

"Ayer's Hair Vigor is all that is claimed for it. I have tried it and I know. It restored the natural color to my hair, stopped its falling out, and makes my hair soft and glossy. I always recommend it to my friends." - Mrs. Emma J. Vandeear, Mechanicville, N. Y.

There's a wonderful amount of satisfaction in having a splendid head of hair and a scalp free from dandruff. It's more as nature intended.

Ayer's Hair Vigor

Give nature a little lift now and then by feeding your hair with Ayer's Hair Vigor. It makes the hair grow, stops falling, cures dandruff, and always restores color to gray hair.

WILSON TALKS AT ASHLAND

Secretary of Agriculture Explains What Administration Has Accomplished.

ASHLAND, Neb., Oct. 21.—(Special.)—Hon. James Wilson, secretary of agriculture, addressed a meeting at the opera house here Monday evening. He devoted his speech to the trusts and explained how President Roosevelt had determined to dissolve illegal and harmful combinations of capital where they were directed against the public. He thought the tariff needed revision along the lines of protection, as no schedule of duties was sacred. Mr. Wilson explained that the republican administration, through the Agricultural department, had done for the farmers since President McKinley's first term. Mr. Wilson was accompanied by Hon. Charles Weston, candidate for re-election as state auditor. H. H. Shedd, presided at the meeting.

The Hebron cornet band gave a concert preceding Mr. Wilson's address and much enthusiasm was manifested throughout the meeting. The speaker was introduced by Dr. U. H. Squires. He began his address by outlining the responsibility of the perpetuation of national and state government. Then he discussed the tariff question. He praised the splendid policy of the administration and implored the republican party to be faithful.

MOTHER IS FATALLY INJURED

Skull is Fractured, but Baby, Which She Held in Her Arms, is Not Hurt.

HEBRON, Neb., Oct. 21.—(Special Telegram.)—Miss Adam Elliker came in from her farm this afternoon and when near the Rock Island depot her horse became frightened at the train and began to run away. With her infant baby in her arms she struggled valiantly to check the animal but in vain. The horse ran north on Fourth street, then suddenly turned east on Lincoln avenue, throwing the mother and babe from the buggy. The woman sustained a fracture of the skull and it is thought serious internal injuries. The infant is only slightly bruised.

Believes They Were Bandits.

PLATTSBURGH, Neb., Oct. 21.—(Special.)—A farmer who resides on the east side of the river, about three miles south of the Burlington bridge, reports that five men camped in the timber near his place Sunday night, and from their actions he is inclined to believe that they are the fellows who held up a Burlington train near Lincoln some time since. He says several of them were heavily armed, and while they were dressed shabbily and looked like tramps, the one who called at his place to buy some bread and other articles of food, seemed to have plenty of money. He thinks they came down the river in a boat. They left during the night, and this seems to strengthen his suspicion that they were outlaws, as a pleasure party would doubtless have remained until morning.

LINCOLN, Oct. 21.—(Special.)—At a meeting of the State Board of Charities and Corrections at the state capital this afternoon the four secretaries were present. They are Rev. J. W. Sereno, of University Place, Rev. A. W. Clark of the Omaha Child Saving Institute, Father Joseph Reusing of West Point and Mrs. F. C. Johnston of Lincoln. A number of the heads of state institutions appeared before the board by invitation and enumerated the needs of their respective institutions in the way of laws and equipments. Prof. Stewart of the Deaf and Dumb institution at Omaha told the board that he needed connection with the Omaha water system, cold storage facilities and more land for the uses of the hospital.

Mrs. C. S. Lobinger of Omaha appeared as a representative of the State Federation of Women's Clubs and asked that the board recommend the enactment of a law providing for juvenile courts, and Secretary Provey of charities of the board of Lincoln responded that bills will be introduced at the coming session providing for such courts and also to provide adequate punishment for men who abandon their families.

Dr. J. V. Beghtol of the Kearney Industrial school was put on the stand and testified for the peace of mind of the liverman, who telephoned to this city. The police arrested the couple. The husband of Mrs. Cruise arrived soon thereafter, found that Tomlin and Mrs. Cruise had registered at a hotel as man and wife, immediately sought an attorney, filed a petition for divorce and went home. The couple were last night arraigned on the charge of immorality and were each fined in the sum of $30 and costs. The fine and costs were paid and the couple has gone to fields where they are not known.

Forced Off the Ticket.

