

TOOTH TALK, No. 12

BABY'S FIRST TOOTH.

If it comes in painfully, it is simply a forerunner of coming painful events in the little life now beginning the journey from the cradle to the grave.

When the child cries from pain in the night it is the father's, not the mother's, duty to soothe and walk the floor with it.

When it is older, and through crying, the mother may bring it to me for its dental needs.

POLITICS SAVIOR FOR LABOR

Washington Socialist Points the Way to Heal All Industrial Ills.

D. Burgess of Tacoma, Wash., candidate for governor of Washington on the socialist ticket in the 1904 campaign, addressed a meeting of socialists Thursday night at Washington hall.

"Labor unions are futile," he said. "Their leaders have betrayed them by the hundreds for money and office. Capital talks about the sacredness of the contract and holds it sacred only as long as it serves capital's interests."

"What are we to have instead to advance the interests of the laboring man? I tell you we must organize our workers in the political field as well as in the industrial; we must get control of the government, which is at present only a means for the rich to rob the poor and occasionally each other."

They will not send the military down to the mines to shoot the poor workmen. Then we won't protect the capitalist in his robbery of employees. Then the man who creates the wealth may keep it, and if the people now rich want to enjoy the fruits of labor it will be the fruits of their own, for they will work like the rest of us for their living."

GIVE YOUR STOMACH A NICE VACATION

Don't Do It By Starving It Either—Let a Substitute Do The Work.

The old adage, "All work and no play makes Jack a dull boy," applies just as well to the stomach, one of the most important organs of the human system, as it does to the man himself.

If your stomach is worn out and rebels against being taxed beyond its limit, the only sensible thing you can do is to give it a rest. Employ a substitute for a short time and see if it will not more than repay you in results.

Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets are a willing and most efficient substitute. They themselves digest every bit of food in the stomach in just the same way that the stomach itself would do it well. They contain all the essential elements that the gastric juice and other digestive fluids of the stomach contain and actually act just the same and do just the same work as the natural fluids would do were the stomach not completely back on me. They, therefore, relieve me, just as one workman relieves another, and permit it to rest and recuperate and regain its normal health and strength.

This "vacation" idea was suggested by the letter of a prominent lawyer in Chicago. Heine, who he says: "I was engaged in the most momentous undertaking of my life in bringing about the coalition of certain great interests that meant much to me as well as my clients. It was not the work of days, but of months; I was working night and day, almost when at a very critical time my stomach went completely back on me. The undue mental strain brought it about and hurried up what would have happened later on."

"What I ate I had to literally force down, and that was a source of misery, as I had a sour stomach much of the time. My head ached, I was sluggish and began to lose my ambition to carry out my undertaking. It looked pretty gloomy for me and I confided my plight to one of my clients. He had been cured by Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets and at once went down to a drug store and brought a box up to the office."

"I had not taken a quarter of that box before I found that they would do all the work my stomach ever did, and as a rest or vacation was out of the question for me, I determined to give my stomach a vacation. I kept right on taking the tablets and braced up and went ahead with my work with renewed vigor. It was just so much as I ever did and carried out that undertaking to a successful issue. I feel that I have Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets to thank for saving me the handsome fee I ever received, as well as my reputation, and last, but not least, my stomach."

Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets are for sale by all druggists at 25 cents a box.

CANON WHITMARSH IS DEAD

Venerable Member of Episcopal Cathedral Chapter Succumbs to Long Struggle.

RHEUMATISM IS CAUSE OF DEATH

Funeral Services Will Be Held Saturday Morning at Trinity and Body Buried at Warren, Ohio.

Rev. William T. Whitmarsh, well known to the Episcopal clergy of this state, died Thursday morning at his late home, 1546 South Twenty-ninth street. He was 71 years of age and was afflicted for a number of years with rheumatism.

Canon Whitmarsh came to Omaha about the time of the consecration of Bishop Worthington and served as private secretary to the bishop and secretary of this diocese. For a number of years Mr. Whitmarsh served as an Episcopal missionary in Nebraska. He was born in England and formerly was a Baptist minister. He entered Kenyon college at Gambler, O., to prepare himself for the ministry of the Episcopal church.

He was ordained deacon by Bishop Bedell at Cleveland, O., in 1879 and priest by the same prelate in 1880. His active ministry was spent in Cleveland, Muskegon, Carrollton and Danville, Ill., and Norfolk and Omaha. From 1890 to 1898 he was secretary and registrar of the diocese and private secretary of Bishop Worthington. In 1898 falling health compelled him to relinquish his active work. As a historiographer of the diocese he was the author of "The History of the Diocese of Nebraska, Its Parishes, Missions and Institutions." He was author of several sermons and lectures. He was the senior honorary canon of Trinity cathedral for many years and had the confidence and affection of his bishops, the clergy and laity.

The funeral will be held Saturday morning at Trinity cathedral. The body will be sent to Warren, O., for burial.

Sells Merit of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy Than All Others Put Together.

The following letter from a locality where Chamberlain's Cough Remedy is well known shows by the unprecedented demand for it that the medicine sells on its own merits. Mr. Thomas George, a merchant at Mt. Elgin, Ontario, says: "I have had the local agency for Chamberlain's Cough Remedy ever since it was introduced into Canada, and I sell as much of it as I do all other lines I have on my shelves put together. Of many dozens sold under guarantee, I have not had one bottle returned. I can personally recommend this medicine, as I have used it myself and given it to my children and always with the best results."

