

SOCIETY PUTS IN BUSY WEEK

Fashionable Women Alternate Between Smart Functions and Charitable Work.

CITY'S POOR ARE NOT FORGOTTEN

Although Occupied with Social Duties Many Find Time to Think of Her Less Fortunate Sisters.

Social Calendar

MONDAY—Mrs. Guloua luncheon at the club for Mrs. Lyman... TUESDAY—Mrs. W. Megath's reception for Mrs. Freeman...

The past week has been a busy one for the women who are at the head of affairs in Omaha's social world.

Tuesday society apportioned itself into the smartest and the most practical of the season and have been functioning as well as a number of minor events of a more or less formal nature.

These instances have been recipients of its special attention of late. All day and evening on Tuesday the Creche received these women and their splendid donations.

Between 2 and 6 o'clock on Wednesday afternoon Mrs. C. E. Ford received about 200 guests at a rose colored tea at her new home on West Farnam street.

Mrs. Ford's housewarming. Between 2 and 6 o'clock on Wednesday afternoon Mrs. C. E. Ford received about 200 guests at a rose colored tea at her new home on West Farnam street.

Assisting in the dining room were: Mrs. Fred Adams, the Misses Comstock, Lewis and Whitcomb of Chicago. In the other rooms were: Mesdames W. S. Rector, E. V. Lewis, Clark Cott, W. A. Wyatt, Frank Gaines and Porter Garrett.

Debut of Miss Goodrich. A social affair of unusual interest was the reception given by Mrs. D. H. Goodrich on Tuesday afternoon, at which her daughter, Miss Gertrude, made her formal debut.

On of Town Guests. Mr. W. H. Hall of Ottumwa, Ia., spent a few days in Omaha last week. Mrs. J. W. Vail of Chicago will spend the week with Mrs. H. B. Corryell.

Miss Viola Gillette of the Alice Nilsson Opera company was the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Cook during her stay here. Mrs. W. O. Gibson of St. Paul, Minn., who has been visiting her sisters, Mrs. Coggeshall and Mrs. Doolittle, has returned home.

Sixteen women were charmingly entertained at cards Wednesday afternoon by Mrs. Millard Finkhouser at her home on Fortieth street, complimentary to Miss Strong of Chicago.

Master Richard Shandy was given a pleasant surprise on Saturday afternoon by about twenty-five young friends, the occasion being his eleventh birthday. The afternoon was spent in games.

Miss Emma Lorenzen entertained at cards on Friday evening for Miss Lydia Rhodes of Sedalia, Mo. The woman's first prize was won by Mrs. H. Benford and the man by Mr. Will Mulvihill.

Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Cook were surprised by a number of friends on Thursday evening at their home, 1922 Military avenue, on the occasion being their eighteenth wedding anniversary. The evening was spent in music, dancing and card playing.

Miss Jessye Lawrence entertained on Thursday at her home on Poppleton avenue a "fall dinner party." The lunch was made up of substantial food, packed in large dinner pails. The bonbons were served in similar symbolic packages.

Mrs. William S. Rector entertained informally on Friday evening for Mr. Rector's sisters, Mrs. James Reed of Nebraska City and Mrs. E. J. Paris of Lincoln, Ill., also for Miss Whitcomb of Chicago and Mrs. F. S. Spencer of Nebraska City.

At the opening November party of the Winter club at Metropolitan hall Friday night the attendance of members was unusually large and a number of invited guests availed themselves of the opportunity.

Miss Ruby Douglas entertained a party of friends in a very novel but practical way on Monday evening, in honor of Miss Leonora Smith. Each guest brought some article of linens and presented it to Miss Smith, who is to be married on Wednesday.

In honor of Miss Leonora Smith, whose marriage to Mr. Guy B. French occurs on Wednesday, November 21, Mrs. Frank Turney gave a pink and white kensington on Thursday afternoon. The feature of the afternoon was a guessing contest, the prize, a handsome sandsteck, being won by Miss Edna Martin.

Miss Florence Roseenthal entertained eighteen little girls at the home of her parents Wednesday afternoon, it being the sixth anniversary of her birthday. The afternoon was spent in playing games, and refreshments were served. Prizes were won by Misses Ruth Brandeis and Adele Gehbart.

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Burchmore entertained at high five on Thursday evening at their home on South Twenty-seventh street. At the conclusion of the games refreshments were served, a card club was organized to meet regularly during the winter. The first meeting will be held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. C. B. Miner, 1115 South Eleventh street, November 23.

Miss Helene Wyman gave a pink luncheon at the Her Grand on Monday afternoon, in honor of Miss Whitcomb of Indianapolis, who is her guest. Pink carnations formed the centerpiece on the table and the decoration of the room, with the pink-shaded lights, completed a most charming effect.
