

Council Bluffs.

DANISH BAPTISTS GATHER

Clergy and Laymen from All Parts of State in Session.

TWO FROM DENMARK ATTEND

Rev. M. Jorgensen of Copenhagen and Rev. P. A. Holm of Bornholm.

The Young Women's Christian association of Omaha stands for the highest ideals and is counted as one of the five associations of the country.

It is estimated that the next census will show 3,000,000 wage-earning women in the United States.

Many girls and women are attracted to the large cities, believing that greater opportunities await them.

That all or nearly all women crave the atmosphere of home life, which is as vital to the average woman as life itself, goes without saying.

The Young Women's Christian association endeavors to supply its members and to the "strangers" within its gates that cordial womanly sympathy and help which each one so much needs.

Some of us are old-fashioned enough to wish that the necessity for women in commercial life could be eliminated.

It is impossible in these days of progress with the attendant rush and stress. The conditions are here and must be met.

The good women who give their time and services planning and managing the work of the Young Women's Christian association are endeavoring to solve the problem.

It is impossible for the organization to do its best work handicapped by debt, and they plead for the co-operation and continued generous support of the good citizens of Omaha.

Y. W. C. A. and Its Service to the Woman Who Works

By Mrs. J. H. Dumont.

The Young Women's Christian association of Omaha stands for the highest ideals and is counted as one of the five associations of the country.

It is estimated that the next census will show 3,000,000 wage-earning women in the United States.

Many girls and women are attracted to the large cities, believing that greater opportunities await them.

That all or nearly all women crave the atmosphere of home life, which is as vital to the average woman as life itself, goes without saying.

The Young Women's Christian association endeavors to supply its members and to the "strangers" within its gates that cordial womanly sympathy and help which each one so much needs.

Some of us are old-fashioned enough to wish that the necessity for women in commercial life could be eliminated.

It is impossible in these days of progress with the attendant rush and stress. The conditions are here and must be met.

The good women who give their time and services planning and managing the work of the Young Women's Christian association are endeavoring to solve the problem.

It is impossible for the organization to do its best work handicapped by debt, and they plead for the co-operation and continued generous support of the good citizens of Omaha.

Some of us are old-fashioned enough to wish that the necessity for women in commercial life could be eliminated.

It is impossible in these days of progress with the attendant rush and stress. The conditions are here and must be met.

The good women who give their time and services planning and managing the work of the Young Women's Christian association are endeavoring to solve the problem.

It is impossible for the organization to do its best work handicapped by debt, and they plead for the co-operation and continued generous support of the good citizens of Omaha.

Some of us are old-fashioned enough to wish that the necessity for women in commercial life could be eliminated.

It is impossible in these days of progress with the attendant rush and stress. The conditions are here and must be met.

The good women who give their time and services planning and managing the work of the Young Women's Christian association are endeavoring to solve the problem.

It is impossible for the organization to do its best work handicapped by debt, and they plead for the co-operation and continued generous support of the good citizens of Omaha.

Some of us are old-fashioned enough to wish that the necessity for women in commercial life could be eliminated.

It is impossible in these days of progress with the attendant rush and stress. The conditions are here and must be met.

The good women who give their time and services planning and managing the work of the Young Women's Christian association are endeavoring to solve the problem.

It is impossible for the organization to do its best work handicapped by debt, and they plead for the co-operation and continued generous support of the good citizens of Omaha.

Some of us are old-fashioned enough to wish that the necessity for women in commercial life could be eliminated.

It is impossible in these days of progress with the attendant rush and stress. The conditions are here and must be met.

The good women who give their time and services planning and managing the work of the Young Women's Christian association are endeavoring to solve the problem.

It is impossible for the organization to do its best work handicapped by debt, and they plead for the co-operation and continued generous support of the good citizens of Omaha.

Some of us are old-fashioned enough to wish that the necessity for women in commercial life could be eliminated.

It is impossible in these days of progress with the attendant rush and stress. The conditions are here and must be met.

