IOWA'S MANY TRAVELING MEN

Five Hundred Meet in Annual Session at Des Moines.

STATE FAIR FINANCES ARE EXCELLENT

Courthouse Controversy Breaks Loose Again—Collections for McKinley Fund—New Savings Bank.

(From a Staff Correspondent.) DES MOINES, Dec. 7.—(Special.)—The twenty-first annual meeting of the Iowa State Traveling Men's association was held here today, with an attendance of about 500 traveling men from Iowa and adjoining states. The old directors were re-elected and W. H. Wheeler and P. E. Haley were re-elected president and secretary, respectively. An incident of the convention was the appearance of A. B. Cummins, who has long been the counsel of the association, with an invitation to the governor-elect by the traveling men. Some changes, as suggested by the officials, were made in the rules of the association and this evening there was a social gathering. The report of Secretary P. E. Haley shows a net increase in membership of 2,014 and a total to date of 14,143. There were seventy-three deaths reported and $32 dropped for non-payment of dues. There were twenty-six re-appointments and the rest of the increase was in new members. There were 875 indemnity claims paid, four death claims paid, one eye loss, one foot loss, twenty-eight claims rejected and the average amount of weekly claims was $7.68. There were 213 applications rejected. The total cash receipts for the year were $113,789.81 and cash on hand $3,471.02. The association owns $30,000 of government bonds and has in addition in the emergency fund $12,798.75 in cash, with the cash balance makes $53,269.80 of assets. The auditing committee reported that the bonds have a cash value of $2,550 in excess of their face.

State Fair Finances. The finances of the Department of Agriculture with reference to the state fair are in excellent condition, as will be shown by a report to be made to the department at the meeting next week. The report will show a balance to the credit of the state fairs of more than $34,000, notwithstanding that during the past season more expense was put on the fair grounds than in any one previous year. The repairs and improvements cost about $15,000 during the season. The association is, therefore, in excellent condition for beginning another year. The annual meeting will be held next week.

Courthouse Case Again. The courthouse controversy broke out again in this county this afternoon by the filing of a petition for a rehearing in the supreme court of the case decided at the last term by which the supreme court refused to interfere with the building of the courthouse on the present site. The argument for a rehearing was made at once, or rather an argument for a continuation of the temporary injunction while the court is reaching a conclusion. Chief Justice Given was the only member of the supreme court in the city and he heard the arguments. He reached the conclusion that inasmuch as Judge Ladd of the supreme bench wrote the opinion of the court, he is the proper person to pass on the application and it was referred to him for argument later.

McKinley Fund Collections. Governor Shaw today received a contribution of $20 from a resident of Worth county as a contribution to the McKinley monument fund. It is the intention of the governor to ask that the committee work through the postmasters and other agencies for the securing of funds. Since the failure of the appointed committee to agree upon any definite form of action Iowa is being left behind in the matter of contributions in honor of the late president.

New Savings Bank. The Citizens' Savings bank of Spencer has filed articles of incorporation and is ready to begin business. The capital is $25,000. Incorporators: William Filandt, Franklin Fiebert, W. L. Benson, Arthur H. Howard, all of Spencer, and Andrew Smith of Springfield Center, N. Y.

Legation Secretary Returning. Word has been received here that Henry J. Lenderink of Orange City, who recently resigned his position as secretary of the American legation at Santiago, Chile, is to be home by Christmas. Nothing is known as to the reason for his unexpected resignation. He was originally a candidate for the consulate at Rotterdam, Holland.

HELD FOR THE SHOOTING Three Men Locked Up Under Suspicion of Killing Marshal Rolfe Smith.

CHELSEA, Ia., Dec. 7.—(Special.)—Three men, answering closely the description of the three robbers who shot at and killed Marshal Rolfe Smith in a running fight yesterday morning, are under arrest at Keosauqua and will be held awaiting means of identification. Bert Compton, who was gagged and bound while the robbers were lying in wait for the marshal, is expected to identify the murderers of the Chelsea officer.

