Curly," the hot air virtuoso, was now in his accustomed place in front of the Nebraska theater. An hour later a telegram was received from the police at Greenwood, Ia., saying that two men were there trying to sell a horse and buggy at cut prices. The description of the equipment corresponded with that of the stolen rig and the Greenwood police were requested to arrest the men and an officer was immediately sent for them.

Morrissey Locked Up. M. E. Morrissey of 312 Webster street, a man who seems to be a particular delinquent in this family, was arrested last night by Patrolmen Goodrich and Murphy. Morrissey was charged with obstructing order from the district court to cease interfering with his family pending the decision of the court which his wife has brought against him, but he has repeatedly violated the order. For a long time, but he has always eluded the officers.

WRECK IN THE VALLEY YARDS

West Bound Flyer Collides with an Omaha Train Through a Switchman's Blunder.

Last night at 9:30 the Northwestern's Chicago limited train, No. 2, and Chicago, St. Paul, Minneapolis & Omaha train No. 10, collided in the Missouri Valley yards. A freight car on the head-end of the baggage car of the Chicago train had both legs cut off and is so badly injured that he will probably die. John Wells of Boone, Ia., engineer on the Omaha train, had one hand badly crushed and Fireman Robert Kirkin of the St. Paul train sustained a bad cut on the head.

The wreck was the result of a switchman's mistake. The St. Paul train started south from the depot for the purpose of getting on a sidetrack. A switch was thrown wrong and some of the cars discovered this the train was backed up in the hope of getting out of the way of the Chicago limited. The two trains were running north when the engines collided. Both engines were badly damaged and the mail car and tender on the Chicago train, telescoped and were derailed. The coaches were slightly damaged, but none of the passengers sustained any serious injuries. The St. Paul train stayed on the track and the coaches were but little the worse for the smash-up. George Royce of Council Bluffs was the engineer on the St. Paul train and, although he stayed with his engine, he came through the wreck without a scratch. Kirkin, the fireman, was thrown from the train and his head was injured. He is now in the hospital. Peterson, the injured tramp, has not been able to tell the doctors anything about himself. A letter was found in his pocket bearing the name Peterson, but it contained nothing which gave any clue as to his residence.

WOMEN WORK FOR CHARITY

Catholic Parishes of City Conducting a Fair for Benefit of Home of Good Shepherd.

Schilf hall has been transformed into a veritable fairland by the Catholic parishes of the city, which are conducting a fair for the benefit of the new Home of the Good Shepherd at Fortieth and Jackson streets. By means of draperies the hall has been divided into booths, in which all sorts of beautiful art work are offered for sale. The fair opened November 5, and will continue until November 17. Since the opening night the crowds have been large and Father Glabbe and Father St. John, who are in charge, are much pleased with the large attendance and expect to net a comfortable sum for the worthy charity. Different parishes have assumed the responsibility of caring for the booths and tables in the dining hall. Dinner is served each day at noon and the following women preside over the tables of the various parishes: St. John's and St. Cecilia's—Mrs. William Hayden, Mrs. J. E. Rice, Mrs. Hannah, Mrs. Ed. Hayden, Mrs. Payne; St. Philomena's and St. Peter's—Mrs. J. J. McCarney, Mrs. J. J. McCarney, Mrs. J. J. McCarney; St. Mary Magdalene and St. Joseph's—Mrs. Annie Bremer, Mrs. Mary Fierch, Mrs. Annie Bremer, Mrs. George Parks, Mrs. South Omaha—Mrs. George Parks, Mrs. St. Patrick's and St. Vincent's—Mrs. J. Mulvihill, Mrs. Lynn, Mrs. McCallister, Mrs. Costello.

EXCHANGE DISCUSSES EARTH

Real Estate Men Will Listen to Expert Testimony from Henry W. Yates and Other Authorities.

At the regular meeting of the Omaha Real Estate exchange to be held as usual at the Commercial clubs Wednesday noon Henry W. Yates will deliver an address on the subject of "Omaha Real Estate." Mr. Yates' remarks will be the first of a series of talks on prominent Omaha real estate men and property owners and in each case the subject will refer to questions of paramount interest to real estate dealers. "The Omaha Real Estate exchange has done a great deal of good for the city of Omaha," said a prominent member yesterday, "and the new officers will endeavor in the future to place it on an even higher plane than it has reached during the year past. The enthusiasm and good feeling among the members were never better and that fact insures a united front for the real estate exchange and the upbuilding of Omaha." "The exchange has some very important matters on hand that will be pushed to completion," which will mean the real estate men and our citizens. We have arranged a surprise for each future meeting of the exchange and it is our hope that every member will be present. That there will be a large crowd in attendance upon Wednesday's meeting to see what the first surprise will be is evident from the interest already manifested.

LOCAL BREVITIES.