BEALS' SCHOOL CELEBRATES

Public Reception Held at the New Building Last Night.

PATRONS TESTIFY THEIR APPRECIATION

Over Six Hundred Attend and Show Interest in the Work of the Public Schools and Their Growth.

The formal opening of the new Beals public school building, Forty-eighth and Center streets, last evening marked the beginning of a new epoch in that section of the city. Over 600 patrons, friends and pupils of the school joined with Superintendent Davidson and George D. Rice of the Board of Education, in making suitable expression to pride that is taken in the beautiful new seat of learning and the civic pride which exists in that part of Omaha surrounding the school. In every particular the occasion was an inspiring one and brought out, with much force the present strength of the city's public school system and its continual growth.

The teachers of the school, assisted by a number of patrons, prepared seats in the main hall of the building for 300 guests, but twice that number gathered. The halls and rooms of the school were beautifully decorated with flowers and other ornaments were served after the program.

Superintendent Davidson's Talk. Superintendent Davidson congratulated the citizens, on behalf of President Christie of the school board, who was necessarily absent on the erection of the school, saying that the erection of a school in the heart of the city was a fitting tribute to the city's growth and its just cause for exultation. Mr. Davidson paid an eulogy to the late Superintendent Beals, after whom the Beals school was named.

"A good public school system is the best investment a city can make of its public funds," said Superintendent Davidson in his talk the superintendent admonished the boys and girls to be motor cars, as it were, with power of their own, rather than dependent trailers.

E. A. Benson advocated the training of a heart and hand in the public schools, placing the education of the first importance. Speaking for the citizens, he thanked the Board of Education and Superintendent Davidson for the new school, and said the city has a school board to be proud of. He told the young folks that to make the world better and happier for having lived in it is the noblest ambition they could cherish.

School and Its Staff.

The Beals school was opened last September, having cost $22,000. The building has six rooms, and so built that more may be added without affecting the symmetry of the building. The school is now in full operation. The teachers are: Miss Virginia White, principal; Miss Amelia Pearson, seventh and eighth grades; Miss Anna Jensen, fifth and sixth grades; Miss Martha Crumpacker, fourth and fifth grades; Miss Jessie Pontius, second and third grades; Miss Marie Prince, first grade; Miss Halile Hardin, kindergarten. A splendid exhibit of drawing done by the pupils, under the supervision of Miss Alice Hill, was shown last evening.

The musical program consisted of vocal selections by the Danish Glee club, Mrs. Milton Brown and Miss Fannie Arnold. Masters Louis and Ove Noble and Miss Helen Fredericksen rendered selections of flute, violin and piano.

The particular guest of honor was Mrs. Beals, widow of the late superintendent of the public schools. She was introduced by Superintendent Davidson and received quite an ovation.

MRS. ADAMS HONORED GUEST

National President of W. R. C. Given Reception by the Local Corps and Friends.

The reception given to Mrs. Abbie A. Adams of Superior, national president of the public schools, was introduced by Mrs. W. M. Morgan of Omaha, national secretary, at the Commercial club Thursday evening was a brilliant and very largely attended affair. The club rooms were adorned with the national colors, and the serving tables with flowers and red, white and blue silk ribbons, producing a charming and patriotic color effect. The reception began promptly at 8:30 o'clock. Those in the receiving line were: Mrs. Walker of Custer corps, Mrs. George B. Eddy, department secretary of the Nebraska Woman's Relief corps, Mrs. Remington of Custer corps, Mrs. W. M. Morgan of Omaha, national secretary; Past Department Commander J. H. Culver, adjutant general of Nebraska; Mrs. Harriet Wilcox, department secretary of the Nebraska Woman's Relief corps; Past Department Commander R. S. Wilcox, Department Commander John Lett of the Nebraska Grand Army of the Republic, Mrs. Hugh Grant corps, Mrs. Aughe of Phil Kearney corps, South Omaha, and Mrs. Thomas Hull of Crook corps.

The reception was given under the auspices of the Women's Relief corps of Omaha and South Omaha. The visitors, representing all of the Women's Relief corps of Omaha and South Omaha and the Grand Army post of 16th cities, with the Women's Grand Army of the Republic, No. 28, and its auxiliary Woman's Relief corps, No. 180, of Council Bluffs, formed in line and marched past the receiving line, and were introduced to the distinguished visitors. Following the reception refreshments were served, after which the gathering was given over to social greetings. Mrs. Adams, Mrs. Morgan, Governor Mickey, Judge Lee Estelle and Captain C. E. Adams made brief addresses, after which the reception came to an end.

Among the past department commanders of Nebraska present were: Major R. S. Wilcox, Lee Estelle of Omaha, Captain Claire E. Adams of Superior, Rev. Harmon Bross of Lincoln and Captain J. H. Culver of Milford. The presence of Abe Lincoln post and corps, under command of Post Commander H. A. Abbott of Council Bluffs, to the number of sixty-five, was one of the interesting incidents of the gathering. Major Wilcox was the chairman of the committee of arrangements, assisted by Mesdames Eddy, Wilcox, Hough, Walker, Augie and others.

Mrs. Adams and party will leave for Minneapolis Friday to look after arrangements for the national convention of the Woman's Relief corps, to be held there in September, 1906.