The good women who give their time and services planning and managing the work of the Young Women's Christian association are endeavoring to solve the problem.

It is impossible for the organization to do its best work handicapped by debt, and they plead for the co-operation and continued generous support of the good citizens of Omaha.

Some of us are old-fashioned enough to wish that the necessity for women in commercial life could be eliminated.

It is impossible in these days of progress with the attendant rush and stress. The conditions are here and must be met.

The good women who give their time and services planning and managing the work of the Young Women's Christian association are endeavoring to solve the problem.

Council Bluffs.

GREEN MAKES GOOD HEADWAY

Republican Organization Perfect and Demos Napping.

FARMERS AWAKE TO INTERESTS

Literary Campaign Being Conducted in Ninth District and Outlook for Victory is Most Promising.

Activity of a political character is the order of business in all parts of the Ninth congressional district at the present time.

National democratic leaders have helped to bring this about by declaring that the results of the special election on June 5 to name a successor to Judge Walter I. Smith will be in the nature of an endorsement or rebuke of the demands for reform.

It is the first election to be held since the advent of the party to control of one branch of the national legislature, and the national democratic leaders conceived the idea that the return of a democrat from Judge Smith's district, the strongest republican district in one of the staunchest republican states, would be a victory worth achieving.

It was admitted that it was this that led Mr. Cleveland to reconsider his refusal to be again a candidate.

The national organization, however, has at least partly failed to make good its promise. The "whirlwind campaign" with national speakers for every school house in the Ninth district, has not materialized.

Chairman Lloyd has contented himself with writing letters to various parts of the district and attempting to establish a sort of chain letter campaign.

Some of these letters have fallen into the hands of Chairman Peterson of the republican congressional committee, and have been read with interest. It looks as if the democrats are beginning to do now what the republican leaders did several weeks ago—perfect an organization.

The republican organization is complete and the plan of campaign is original and somewhat novel. Believing that the big democratic leaders meant it when they talked of a "whirlwind" campaign with high oratorical battles, the republicans decided to conduct the campaign without speeches at all, and without what would be a political record of any prominence delivered in the district by republican workers.

It is a literary campaign, where typewriters instead of tongues are employed. Thousands of letters are being sent directly to the voters, especially the farmers, briefly and clearly stating the issues.

Encouraging reports are coming to Chairman Peterson from all parts of the district. Willis L. Stern of Harrison county and Edward S. White of Shelby, the powerful candidates against Judge Green for the nomination, are working as heartily as he is himself for his election.

Judge Green was in the city yesterday meeting party leaders from the district. Among them was P. L. Beecher of Stuart, one of the astute political managers of the state. He has been over the district considerably and declared Judge Green's election was certain. He said the democrats were making the mistake of arraying the people of the cities and towns of the district against the farmers and expected to carry a big vote in Council Bluffs, Atlantic and Red Oak on the issue of lower cost of living promised by the Canadian reciprocity measure and thus catch the farmers napping. This is tending to arouse the farmer and will materially increase the incentive to leave the fields long enough to vote for Judge Green.

Carl Franck, chairman of the republican state central committee, after spending two days in Council Bluffs, has gone to other parts of the district. Reports from him yesterday were of the most optimistic character. Judge Green will spend today in Mills county and Saturday in Harrison county and will make flying trips through the other counties of the district next week, spending the final Saturday in his own county, Audubon.

Indeterminate Term for Forger. WATERLOO, Ia., May 26.—Grove W. Reynolds, charged with having forged checks on numerous business houses between New York and Kansas, aggregating $1,200, was sentenced today to an indeterminate term not to exceed seven years in the state reformatory at Anamosa.

Belle—Man Murdered. FORT MADISON, Ia., May 26.—The body of William Sowerline, Jr., who disappeared from Burlington last Saturday, was found floating near here in the Mississippi river this afternoon. The police suspect he was murdered.

