

NEW PASTOR FOR OMAHA

Rev. M. Dewitt Long to Take Charge of Knox Presbyterian Church.

RESIGNS HIS SPRINGFIELD, O., PULPIT

Change is to become effective the first of February. He has been a success in his Eastern field.

SPRINGFIELD, O., Jan. 14.—(Special Telegram)—Rev. M. Dewitt Long of the Fifth Avenue Presbyterian church, Columbus, has resigned his pastorate to accept a call to Knox Presbyterian church, Omaha. The resignation takes effect February 1. Many members of the church announced their surprise at this severance of relations and expressed their warmest regards to Mr. Long. He had seen fit to go to another field of labor. It was unanimously voted, however, to accept his resignation. There was no further demonstration. However, before the pastor leaves Columbus for the west the church expects to show its appreciation of his services by giving him a farewell reception.

Six years ago Rev. Dr. Long came to the Fifth Avenue church from North Baltimore, where he was preaching. He took hold of the church when it was in an embarrassing condition. A schism of the church had rendered it somewhat discouraged. The success of the new pastor was assured from the start. He built the church up to its present splendid proportions and leaves it in good condition. He was never installed as the regular pastor of the church owing to strained relations with the former pastor and the presbytery. On this account the presbytery has nothing to do with the present severance of pastoral relations.

DOCKERY BECOMES GOVERNOR

New Executive for State of Missouri Sworn In in Presence of Legislators.

JEFFERSON CITY, Mo., Jan. 14.—Hon. A. M. Dockery was today inaugurated governor of Missouri in the house of representatives. In the presence of both branches of the legislature, there were special delegations of democrats from all parts of the state. St. Louis sent 1,000, Kansas 400, including 200 members of the Third regiment, National Guard of Missouri. The oath of office was administered to the governor by Chief Justice Burgess of the supreme court. Governor Dockery in his inaugural address to the members of the senate and house of the Missouri general assembly spoke at some length on general legislation and touched briefly on the country's fair to be held at St. Louis in 1902 to commemorate the 100th anniversary of the Louisiana purchase. He said: "We may confidently announce that this exposition, in the variety and magnitude of its displays, will be unsurpassed in all time and will bring to our state and metropolitan city the representatives of all the nations of the earth. We are the agents of the people and it should be our constant effort to prove ourselves worthy of the exalted trust reposed in us. To promote the public good should be our aim and endeavor. All sinister efforts to estrange our people by attempting to array one class against another should be shunned as the pestilence that walketh in darkness. It is an occasion of real pleasure that I am able to enter upon my office as chief magistracy without having made one ignominious appeal to class prejudice. I have not posed as the special exponent or champion of any one class, however worthy it may be. I have pledged to be governed by the people, to be governed in the name of the people, to give strength of will and integrity of purpose, I will not betray them, but will deal justly with them and with each and all of the diversified interests of this proud and progressive state."

BREWERS' TONIC IS MILD BEER

Court So Decides and Renders Judgment Against Government for Taxes Collected.

KANSAS CITY, Jan. 14.—Judge Hook in the United States district court here today, rendered an important decision in the case of the Rochester Brewing company against the United States involving the taxing of a proprietary medicinal preparation. The court sustained the complainant's contention that the article was not subject to tax and rendered judgment against the government for $3,000 and interest, the amount paid by the brewing company, under protest, for taxes. The complainant company has sold what they termed a "tonic," put in bottles, on which had already been paid the regular $2 per barrel beer tax. The revenue department at Washington held that it was taxable as a proprietary medicinal article, while the complainant contended that it was a mild beer. Suit was brought last fall by Harkless O'Grady and Crystal for the brewing company, which made the contention that the construction of the commission's internal revenue was erroneous. The court sustained the contention. This is said to be the first decision of any court on the question.

LOCAL BREVITIES.

Major Brad Slaughter and his clerk, John Leflor, were at Fort Crook yesterday packing off the troops at that post. The Pennsylvania club meets at the rooms of the Commercial club at noon today to make arrangements for its annual banquet, to be given some time in February. Gende Nantz and Dan Cemo mixed up in the Monday evening in an Italian, holding house at 26 North Ninth street. Cemo used a dirk on Nantz, cutting him on the fleshy part of the thumb. Both were arrested by Patrolman Goodrich, the former for stabbing with intent to do great bodily injury, and the latter as complaining witness. Two entertaining and instructive lectures were delivered at Comenius school last week before the students of the English branch. One, given by an Italian, told of a trip to Paris, described some of the interesting incidents of her voyage and sojourn in France. Miss McChesney gave a lecture on "Norway" and showed herself to be an expert on the subject. The Omaha Curling club began its mid-winter series of games last Wednesday at the Marble skating rink, at Twenty-fourth and Hamilton streets, and a very enjoyable evening was put in. It is the intention of the club to play every Wednesday evening, but the probabilities are that this week will be skipped unless a marked change in the weather occurs between this time and tomorrow night. In case the ice will permit the curlers will be on hand at 7 o'clock and all members of the club and those interested in the game are invited to be present.

STRAIGHT TALK BY M'GRAW

Ball Player Denies Robinson's Story of Double-Dealing and Treachery to Associates.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 14.—The lovers of baseball in Baltimore were greatly interested today in the statement given out in New York last night by Frank de Haas Robinson of the Baltimore club, who had been connected with the National League and with having broken out with his associates in the National Base Ball association, which it was attempted to organize last year. Both players indignantly deny the charges of bad faith.

"The statement that I in any way betrayed my colleagues in the National association is absolutely and unqualifiedly false," said McGraw. "Mr. Robinson has not confined himself to facts in his detailed statement of the affair, for it is not true that I had signed an agreement with Hamilton prior to the Chicago meeting of the promoters of the National League. I did it at any time have an understanding with him or with anyone else involving the formation of the association. At that time I had not signed any agreement, and finally failed to do her share in the matter and at the suggestion of Anson I started the Philadelphia to travel straight to it. I got word here that Philadelphia could do nothing and Anson, not as has been charged, declined any further connection with the association as soon as I had been informed of the arrangement. I tried again to bring about a satisfactory arrangement, and failing in it, notified the gentlemen who composed the proposed Baltimore club and who had agreed to finance it, of the result. With one accord they released me from any further obligation to them and then, and not until that time, I signed with the Baltimore club. I am satisfied," he continued, "that Mr. Robinson's charge is actuated by the knowledge that I am finally and irrevocably committed to the American league. A few days ago Harry Pulliam called me up on the long-distance telephone and asked me to come to New York and talk with the National League and ask me to give up my position with the Baltimore club. I refused to do, telling him at the time that I had joined fortunes with the American league and, sink or swim, I meant to stick to it. Mr. Robinson's accusations followed promptly. There is no doubt in my mind that his purpose in giving out this story is to shake confidence in me and to encourage the promoters of the American league, but in this he will be disappointed for they know all the circumstances connected with last year's deal and will acquit me of any wrong-doing or lack of good faith."

Charles E. Bennett will be secured, while the Baltimore club will make use of the old American league. Mr. Watkins made the positive announcement that backing in the sum of $200,000 has been secured. Poor Prospects for Base Ball.

ST. LOUIS, Mo., Jan. 14.—(Special Telegram.)—The prospects for base ball in St. Louis this season are not bright. A. B.