The entire country and surrounding towns are aroused over the cold-blooded shooting of Marshal Smith yesterday morning and posses under the direction of the sheriff are scouring every nook and corner of the county in an effort to apprehend them. Feeling is wrought to the highest pitch

"77" USED HABITUALLY KEEPS OFF THE GRIP

Persons who take "77" habitually never have a severe attack of Grip and so are not among the wrecks caused by the insidious disease. "77" breaks up Coughs, Colds, Grip, Catarrh, Influenza, Bronchitis and Sore Throat by restoring the checked circulation, starting the blood coursing through the veins—relieving the congestion—giving the liver, heart and lungs a chance to act. and it is not at all unlikely that if the men are caught a lynching will take place. Officer Smith was a young man and a favorite. His death is lamented by everyone who knew him. He leaves a wife and babe whose lonely condition cry out for vengeance against the red-handed slayer of father and husband. The detailed story of the attempted plunder of the bank by three masked men, the running fight and murder of Marshal Smith, is related by those who were on the scene a few minutes after the tragic incident had occurred. Bert Compton, a young man who was returning after taking a young woman home from a rehearsal of amateur theatricals, first discovered the trio at 1 o'clock. They were then making their plans for the looting. Thinking he was the town marshal, the robbers ordered a halt. Compton did so, but drew his pistol with determination of firing. He was not quick enough, however, and was quickly seized, bound and gagged and left tied to a pile of lumber beneath the elevator. One of the trio guarded Compton and the other two went into the town. After they had done two shots were fired.

Subsequent developments show that one of the shots entered the life of Smith. The body of the city marshal was found close by the side of the railroad track with the lifeblood ebbing from a gaping wound in the head. The officer, discovering the men shortly after they had left the side of Compton, had ordered them to halt and fired a shot in their direction. The shot was exchanged and one of the robbers, coming back, placed the muzzle of his pistol almost at the unfortunate man's body and fired. Death came shortly after.

Realizing that it was now impossible to plunder the bank, the three robbers and their companion at the elevator. Stealing a handcar from the section house, they fled west in the direction of Long Point. It is supposed they went toward Gladstone. Compton, who managed to release himself by means of a knife with which the men were severely, got them to a farm, was soon organized and in pursuit. Three hoboes were arrested at Keosauqua, afterward released and again arrested. The church bells at Tama were rung. Soon a crowd gathered and was organized into a searching party. Major Velsky was placed in charge. He separated the men into parties, sending each party in a different direction. Farmers and small posses are searching the country in every direction and no one will be allowed to escape.

DES MOINES, Dec. 7.—(Special Telegram.)—Officers here have been asked to take special precautions to look for the two men who escaped from Chelsea after shooting the town marshal in an effort to rob a bank. It was reported they had gone east on the Northwestern, but now it is believed they came this way and are likely to arrive in Des Moines. Nothing has developed as to the identity of the culprits, but the young man Compton, who was bound and gagged by the three robbers, can give a good description of them except as to their faces.

SENTENCED TO BE HANGED Greenville Bank Robber Must Die for Murder of John Sundblad.

STORM LAKE, Ia., Dec. 7.—(Special Telegram.)—An immense crowd filled the courtroom here this afternoon awaiting the sentencing by Judge Ballie of Albert Phillips and Leroy Foster, the murderers of John Sundblad of Albert City. At 1 o'clock this afternoon the judge came into the courtroom and court was immediately called to order. The defendants were asked if they had anything to say as to why the sentence should not be pronounced. Attorney Phillips, on behalf of the defendants, read a motion for a new trial. The motion was overruled and the date for the hanging was set as December 18.

Marble Cutter Becomes Insane. ONAWA, Ia., Dec. 7.—(Special.)—James A. Geist, a marble cutter employed in the Onawa Marble works, became violently insane and will be turned over to the Nebraska authorities. He has relatives at Scribner and West Point, who are coming after him. He was formerly an inmate of the asylum at Norfolk and Hastings, Neb.