Lincoln Gets Gas Convention. CLINTON, Ia., May 26.—Lincoln, Neb., will get the 1912 convention of the district gas association, the association recommending to the council today that that city be chosen for the next meeting.

Iowa News Notes. DUNDEE—While Elvin, the baby son of Mr. and Mrs. Earl Turner, was playing near the table door, accidentally slipped and fell on the head, fatally injuring it.

LOGAN—The home of ex-Lieutenant and Mrs. J. C. Millman was the scene of a pleasant gathering yesterday afternoon in honor of Mrs. Hattie Rice of Pomona, Cal., and Mrs. Elinor Rice of Logan.

ESTHERVILLE—The funeral of J. O. Youngman, a pioneer resident of Iowa and Emmet county, was held at the home here yesterday. Mr. Youngman was 65 years of age at the time of his death.

LOGAN—Much interest was created by those who saw the government balloon as it passed east of Logan last evening low over the hills from Fort Omaha to a point south of Woodbine, where it came down.

MISSOURI VALLEY—Norton R. Beltrac and Miss Anna M. Storey were united in marriage last evening. Mr. Beltrac has been associated in this city for the last three years. The bride's former residence was Seattle, Wash.

LOGAN—A memorial sermon will be delivered here next Sunday morning by Rev. Mr. J. O. Hoyle and the baccalaureate sermon by Rev. Mr. Thomsen on the next Sunday evening. Both sermons will be delivered at the Methodist church of Logan.

MANNING—Seven of the eight members of the Carsten Struve family, including the mother and father, the daughter and two sons, are sick with trichinosis, caused by eating summer sausage. One of the girls and the father are dangerously ill, but it is thought that the others have good chances for recovery.

NASHUA—Charles, aged about 15 years, the son of Mr. and Mrs. Perry Castor, while standing on top of a feed grinder when it was in motion, accidentally slipped and his foot went into the cogs of the machine. His shoe was torn from his foot, a big chunk taken from the fleshy part of the foot and the big toe was crushed flat and was hurried to a hospital where the injury was dressed. The outcome is hard to predict.

Drink Weisner, King of Bottled Beers. WIDOW WINS FIRST ROUND. MARSHALLTOWN, Ia., May 26.—(Special.)—Mrs. Maggie Weisner-Iertman, the widow of George Berriman, who died a few weeks ago, and whose stepdaughter, Mrs. Harry Wood, of Iowa, Pa., whose existence was unknown to the widow until she appeared in court to contest her father's $50,000 will, won the first round in the probate court at Springfield, Ill., this morning.

According to a telegram from Springfield, after two witnesses had testified that Berriman was of sound mind when his will was made, the will was admitted to probate and Mrs. Berriman was named administratrix by the court. Her bond was fixed at $30,000, which she furnished. Mrs. Berriman formerly lived in this city, where she is very well known.

MACHINIST ENDS LIFE. CRESTON, Ia., May 26.—(Special Telegram.)—Henry Detering, Jr., a machinist in the Burlington shops here, shot and killed himself tonight. As yet no cause for the act is known.

GERMAN MINISTER DEAD. IOWA CITY, Ia., May 26.—(Special Telegram.)—Rev. J. G. Poerlein, for exactly a quarter of a century pastor of the German Lutheran church here, died this morning.

Minor Mention

The Council Bluffs Office of The Omaha Bee is at 16 Scott Street. Both Phones 23.

Davis, drugs. "Chippendale" at Leffert's. Wedding silver at Leffert's. Corrigans, undertakers. Phone 143. PAUST BEER AT ROGERS' BUFFET.

Woodring Undertaking company, Tel. 239. Lewis Cutler, funeral director. Phone 97. FINE GOLD WEDDING RINGS—LEFFERTS.

See the new 1911 wall paper patterns at Berwick's, 21 South Main street.

Call for case of Gund's Peerless beer. J. J. Klein Co., distributors. Occultist's prescriptions accurately filled the same day at Leffert's Big Jewelry store.

Congratulatory cards and choice presents for the graduates. Fauble Art Shop, 235 Broadway.

