Alken Given Chance.
"If the accused will pay what he can for the support of his three children I will take the case under advisement for the next ten years," said Governor Aldrich today in the case of Robert E. Alken, whose extradition to Kansas was asked for on the charge that he had been guilty of child abandonment.

Alken, who is an Omaha traveling salesman, through his attorney declared that he would make an effort to comply with the order of the governor. The case was started against Alken by his former wife, who now resides in Kansas City and who says that she is unable to provide for the three children. In the affidavit filed with the state officials here the woman alleged that Alken draws a salary of $150 per month and that he is fully able to contribute $10 per week to the support of her family.

The case was submitted after argument and no decree will be entered or denied until tomorrow.

BELIEF THAT STANISLIS LEFT MUCH MONEY HIDDEN

(From a Staff Correspondent.) LINCOLN, Neb., Nov. 24.—(Special.)—That Theodore Stanislas, whose body was found suspended from a loop in a chain in the city jail yesterday afternoon, came to his death by his own hand was the verdict of a coroner's jury this afternoon. Stanislas' death by his own hand has created a great deal of talk in Lincoln. Few persons here knew the man intimately. He kept his personal affairs secret.

It is a current belief that Stanislas has hidden or placed somewhere a large sum of money. Some of this may be found, but many believe that much of this coin may remain hidden for a long time, if ever found. So far as is known, he left no will. When he left Lincoln after his case had been appealed to the supreme court it is said that he took with him $2,000 in checks and drafts.

Stanislas was a miser in the true sense of the word. By thrift he had acquired a fortune. He denied himself all luxuries and many of the necessities of life. He would not even allow others to buy him a glass of lemonade, as he feared he would have to return the compliment in some way.

It is now believed Stanislas was a descendant of Hungarian nobility. When questioned on this matter he would refuse to answer.

Chief Hunter of the local police department obtained a warrant at the state auditor's office today for $168.62 for expenses incurred in returning Stanislas from Utica, N. Y. Two dollars of this amount was given to a train porter to help guard the prisoner.

"Death of plaintiff in error suggested," was the entry made this forenoon in the phraseology of courts, on the docket of the supreme court of Nebraska in the case of Theodore Stanislas against the state. Attorney General Grant Martin for the state was present to argue the case and to show why the plaintiff in error should serve seven years in the penitentiary for arson, but Stanislas had committed suicide the day before in the Lincoln city jail, and the case came to a close.

St. Thomas' Squad Arrives for Game

The St. Thomas foot ball squad of St. Paul arrived in Omaha yesterday on the Northwestern. Coach Ryan, formerly of Dartmouth, is with the team. Both he and Manager Scallen express themselves as confident that the St. Thomas boys can defeat Creighton today, but admit they expect a fight. St. Thomas has not been scored on this year and their great endeavor will be to keep Creighton from crossing their goal line. Eighteen men are in the squad which Coach Ryan has with him in Omaha. They are putting up at the Paxton and constitute a husky looking bunch. "Buddy" Daugherty, the star man of the team, is a small and innocent looking chap, but he has made a reputation for clever work on the field that is more than local. Paul Daggett, center for St. Thomas, is a nephew of John J. Ryder of Omaha.

The St. Thomas lads held a practice game yesterday afternoon at Benson Eagle park.
