

COMMERCIAL AND FINANCIAL

Bulls Put Corn Well Up and Keep it There.

OTHER MARKETS FOLLOW THE LEAD

December Wheat Advances Five-Eighths of a Cent, December Oats Almost as Much, but Provisions Are Still Depressed.

CHICAGO, Nov. 4.—Bull activity in the corn pit, aided by a strong cable list, helped all grains today. December corn closed 1 1/2 cents higher, December wheat 5/8 cent higher and December oats 1/2 cent higher.

Strong Liverpool cables, based on the advance in weekly barish statistics were containing influences in the wheat pit.

Estimated receipts for tomorrow: Wheat, 100 cars; corn, 155 cars; oats, 255 cars; hogs, 21,000 head.

Articles Open [High] Low [Close] Sat'y.

Wheat Nov. 70 1/2 70 3/4 70 1/2 70 1/2 Dec. 70 1/2 70 3/4 70 1/2 70 1/2

Quotations were as follows: FLOUR—Steady; winter patents, $1.00

NEW YORK, Nov. 4.—FLOUR—Receipts, 2,800 bbls.; exports, 4,200 bbls.; inactive.

NEW YORK, Nov. 4.—CATTLE—Receipts, 1,000 including 3,000 Texas; market better.

NEW YORK, Nov. 4.—CATTLE—Receipts, 1,000 including 3,000 Texas; market better.

THE OMAHA DAILY BEE: TUESDAY, NOVEMBER 5, 1901.

Philadelphia Produce Market

PHILADELPHIA, Nov. 4.—WHEAT—Clearing, 15,822,273; balances, 2,800,441; money, 47,979.

Philadelphia Produce Market

PHILADELPHIA, Nov. 4.—WHEAT—Clearing, 15,822,273; balances, 2,800,441; money, 47,979.

Philadelphia Produce Market

PHILADELPHIA, Nov. 4.—WHEAT—Clearing, 15,822,273; balances, 2,800,441; money, 47,979.

Philadelphia Produce Market

PHILADELPHIA, Nov. 4.—WHEAT—Clearing, 15,822,273; balances, 2,800,441; money, 47,979.

Philadelphia Produce Market

PHILADELPHIA, Nov. 4.—WHEAT—Clearing, 15,822,273; balances, 2,800,441; money, 47,979.

Philadelphia Produce Market

PHILADELPHIA, Nov. 4.—WHEAT—Clearing, 15,822,273; balances, 2,800,441; money, 47,979.

Philadelphia Produce Market

PHILADELPHIA, Nov. 4.—WHEAT—Clearing, 15,822,273; balances, 2,800,441; money, 47,979.

Philadelphia Produce Market

PHILADELPHIA, Nov. 4.—WHEAT—Clearing, 15,822,273; balances, 2,800,441; money, 47,979.

Philadelphia Produce Market

PHILADELPHIA, Nov. 4.—WHEAT—Clearing, 15,822,273; balances, 2,800,441; money, 47,979.

Philadelphia Produce Market

MAHIA LIVE STOCK MARKET

Beef Steers Active and Strong to Ten Higher—Cows Brought Strong Prices.

HOGS SOLD MOSTLY A DIME HIGHER

Sheep and Lambs in Active Demand at Prices Ranging Strong to Dime Higher Than Last Week, Feeders Sold Just About Steady.

RECEIPTS WERE: Cattle, Hogs, Sheep, Pigs, etc.

SEVERE REPROOF TO BRIBERY

Naval Constructor Anderson Sentenced to Year's Confinement in Sing Sing Prison.

NEW YORK, Nov. 4.—E. C. Anderson, a naval constructor, convicted of attempted bribery, was today sentenced by United States Judge Thomas W. Anderson to a year in Sing Sing prison and fined $1,000.

INSPECTOR BURKE GIVES BOND

Former Chicago Oil Gusher and His Assistant Produce the Necessary Thousands.

CHICAGO, Nov. 4.—Robert E. Burke, former city oil inspector, and Max Prager, his assistant, under indictment on twenty counts charging conspiracy, gave bonds of $10,000 today. No capias were issued.

Texas Oil News

From Beaumont Daily, Oct. 28, 1901: "The Apex oil company's well was brought in today for the first time."

Chicago Oil News

SEVERE REPROOF TO BRIBERY

Naval Constructor Anderson Sentenced to Year's Confinement in Sing Sing Prison.

NEW YORK, Nov. 4.—E. C. Anderson, a naval constructor, convicted of attempted bribery, was today sentenced by United States Judge Thomas W. Anderson to a year in Sing Sing prison and fined $1,000.

INSPECTOR BURKE GIVES BOND

Former Chicago Oil Gusher and His Assistant Produce the Necessary Thousands.

CHICAGO, Nov. 4.—Robert E. Burke, former city oil inspector, and Max Prager, his assistant, under indictment on twenty counts charging conspiracy, gave bonds of $10,000 today. No capias were issued.

Texas Oil News

From Beaumont Daily, Oct. 28, 1901: "The Apex oil company's well was brought in today for the first time."

Chicago Oil News

SEVERE REPROOF TO BRIBERY

Naval Constructor Anderson Sentenced to Year's Confinement in Sing Sing Prison.

NEW YORK, Nov. 4.—E. C. Anderson, a naval constructor, convicted of attempted bribery, was today sentenced by United States Judge Thomas W. Anderson to a year in Sing Sing prison and fined $1,000.

INSPECTOR BURKE GIVES BOND

Former Chicago Oil Gusher and His Assistant Produce the Necessary Thousands.

CHICAGO, Nov. 4.—Robert E. Burke, former city oil inspector, and Max Prager, his assistant, under indictment on twenty counts charging conspiracy, gave bonds of $10,000 today. No capias were issued.

Texas Oil News

From Beaumont Daily, Oct. 28, 1901: "The Apex oil company's well was brought in today for the first time."

Chicago Oil News

SEVERE REPROOF TO BRIBERY

Naval Constructor Anderson Sentenced to Year's Confinement in Sing Sing Prison.

NEW YORK, Nov. 4.—E. C. Anderson, a naval constructor, convicted of attempted bribery, was today sentenced by United States Judge Thomas W. Anderson to a year in Sing Sing prison and fined $1,000.

INSPECTOR BURKE GIVES BOND

Former Chicago Oil Gusher and His Assistant Produce the Necessary Thousands.

CHICAGO, Nov. 4.—Robert E. Burke, former city oil inspector, and Max Prager, his assistant, under indictment on twenty counts charging conspiracy, gave bonds of $10,000 today. No capias were issued.

Texas Oil News

From Beaumont Daily, Oct. 28, 1901: "The Apex oil company's well was brought in today for the first time."

Chicago Oil News

Chicago Oil News