Have your glasses fitted or repaired by J. W. Terry, optician, 41 Broadway, office with George Gerner.

The 3-year-old son of Mrs. Mart Webster, 170 1/2 Avenue J, died last evening after a four days' illness from measles.

I. Beers Rohrer, traveling representative of the Cudahy packing company and located at Oelwein, Ia., arrived in the city last evening, and will be the guest of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. M. F. Rohrer, until Saturday.

Let us dry clean your lace curtains and finer delicate cloth. Our careful process of handling all kinds of fine cloths insures at least 90 per cent more wearing quality than ever in your lace curtains and drapes.

City Laundry and Dye Works, Phone 214. Council Bluffs chapter U. D. Order of Eastern Star, will hold an informal reception this afternoon at 8 o'clock in the parlors of the Masonic temple, in honor of Mrs. Robinson, the acting worthy grand matron of Iowa. The regular meeting of the chapter will be held at 8 o'clock and the ritual of the order will be rendered. All members are urged to be present and all members of the order are cordially invited.

Mrs. G. W. Cook wants all of the members of the Woman's Relief corps to meet at her home, 1014 1/2 Broadway, on Saturday, and as many others will be able to do the work, and assist in preparing the flowers to be used for the graves of the soldiers who died in the war.

The preliminary work will be done and all arrangements made for the collection of the floral offerings. On Monday the women will spend their time arranging the flowers in wreaths and bouquets for adorning the graves.

E. J. Wood, one of the registrars at the first precinct of the Fourth ward, was trying to create a strike in the city hall yesterday by telling some real fish stories about his experience in the trout streams of the western Nebraska in the vicinity of Chadron. He returned from there three days ago. In two days fishing in Dead Horse creek he caught 210 species trout, all about one and a half pounds in weight. Unbated pinhooks was about the only device used. It was necessary to issue a stern order silencing Wood to prevent every city hall attendant from quitting his job and heading for the rich deceased horse country.

Reports that have been circulated for several days that an admission fee is to be charged at the gates of Manawa park this season are authoritatively and emphatically denied by Manager Barnet, who says that the admission fee is a mystery for it is declared to have come from the pocket of Manager Barnet. He said Mr. Barnet is very anxious to make his first season at the park phenomenally successful. He has had rich and profitable experience in the management of high grade amusement resorts, both in the north and south. Mr. Barnet's home for many years has been at Hot Springs, Ark., where he was connected with many of the popular places of amusement, and where his mother for a number of years conducted one of the most famous fashionable boarding houses. Mr. Barnet also has charge of one of the favorite amusement parks at Manawa, and his cosmopolitan experience qualifies him to understand the wants and fancies of all classes of recreation seekers.

Roy Meadows, a collector for the Omaha office of the Welch Transfer company, was in police court yesterday morning charged with neglecting to provide for his sick wife and family of three children. He was arrested upon a charge of information charging him with desertion. Meadows lives at 213 South Eleventh street in this city. Probation Officer Hester was led to inquire into the situation of the family by reports that one of the children who had been regularly in school, was frequently absent. He discovered the mother seriously ill in bed with the children doing all they could to care for her. The wife and mother professedly told the truth or part of it, which was fully confirmed and considerably amplified by the neighbors. The rest was an information charging Meadows with neglect, which hearing was continued for the purpose of permitting the officers to gather necessary evidence. The stories told to the probation officer were that Meadows has recently been spending his money in Omaha saloons and other resorts.

Deputy Sheriff Leach returned yesterday from Stockton, Ill., having in custody, Tommy Duffield, a 14-year-old boy who ran away from his home, 226 Avenue B, six weeks ago, and was only recently located at the Illinois town. The boy was lured away by McParland, the negro boy, in company with Willie Fries, the young son of the Union Pacific bridge workman who met a tragic death by falling from a train at Waverly, Ia. The Duffield boy says the young negro coaxed himself and Willie Fries to run away and that they had reached Waverly when Willie became homesick and started back to his home. He fell from the first train he attempted to board. Duffield and the negro lad continued their journey without knowing the ultimate fate of their young companion, or apparently caring to know. They became separated after they got into Illinois and he does not know what became of the negro. The colored boy had enticed several other white boys to leave their homes, and the police have been looking for him for some time. Young Duffield has been greatly distressed by his home experience and will be brought before the juvenile court today.

