WICK IS HELD FOR CONTEMPT

Charged with Substituting Men in Police Court for Gain.

TAKES DOWN FORFEIT BONDS

Zimmerman Charges that the Practice in Police Court Has Been Going On for Some Time—Wick Profits by Deal.

Al Wick, one of the proprietors of the Wick & Moore saloon and dance hall, was arrested yesterday on a bench warrant issued by Police Magistrate Foster on the charge of contempt of court.

The arrest of Wick is the direct result of Wick substituting prisoners before Judge Foster last Monday morning to save the difference between fines and forfeitures.

Three of the men arrested in the raid upon Wick & Moore's dive a week ago last Saturday night secured Harry Zimmerman to act as their attorney. Before the case was called to trial Zimmerman secured a continuance in the case of those three men—E. J. Storer, Harry Lyon and Jack Lyon. Judge Foster forgot about the continuance and called the three men to trial and when they failed to appear declared their bonds forfeited.

Wick induced the judge to hold the forfeitures open a half hour and he would bring the three men into court. A short time later he appeared with three substitutes, who swore they were Storer and the two Lyons. Each of the "dummies" was fined $5 and costs and Wick collected the $25 cash bond minus the fine of $7.50. This money was put up by Harry Zimmerman and not by Wick.

Zimmerman informed Judge Foster this morning in police court that this practice had been going on in court for some time and urged that steps be taken to stop it.

Worry Brings On Serious Sickness

Grief-stricken because his wife died last week, William Herald, turnkey at the city jail, is at Clarkson hospital in dangerous condition as the result of stomach trouble caused by worry. A year ago Mr. Herald nearly lost his life because of stomach trouble, and at the time only a very delicate operation pulled him through. He never completely recovered, even though he was able to get about. When his wife died last week, he suffered another attack of the illness.

During the last few weeks the Herald family has had most extraordinary misfortune. A month ago Mrs. Herald was taken to Immanuel hospital, suffering from peritonitis. While there, hovering between life and death, an epidemic of scarlet fever broke out in the Franklin school, where the Herald children go, and the Herald home was quarantined. Then Mrs. Herald died, and now Mr. Herald is in the hospital, critically ill. Sunday at his home a large number of friends visited him and he was greatly cheered, but last night his condition grew worse and attending physicians ordered his removal to the hospital. Mr. Herald has four children: Miss Lulu, who is employed by the Postal Telegraph company; William, who is connected with the postoffice department, and Eugene and Edward, aged 12 and 6, who go to public school.

Widow Struggles to Get Damages

Nearly four years after her husband's death under an engine's wheels in the Union Pacific yards, Mrs. Barbara Zitznik, still is struggling to make the road pay her damages. Her case went to trial for the third time before Judge Wills G. Sears in district court today. Zitznik, a trackman, was run down and killed by a switch engine on January 30, 1906. He left a wife and child, Mrs. Zitznik as administratrix of her husband's estate sued for $50,000 in March, 1909. When the case was tried in February, 1910, the jury disagreed. At a second trial in June, 1910, the widow procured a judgment for $3,000. The road appealed to the supreme court, which two years later, July, 1912, remanded the case for retrial in the district court.

Salter Makes Plans for Fire Stations

Fire Chief Salter is making plans for the construction of three fire engine houses, to be built for $100,000, the amount of the bond issue voted for that purpose. The chief is of the opinion that the $100,000 will not build very commodious houses. In only one instance does the city own a site, and to buy will necessarily require a considerable amount of money. The site the city owns is on Izard street, on an unopened street and if this street should be vacated a fire engine house built there would have to be condemned.

Pan-Hellenic Union Elects New Officers

At a meeting of Greeks held Sunday in the Greek church officers were elected by the Pan-Hellenic union. The principal interest centered on the election of Cokas, who is now in the field against the Turks. His brother, Elias Cokas, was mentioned for the place, but he declined. The new officers are Peter Sietos, president; Michael Giannu, vice president; George Abartotes, treasurer; Gus Marazopoulos, secretary; executive committee, Charles Sinos, Elias Robatos, Thomas Christakis, Vasilios Kipriotis, Aristides Maris and George Suris.

