BEAR REPORT FROM MICHIGAN

Number of Best Wolverine Players Are Out of the Game.

SQUAD IS GIVEN SIGNAL DRILL

Team Probably Will Start for Lincoln Thursday Night and May Spread Friday Night in Omaha.

ANN ARBOR, Mich., Nov. 21.—Declaring that Michigan will face a dangerous foe on Saturday in the Nebraska football eleven, Coach Yost drove his squad through two hard practice sessions today and this evening and a hot scrimmage was one of the headlines.

The Michigan squad leaves for Lincoln, Neb., Thursday and Yost promises to work his men as hard tomorrow as he did today.

Stan Well, who injured his ankle in the Pennsylvania game, has been taking things easy and is expected to be ready for Saturday's struggle. It is a question whether Pontius will be able to start the game, and "Bottle" Thompson, fullback, has given his mother his word that he will not play again this season.

The matter chiefly worrying the fans is the possibility that the team will be considerably weakened by the absence of a number of the strongest men. "Bottle" Thompson, by all odds the best ground gallop on the squad, the death of whose brother prevented his playing in the Penn. game, has stated that he will play no more this season.

Pontius is another who will probably not play. The big end has had a woe-ful time with one of his hips this year and although it doesn't bother him in getting about, it is easily thrown out of place, and it seems hardly likely that he will be allowed to risk a permanent injury.

In the event of Thompson's not playing, Meek has the ball on fullback. He kicked well against Pennsylvania, but in carrying the ball is not in a class with the regular. Hengel will take Wells' place if necessary, while Torbet and Carpel are on the last lap of a neck and neck race for the vacant end position.

Patterson Will Play Center. There is no reason to expect any change in the center of the line. Patterson at center, Garrels and Kayser at guards and Quinn and Bogie at tackles are a couplet through which no team has yet been able to make consistent gains and if they exhibit their usual strength should prove a formidable obstacle to the Cornhuskers.

Neither Coach Yost nor Director Harrison has anything definite as yet as to when the team will leave for the west. It is probable though that the start will be made on Thursday morning with a layover at Omaha or some point between that place and Lincoln until the morning of the game.

The great distance and the fact that a comparative ignorance of Nebraska's strength in the football world has instilled a feeling of confidence in the result will operate to prevent any considerable delegation of rosters.

Rated among the important games of the whole season, the Nebraska-Michigan contest at Lincoln next Saturday will attract attention from all the football world.

CORRUPTION IN FOOTBALL?

Assistant Coach at Wisconsin Scores Schools' Methods.

GIANTS ON TEAMS EVIDENCE

Asserts in East It is Customary to Pick Out Heavy Boys and Put Them Through Prep School and College.

MADISON, Wis., Nov. 21.—That college football is honeycombed with corruption all over the country and that the whole system should be submitted to a thorough housecleaning, is the opinion of Dr. Charles McCarthy, assistant coach at Wisconsin for many years.

"I know that never in the history of football," he said, "was there more corruption than at present. In the east, it is even the custom to pick out some heavy boys with fair intelligence and get some alumnus to see that he gets through 'prep' school, and then college. They are careful not to get plug-uglies. It is systematic and well organized."

"In the west as well as in the east alumni association will loan money to a promising man on a note. If he makes good the note is never collected. He can 'sneak' or the note will be collected. The giants who are showing up on these teams are evidence enough."

Doane Coming to Bellevue Saturday on Special Train

CRETE, Neb., Nov. 21.—(Special.)—The Doane-Bellevue football game comes off Saturday, November 25, and prospects in the Doane camp are gloomy enough.

The scrubs managed to score on the variety for the first time in many weeks and the variety play was poor in all stages of play. Coach Johnson feels that unless things brighten considerably in a day or so that Doane may suffer defeat next Saturday. He is, however, doing his best to pull the team together and since, so far as the physical well-being of the team is concerned, practically every one is in prime condition, he ought to be able to accomplish much in the few days that are left.

In spite of the gloom the students are making strenuous preparations for the game in order to show Bellevue that they still have their old-time spirit and a large number will witness the game. Manager Wilkinson has made arrangements for a special train.

Monday evening a large mass meeting was held in the gymnasium and speakers urged about the plans for the Bellevue trip and Coach Johnson made an eloquent plea for more college spirit and the presence of every loyal Doanite at the depot ready to take the train Saturday morning.

Michigan Men Join with Cornhuskers and Co-Eds at Feast

(From a Staff Correspondent.)

LINCOLN, Neb., Nov. 21.—(Special Telegram.)—Upon the request of the innocents, the big Michigan banquet planned for the reception of the Michigan team has been consolidated with the Cornhuskers' banquet on the same evening and will be held at the city auditorium. Seals will be limited to 1,000 and co-eds will be admitted for the first time in the history of the school.

The Michigan men had already arranged for a big banquet and had sold about 300 seats when invited to come in. They will bring the Fort Crook band to Lincoln to meet the Michigan delegation from Omaha and Kansas City at the train and to play Michigan songs during the game. The Nebraska band will meet the Omaha delegation of Cornhusker alumni which arrives in a special train Saturday morning.

KIRBY AT HEAD OF AMATEURS

Annual Election of Athletic Union Held in New York.

ADOPT AMENDMENTS TO RULES

Location of Athletic College or University in Future Will Regulate District in Which He May Compete.

NEW YORK, Nov. 21.—Gustavus A. Kirby of New York, chairman of the executive committee of the Intercollegiate Amateur Athletic association, was today elected president of the Amateur Athletic Union of the United States.

The record of the record committee awards the all-around championship contest at Chicago last August to F. C. Thompson of Princeton, with 4,700 points. J. W. Donahue of Los Angeles is placed second and E. Scholinger of the Chicago Athletic association is third.

Another important change in the rules regulates the district in which a college athlete may compete. Heretofore this matter was decided by the place of residence of the athlete. Under the new rules the location of college or university will be the controlling factor.

In his annual report Everett C. Brown, the retiring president, said the union is growing steadily despite "the attacks of envious critics in this country and jealous rivals in all countries."

BACK FROM MILWAUKEE GAME

Creighton Foot Ball Team in Good Spirits Regardless of Defeat.

READY TO MEET ST. THOMAS

Members of the Eleven to at Once Get Down to Hard Practice and Hope to Pick Off a Victory.

The Creighton university football squad is back from Milwaukee, beaten but cheerful. Coach Miller has remained over a day and as a consequence the team took a vacation last night.

The game was played on a field literally covered with ice and a troublesome wind blew throughout the game. Prucha injured his shoulder in the second quarter, but he will probably be back in the lineup against St. Thomas.

Creighton broke Marquette's low score record by running up seventeen points, which is more than was scored against it in the entire schedule of last year.

Of the eleven points last year against it, Notre Dame scored five, Creighton three, and Michigan Aggie three. St. Thomas won 3 to 0 last year, and Coach Miller is now directing every effort to reverse the decision in the coming battle.