William Hughes an artistic bricklayer, gave a number of thrills to a large crowd of people in the vicinity of the Grand hotel yesterday. He was selected to make an examination of the weakened arch in the topmost window of one of the tall towers of the building. He climbed the fire escape to approach the defective point and then leaned far out, holding only to the narrow coping of brick ornamenting the window aperture. A weakening of his grip or a slip of his fingers would have dashed him to the pavement 100 feet below. He made his examination with the utmost care and then descended on the outside of the tall iron ladder. He will build a scaffolding to repair the defective arch from which two bricks dropped on Monday, narrowly missing the heads of two men standing beneath. Another accident of a similar character occurred on the Pearl street side of the hotel yesterday afternoon. Workmen engaged in putting in the window screens let one of the heavy frames drop from the seventh floor. The window screen was passing, leading behind a woman who was passing, leading a little child. It would have instantly killed both of them if they had passed a fraction of a second later.

SOLONS HUNGRY FOR GRAFT Ohio Lawmakers Chased the Cows Too Eagerly to Observe the Trap.

"You couldn't be unfair to that bunch of grafters," said Detective Burns, referring to Ohio's lawmakers. "Why, things had got to such a pass that you couldn't get a bill against the plague passed unless you paid for it. They were just hanging out their tongues for money and would break down a door to get it."

"All I did was to send my men there and let it be known that they were interested in certain bills—which I don't know—and I hope I haven't done any harm by using the names of good bills. One of my men was introduced to a member of the calendar committee, and he pointed out another operative at a hotel and said that he was interested in a certain bill. They were introduced, and then the legislator said:

"We're not here for our health, you know. It will cost you just $800 to get that bill out of committee."

"The rest was easy. We had the official stenographer of the district attorney as one of our dictators, several rooms away, and he heard every word that was said by the legislators and my men."—New York Sun.

Real Estate Transfers. Real estate transfers as reported to The Bee May 25, by the Pottawattamie County Abstract company.

Mary F. Creutzborg to Charles E. Kimball, lot 4, block 11, Bayliss Second addition to Council Bluffs, 5200

Marie Cline and husband to George Chandler, lots 1 and 2, block 34, in Fleming & Davis' addition to Council Bluffs, w. d., 150

May Dunning and husband to W. H. Kimball, s. 1/2 of lot 2 of lot 6, block 10, Hughes & Doniphan's addition to Council Bluffs, w. d., 1

Benjamin-Fehr Real Estate Co. to Paul Paulson, lots 23 and 24, block 21, Fleming & Davis' addition to Council Bluffs, w. d., 1

W. E. McConell and wife to Robert B. Wallace, lot 2, block 2, Turley & White's subd. in Council Bluffs, w. d., 3,600

Cecelia Biquelme to Charles E. Kimball, lots 21 and 22, block 24, Central subd. in Council Bluffs, w. d., 200

Paul Paulson and wife to Benjamin-Fehr Real Estate Co., lots 23 and 24, block 21, Fleming & Davis' addition to Council Bluffs, w. d., 1

Nathaniel Underwood to Dorn & Engle, w. 1/2 of s. 1/4 s. 24 of 9-7-2, w. c. d., 1

Mary Bennett to A. A. Dorn and B. G. Engle, part of s. 24 s. 24 9-7-2, w. c. d., 12

John Schuetz and wife to Charles A. Reno, lots 11-12, 13, and 25 ft. of lot 14, block 1, Hutchinson's First addition to Council Bluffs, w. d., 1,900