POSTOFFICES ENTRANCES ARE TO BE ILLUMINATED

The three entrances to the postoffice will be brilliantly illuminated after January 1. The Commercial club recently complained about the entrances at the postoffice being dark in the evenings. C. F. Cramer, superintendent of construction at the federal building, has drawn plans for the installation of huge bronze brackets with flaring lights. In addition to these lights $12,000 will be expended by the government in fixing up the interior of the building. New cement floors will be laid in the basement. All the walls will be cleaned and painted and new mechanical equipment will be installed in the basement.

This Paris Gown Not Made for Omaha Street Car Use

Madam, if you are going to order your new tailor suit in Paris, here is a tip for you: See that there is a slit in the hem so you may safely mount the street cars, or you may have to walk home. The other day a charming matron residing on West Farnam hill, who is somewhat of a pedestrian, hiked down town. After doing her morning shopping she went to Sixteenth and Farnam streets to take the street car home. It was at the noon hour and quite a number of passengers had assembled to take the car. Several polite men stepped back to let the well-gowned woman get on the car. She tried to mount the step, but alas, the Parisian tailored suit was not made for mounting American street cars. Some masculine friends were on the rear platform smoking, so when they saw the difficulty, they tried to assist their friend, but all in vain, the skirt was not built for that sort of thing, and madam had to give up the attempt and walk home. Next morning, sewed in an Omaha made tailor suit, madam was down town and now the Parisian tailor suit has a slit in the hem and she can walk or ride in perfect ease.

COMMISSIONERS INSPECT JAIL

Will Look Into System of Accounting Before Acting on Matter.

RYDER HAS RECOMMENDATIONS

Will Give His Ideas to the Commission Tuesday Morning—Gasoline Venders Must Secure Permits for Carb Pumps.

City commissioners will personally inspect and investigate the system of accounting employed at the police station before recommending the adoption of a new system. Commissioner Butler again introduced a resolution providing that the recommendations of the assistant city controller be adopted, but Police Commissioner Ryder asked postponement until Tuesday, when he would make certain recommendations.

To Examine Record.

Wednesday morning the council will investigate the case. The members will go in a body to the police station and examine the records and the system now in use of recording cases. An ordinance requiring gasoline venders be required to secure a permit from the city commission before installing gasoline pumps at the curb was recommended for passage by the council in committee of the whole. The ordinance was opposed by representatives of manufacturers of these pumps, who declared it would practically eliminate the salesmen, as a permit would be necessary before a sale could be effected. Gasoline dealers are also required to put up a bond to protect the city before installing such pumps.

Railroads Will Not Give Holiday Rates

There will be no holiday rates this year for those who desire to go back to the old home to spend Christmas. This has been settled by the railroad passenger traffic men. A couple of months ago there was a move looking to a reduction of passenger rates for the holiday season, but the Chicago meeting last week settled the matter. At the Chicago meeting all of the roads in central territory were represented and after thrashing the matter over, it was unanimously decided that the line of action adopted by roads in the east would be followed to the letter. As a result the regular every-day passenger rates will maintain. Passenger men at the Chicago meeting took the view that with a regular 2-cent per mile rate in effect, there would be just as much travel as there would be if one-half cent reduction was made. Then, too, they took the position that there would be no money in hauling passengers at less than 2 cents per mile.

Wise Family Row is Ended by Fine

Mrs. Rose Wise, the oldest inhabitant in the Rose-Woff family mixup several months ago over which family should have charge of the young Wise boy, and who wielded a large weapon with such unerring skill that two of the fighters spent some weeks at the St. Joseph's hospital, was fined $5 and costs yesterday by Police Magistrate Foster.

The race will be for a distance of five miles and will start at 10 o'clock Thanksgiving morning. The course will run out towards Florence a distance of two and one-half miles and back.

Why French Women Always Look Young

In France mothers and daughters look like sisters. I tried to find out how the women were able to retain their youthful looks until long past middle age. I learned that they were much given to the use of macrolein wax. This wax possesses a remarkable absorbent property which quickly removes the fine particles of dust which are constantly dying and which are the immediate cause of an old-looking complexion. This wax, however, healthier, younger skin beneath is given a chance to breathe and show itself. I've tried this treatment myself. In less than two weeks my complexion has become as clear, soft and beautiful as a young girl's. Just one tube of macrolein wax (all American druggists have it) did the work. The wax is put on nights like cold cream and washed off mornings.