James Osterlund, aged 23, died of appendicitis at the Presbyterian hospital and his remains were taken to Washington, Neb., for interment. During the past week the enrollment at the night school in the Cases building increased to 129 and the number of pupils at the Comenius night school was about 100. The new Lake school annex is now in place in the northwest corner of the school building. The new building will be ready for use in two weeks. The workers are engaged in placing a foundation under the building and hope to have it ready for use in two weeks. The new building will be ready for use in two weeks. South Omaha News.

A petition was presented to the city council the other night containing fifty-four signatures, requesting that the smoke nuisance at the Armour plant be abated. It was asserted by the petitioners that when the wind comes from the north the smoke from the six stacks at Armour's drops down on Q street so thick that it is impossible to see but a few feet ahead.

A committee was appointed by the mayor to investigate and it has been found that there is very little smoke coming from the plant at the present time. On certain occasions when the wind happens to be from the north. At the time this petition was introduced in the council the time-worn topic of smoke nuisances was brought forth again and discussed at some length. Some of the members of the council thought that the packers ought to be compelled to provide their furnaces with smoke consumers, while others said that they were glad to see smoke issuing from the stacks, as it indicated that men were being employed and that business was going on at a brisk rate. Regardless of the report the investigating committee may make, it may be stated that the Armour company proposes to erect an immense smoke stack to carry away the smoke from all its boilers as soon as arrangements can be perfected. This stack will be by far the highest in the city and will be built of brick upon a solid concrete foundation. Plans for this proposed big stack were drawn some time ago, but on account of other building operations being under contemplation the work was delayed. Now that winter has virtually set in nothing will be done until spring, except to purchase the material to be used and have it unloaded on the ground. All of this will be done during the winter months, with a view to commencing the erection of the main stack as soon as the weather will permit in the spring.

Foreign Missionary Convention.

On Thursday last the Women's Foreign Missionary society of the Omaha district held a convention at the First Methodist Episcopal church, Twenty-third and N streets. Forty delegates were present and the session lasted all day. These officers were elected for the ensuing year: Mrs. Charles of the Hancock Park church, president; Mrs. Cole of the First Methodist church, vice president; Mrs. Beatty of the Seward street church, second vice president; Mrs. Gillan of the Walnut Hill church, recording secretary; Mrs. Porter of Trinity church, corresponding secretary; Mrs. Harman of the Seward street church, corresponding secretary. Addresses were delivered by Mrs. W. P. Harford of Omaha, Mrs. Ida J. Moe of Fremont and Rev. Edwin Matthews, a returned missionary.

In Arrears on Special Taxes.

City Treasurer Koutsky asserts that the money due on sewer district No. 107 and on the grading of Twenty-second and Twenty-third streets is coming in very slowly. The first payment on these special districts came due on September 19 and since that time interest on this assessment is piling up at the rate of 1 per cent a month. Mr. Koutsky thinks that if the property owners in these districts knew the interest was piling up so rapidly they would come in and settle.

New Singing Society.

There is a movement on foot for the organization of a male chorus in South Omaha to be known as the Harmony club. The expectation is that fully 100 members will be secured and the first meeting will be held on Tuesday night at 8 o'clock. The organization is interested to start out on a firm basis so as to form a permanent club. If those who are interested in such an organization will send their names to E. P. Baker at room 108 Exchange building full details will be given.

New Methodist Parsonage.

Rev. J. A. Johnson says: "The contract for building the new Methodist parsonage has been let to Carter & Alcox, who were the lowest bidder. A large force of men is now at work and the building will be pushed to completion with all the rapidity possible. The contract calls for the completion of the structure by January 1, as the intention is to have the pastor located in his new home on New York's day."

Floral Club Organized.

A number of young people have organized what they call a Floral club. Mrs. Al Hunter as president and Mrs. Ralph Hall secretary and treasurer. The object is to supply flowers for sick people and especially to the patients at the South Omaha hospital. Committees will be appointed to attend to the furnishing of flowers and funds for this purpose will be raised by the levying of a small assessment.

Sugar Beet Harvest.

The crop of sugar beets on Bellevue Island planted by South Omaha business men is being harvested as rapidly as possible. H. M. Christie, who is president of the local company, said yesterday that the beets sold so far had brought 2 1/2 a ton, which is 25 cents more than the average. This additional price is paid on account of the excellent quality of the beets.

Registration Books.

Copies of the registration books used prior to the recent election are now being made and a great improvement is noticed. Last year the books were in bad shape and when the council of affairs in 1900 read the condition of affairs in 1900, the council revised the book of registration list with a view to improving the service. This has been done and so far very few errors in the books have been found.

Epworth League Plans.

The Epworth league is planning to be at home and keep open house on Thanksgiving day from 7 until 9 o'clock. A special invitation and welcome is extended to all young people in the city and especially those who are boarding and will not be able to spend Thanksgiving at their homes. The details will be given in the next issue.