J. H. Schuetz to Charles A. Reno, lots 10 and 11, block 23, Evans' Second addition to Council Bluffs, w. d., 2,171

Walter C. Curtis et al. to Frank C. Fullberg, 7/2 lots in Perry addition to Council Bluffs, w. d., 2,200

J. H. Schuetz and wife to Charles A. Reno, lots 11-12, 13, and 25 ft. of lot 14, block 1, Hutchinson's First addition to Council Bluffs, w. d., 2,200

Totals, thirteen transfers .....$17,627

Lawn Mowers—We have a big line—the Leader, El Liberty, H. 50, Electro, $6.99; Great American, ball bearing, $11.75; DeVol Hardware Co., 594 Broadway.

Drink Weisner, King of Bottled Beers. WIDOW WINS FIRST ROUND. MARSHALLTOWN, Ia., May 26.—(Special.)—Mrs. Maggie Weisner-Iertman, the widow of George Berriman, who died a few weeks ago, and whose stepdaughter, Mrs. Harry Wood, of Iowa, Pa., whose existence was unknown to the widow until she appeared in court to contest her father's $50,000 will, won the first round in the probate court at Springfield, Ill., this morning.

According to a telegram from Springfield, after two witnesses had testified that Berriman was of sound mind when his will was made, the will was admitted to probate and Mrs. Berriman was named administratrix by the court. Her bond was fixed at $30,000, which she furnished. Mrs. Berriman formerly lived in this city, where she is very well known.

MACHINIST ENDS LIFE. CRESTON, Ia., May 26.—(Special Telegram.)—Henry Detering, Jr., a machinist in the Burlington shops here, shot and killed himself tonight. As yet no cause for the act is known.

Council Bluffs.

GREEN MAKES GOOD HEADWAY

Republican Organization Perfect and Demos Napping.

FARMERS AWAKE TO INTERESTS

Literary Campaign Being Conducted in Ninth District and Outlook for Victory is Most Promising.

Activity of a political character is the order of business in all parts of the Ninth congressional district at the present time.

National democratic leaders have helped to bring this about by declaring that the results of the special election on June 5 to name a successor to Judge Walter I. Smith will be in the nature of an endorsement or rebuke of the demands for reform.

It is the first election to be held since the advent of the party to control of one branch of the national legislature, and the national democratic leaders conceived the idea that the return of a democrat from Judge Smith's district, the strongest republican district in one of the staunchest republican states, would be a victory worth achieving.

It was admitted that it was this that led Mr. Cleveland to reconsider his refusal to be again a candidate.

The national organization, however, has at least partly failed to make good its promise. The "whirlwind campaign" with national speakers for every school house in the Ninth district, has not materialized.

Chairman Lloyd has contented himself with writing letters to various parts of the district and attempting to establish a sort of chain letter campaign.

Some of these letters have fallen into the hands of Chairman Peterson of the republican congressional committee, and have been read with interest. It looks as if the democrats are beginning to do now what the republican leaders did several weeks ago—perfect an organization.

The republican organization is complete and the plan of campaign is original and somewhat novel. Believing that the big democratic leaders meant it when they talked of a "whirlwind" campaign with high oratorical battles, the republicans decided to conduct the campaign without speeches at all, and without what would be a political record of any prominence delivered in the district by republican workers.

It is a literary campaign, where typewriters instead of tongues are employed. Thousands of letters are being sent directly to the voters, especially the farmers, briefly and clearly stating the issues.

Encouraging reports are coming to Chairman Peterson from all parts of the district. Willis L. Stern of Harrison county and Edward S. White of Shelby, the powerful candidates against Judge Green for the nomination, are working as heartily as he is himself for his election.

Judge Green was in the city yesterday meeting party leaders from the district. Among them was P. L. Beecher of Stuart, one of the astute political managers of the state. He has been over the district considerably and declared Judge Green's election was certain. He said the democrats were making the mistake of arraying the people of the cities and towns of the district against the farmers and expected to carry a big vote in Council Bluffs, Atlantic and Red Oak on the issue of lower cost of living promised by the Canadian reciprocity measure and thus catch the farmers napping. This is tending to arouse the farmer and will materially increase the incentive to leave the fields long enough to vote for Judge Green.