PIERCE, Neb., Oct. 21.—(Special.)—As a sequel to the late democratic and populist caucuses, in which the democrats were forced to throw their nominees for assessor overboard, the climax occurred today, when J. V. McDonald, the democratic nominee who was forced off the ticket, filed his petition and went on the ticket by petition. Mr. McDonald was visiting his old home in Virginia at the time of the caucus. Upon arriving home and hearing of the action of the leaders of the democrats here, he immediately circulated his petition and soon had the required number of signatures. The men signing it are all democrats who are disgusted with the shameful sell-out to the populists, who only cast about fifteen or sixteen votes in this precinct.

GRAND ISLAND, Neb., Oct. 21.—(Special.)—James Plunkett, a member of the Leavenworth, Kan., Soldiers' home, while enroute to that place from Sheridan, Wyo., met with a severe accident. He jumped off yesterday's train on the Burlington, and landed on a pile of lumber at a counter nearby. Before he could return the train moved. In trying to mount the steps his feet slipped and both were run over by the wheels. One foot was so badly crushed as to necessitate amputation. The toes of the other foot are also badly crushed. He is being cared for at the St. Francis' hospital, by the Burlington company's surgeon.

Corn Better Than Expected.

FREMONT, Neb., Oct. 21.—(Special.)—Corn bushing commenced in this vicinity this week and many farmers report the quality of the corn much better than anticipated. There is not much soft corn, but some that is not well filled out. Some farmers claim that the average yield will run up to sixty bushels per acre.

First Corn is Marketed.

BEATRICE, Neb., Oct. 21.—(Special Telegram.)—The weather has been perfect for the last week to mature the late corn and today there was marketed quite a number of loads of new shelled corn, being the first for the season. The price was 45 cents per bushel. The apple and potato crop is very large this year in this locality.

sumulative, $1,000 for the first offense, $5,000 for the second and so on upward. The cases of overcharge enumerated in the state's petition involve penalties aggregating $635,000 against the Union Pacific, and similar cases against the Burlington, amounting like $3,000,000, are pending against that and the other railroads of the state. There is one piece of evidence in the case that is reported to have cost the Union Pacific company $35,000. It is a showing made by an expert accountant from an examination of the company's books. The referees found that the law under which the action is brought is invalid and that the declaration of the unconstitutionality of the law creating the state railway commission carried with it the unconstitutionality of the measure. Formal objections have been made by the attorney general to the findings of the referees and it is upon these objections that the hearing will come up November 18.

FARMERS' ELEVATOR IS A GO

Railroad Company Agrees to Build Sidetrack to New Structure at Benedict.

YORK, Neb., Oct. 21.—(Special.)—Through the columns of The Bee the head officials of the Burlington were made aware of the true situation at Benedict, in this county, over the farmers' elevator site along the right of way in Benedict. The railroad company had really no objections to farmers having an elevator at Benedict, but as there were already three elevators at Benedict the company insisted on one of the elevator owners at Benedict selling out to the farmers, and one of the James elevators was offered them.

The farmers were not acquainted with elevator values in York county, which find a ready sale if offered at 100 to 300 per cent more than actual value, and refused to pay $7,000, which is said to be the price paid by Mr. Foster of York, who bought it as an asset as he learned that it was offered for sale at this price. Learning through The Bee that the farmers were building an elevator eighty feet from the rail of the track they sent two of the company officials to look over the ground and make a survey for the purpose of building a sidetrack to the elevator now being built by the farmers and have assured the farmers that they would be furnished their share of cars, not discriminating against anyone.

Ten thousand dollars was subscribed in a very short time toward the building of another elevator at Benedict, and the one to be built at Thayer, this county. This makes the second farmers' elevator company organized in this county. The Thayer Farmers' Independent Elevator company will not build an elevator this year. They are waiting for the completion of the next year will build a modern large grain elevator. At a meeting this week of the stockholders they elected the following officers: President, R. B. Price; vice president, Carl Ratziog; secretary, T. C. Frather; treasurer, Aug. Sackebewsky.

HELD FOR TRAIN ROBBERY

John Flax Bound Over, Principally on Account of His Own Story.

GENERAL BELIEF HE IS NOT ONE OF MEN

Tells Story and Afterwards Denies it that Pat Crowe Was One of Party and Beat Prisoner Out of His Share.

(From a Staff Correspondent.)