Carl Franck, chairman of the republican state central committee, after spending two days in Council Bluffs, has gone to other parts of the district. Reports from him yesterday were of the most optimistic character. Judge Green will spend today in Mills county and Saturday in Harrison county and will make flying trips through the other counties of the district next week, spending the final Saturday in his own county, Audubon.

Indeterminate Term for Forger. WATERLOO, Ia., May 26.—Grove W. Reynolds, charged with having forged checks on numerous business houses between New York and Kansas, aggregating $1,200, was sentenced today to an indeterminate term not to exceed seven years in the state reformatory at Anamosa.

Belle—Man Murdered. FORT MADISON, Ia., May 26.—The body of William Sowerline, Jr., who disappeared from Burlington last Saturday, was found floating near here in the Mississippi river this afternoon. The police suspect he was murdered.

Lincoln Gets Gas Convention. CLINTON, Ia., May 26.—Lincoln, Neb., will get the 1912 convention of the district gas association, the association recommending to the council today that that city be chosen for the next meeting.

Iowa News Notes. DUNDEE—While Elvin, the baby son of Mr. and Mrs. Earl Turner, was playing near the table door, accidentally slipped and fell on the head, fatally injuring it.

LOGAN—The home of ex-Lieutenant and Mrs. J. C. Millman was the scene of a pleasant gathering yesterday afternoon in honor of Mrs. Hattie Rice of Pomona, Cal., and Mrs. Elinor Rice of Logan.

ESTHERVILLE—The funeral of J. O. Youngman, a pioneer resident of Iowa and Emmet county, was held at the home here yesterday. Mr. Youngman was 65 years of age at the time of his death.

LOGAN—Much interest was created by those who saw the government balloon as it passed east of Logan last evening low over the hills from Fort Omaha to a point south of Woodbine, where it came down.

MISSOURI VALLEY—Norton R. Beltrac and Miss Anna M. Storey were united in marriage last evening. Mr. Beltrac has been associated in this city for the last three years. The bride's former residence was Seattle, Wash.

LOGAN—A memorial sermon will be delivered here next Sunday morning by Rev. Mr. J. O. Hoyle and the baccalaureate sermon by Rev. Mr. Thomsen on the next Sunday evening. Both sermons will be delivered at the Methodist church of Logan.

MANNING—Seven of the eight members of the Carsten Struve family, including the mother and father, the daughter and two sons, are sick with trichinosis, caused by eating summer sausage. One of the girls and the father are dangerously ill, but it is thought that the others have good chances for recovery.

NASHUA—Charles, aged about 15 years, the son of Mr. and Mrs. Perry Castor, while standing on top of a feed grinder when it was in motion, accidentally slipped and his foot went into the cogs of the machine. His shoe was torn from his foot, a big chunk taken from the fleshy part of the foot and the big toe was crushed flat and was hurried to a hospital where the injury was dressed. The outcome is hard to predict.

Drink Weisner, King of Bottled Beers. WIDOW WINS FIRST ROUND. MARSHALLTOWN, Ia., May 26.—(Special.)—Mrs. Maggie Weisner-Iertman, the widow of George Berriman, who died a few weeks ago, and whose stepdaughter, Mrs. Harry Wood, of Iowa, Pa., whose existence was unknown to the widow until she appeared in court to contest her father's $50,000 will, won the first round in the probate court at Springfield, Ill., this morning.

According to a telegram from Springfield, after two witnesses had testified that Berriman was of sound mind when his will was made, the will was admitted to probate and Mrs. Berriman was named administratrix by the court. Her bond was fixed at $30,000, which she furnished. Mrs. Berriman formerly lived in this city, where she is very well known.

MACHINIST ENDS LIFE. CRESTON, Ia.,