LINCOLN, Oct. 21.—(Special Telegram.)—John Flax, alias W. V. Hiatt, a supposed tramp, who has been under arrest in the county jail on the charge of being one of the men who held up a Burlington train on the morning of October 11, was bound over to the district court this evening. The hearing was held in the county jail. The only evidence introduced against him was his own admissions to Sheriff Branson, and the identification by ex-Detective Routsahn of him as a man he had seen near the place of the robbery the day before. The man was originally arrested in Fairbury, where he attracted the attention of the officers by his talk in and about the saloons wherein he boasted of being concerned in the robbery. He was taken into custody and brought here. To the sheriff he readily admitted that he had been in the robbery, but that he wanted to pech on his confederates, because after the robbery he had thrown out of the saloon and beaten him and refused to divide the swag with him. He declared that Pat Crowe was the leader and that all three of his confederates were Omaha men.

He offered to point out where they would be found in Omaha, and two deputy sheriffs took him there. Instead of pointing out the men, he led the officers through a labyrinth of saloons, ending up by getting heavily drunk.

The man denied absolutely today that he was concerned in the robbery, and said he had simply lied. "Flax is not one of the train robbers," said Detective Malone tonight. "He simply strung the sheriff with a hot-air story that has no truth in it. The man's story shows conclusively that he did not take part in it. He is simply a hobo who wants a free drink and little lodging."

Superintendent Bignell does not believe that Flax had anything to do with it. His story was looked into as soon as he was first arrested and proved as improbable. The sheriff insists that he is one of the robbers, and the railroad people entered no objections to his holding him.

"A LASTING INVIGORATOR

Is Pe-ru-na"—So Say the Athletes.

A Nebraska Athlete Gives a Glowing Tribute to Peruna—Cured of Catarrh.

"IT HAS CURED ME."

DAN BALDWIN OF OMAHA, NEB.

A Letter From the Physical Director of the Omaha, Neb., Metropolitan Police Force.

Dan Baldwin of Omaha, Neb., is a wrestler of national as well as local reputation. He is physical director of the Omaha metropolitan police force and is considered the strongest man in the state of Nebraska. But even the finest physique and best trained muscles cannot protect a man from disease. Mr. Baldwin suffered with catarrh. Instead of waiting for the ravages of catarrh to extend through his system, destroying that magnificent strength at its first approach he took Peruna. He did not first try snuffs, inhalers and other kinds of local treatment, but used Peruna, the only internal systemic catarrh remedy. In a short time he was able to write the following letter to the Peruna Medicine Co. of Columbus, Ohio:

"I take great pleasure in recommending Peruna, your valuable remedy for catarrh. It has cured me with the use of three bottles, and I can cheerfully recommend it to anyone suffering with the same disease."—Officer Dan Baldwin, Central Police Station.

The muscles depend upon the nerve centers for their strength. The nerve centers become exhausted and weak. With weak nerve centers the muscles become flabby and no amount of training can develop them. Thus it is that strong muscles depend upon healthy nerve centers. Healthy nerve centers depend upon good digestion. Good digestion depends upon clean mucous membranes, free from catarrh. No man troubled with internal catarrh can ever become an athlete.

Peruna is not a flashy, quick-acting stimulant. It is a slow, sure, natural invigorator. A course of Peruna is as sure to bring a renewal of vital powers as the spring time is to bring buds and blossoms. Catarrh destroys the appetite, weakens the digestive powers, depletes the nerve centers and the whole human system sympathizes. Complete physical demoralization follows. Life becomes a burden and a bore.

Mr. George Wizenred, 1304 Bailey avenue, Buffalo, N. Y., is a well known athlete and heavy lifter. In a recent letter to the Peruna Medicine Co., he says: "Peruna is all right. I know it, for I have tried it now for three years and as long as I can get Peruna I shall need no doctors of medicine. Three winters ago after a severe contest I became over-heated and somehow caught cold, which developed into a catarrhal condition of the head. Fortunately for me my attention was called to Peruna and I took it at once, with the result that within a week I was all right once more. Since then if I ever feel at all dull or worn out a few doses will set me up and make me feel all right and I feel that it is a fine strengthening tonic."—George Wizenred.

Athletes use Peruna, not as a temporary stimulant to tide them over some ordeal or sudden emergency, but as a lasting invigorator. It is a tonic that reaches the cause of all weakness, the organs of nutrition. If you do not derive prompt and satisfactory results from the use of Peruna write at once to Dr. Hartman, giving a full statement of your case and he will be pleased to give you his valuable advice gratis. Address Dr. Hartman, president of the Hartman Sanitarium, Columbus, Ohio.