Legislators Are Being Solicited by Seekers for Office

In spite of the fact that the Douglas county delegation to the state legislature is being contested, the members are getting a great many letters from those in the state who want positions in the legislature and are seeking the support of the Douglas county delegation for the places. J. M. Macfarland, senator-elect, has received a letter from H. W. Broas of Wahoo, who says he desires the place of chaplain of the senate. He sends in the usual list of endorsements. J. Reid Green, an attorney of Lincoln, has written Macfarland asking his support for him as a candidate for the secretaryship of the senate. He announces that he has the support of the two senators-elect from Lincoln. F. M. Hammond of Lincoln, an old soldier who lost an arm in the civil war, asks for the position of watchman in the senate halls.

Dr. W. O. Henry has just had a conference with Colonel Theodore Roosevelt at New York, where the former has been for over a week. Dr. Henry was chairman of the Roosevelt club in Omaha during the campaign. MOOL COMPANY BUYS OLD PLANT IN EAST OMAHA

The Harry W. Mool company, manufacturers and dealers in non-sliding materials, has purchased the plant of the Keely Boiler and Tank company in East Omaha and soon will move from its present factory at Twentieth and Pierce streets to the new location. Creditors of the Keely Boiler and Tank company appointed John Flack, president of the City National bank; John W. Torle, president of the Omaha Structural Steel company; and Parks Post of the Omaha Heavy Hardware company as a committee to dispose of the plant with the result that the factory buildings, ground, machinery and tools were sold to the Harry W. Mool company. The Harry W. Mool company began business in Omaha two years ago as engineers and manufacturers' agents for all kinds of steel and iron work. The company was incorporated last summer and started a small shop at Twentieth and Pierce streets. Now it will add its present machinery to that of the boiler and tank plant and be one of the best equipped ornamental iron shops in the middle west. Preparations for moving have already begun.

M'GOVERN TOO STRICT FOR SOME CURB CONTRACTORS

Commissioner McGovern of the department of public improvements has incurred the displeasure of curbing contractors, one of whom called on him and declared that he would not again bid on a contract while McGovern was head of the public improvement department. Recent disputes over quality of material to be used in paving and curbing and the condemnation of several yards of work have resulted in the disagreement, which McGovern declares is due to his unwavering demand that all contractors live up to the specifications.

SECOND TRIAL OF REDMON ALIENATION SUIT IS ON

Second trial of Benjamin Redmon's $25,000 damage suit against Henry Gering for the alienation of the affections of Redmon's former wife, was begun in district court before Judge L. S. Estelle yesterday. The suit was tried by a jury before Judge Estelle last May. The jury disagreed.

PAY HONOR TO PATRON SAINT

Feast of St. Cecilia is Celebrated at Church Bearing Her Name.

BISHOP SCANNELL PRESIDES eloquent sermon is delivered by Rev. A. R. Wise of Creighton University, Who Tells of Life of Sainted One.

The festival of St. Cecilia was celebrated Sunday morning at St. Cecilia's church, 705 North Fourteenth street, at 11 o'clock mass, with Rev. E. M. Gleason celebrant, assisted by Rev. James Abernethy as deacon, Rev. J. F. McCarthy as sub-deacon and Rev. J. M. Stenson as master of ceremonies. Rt. Rev. Bishop Scannell presided at the throne, assisted by Rt. Rev. Mgr. Colaneri as assistant priest and Very Rev. John Jennette and Rev. John T. Smith as deacons of honor. Rev. A. R. Wise, S. J., of Creighton university preached the sermon.

Father Wise reviewed the history of Cecilia's life, a life devoted to advancement of Christian doctrines in an age when to be a Christian was to become a martyr. The daughter of heathen parents she was given in marriage to Valerius, a heathen, who became converted and, with his brother, Tibertus, was put to death. The death of Cecilia followed. She was written, thrown into a vat of boiling water, but the following day was found unharmed. An executioner then failed to cut off her head after three strokes and was compelled by law to desist. She died three days after this.

In the fifth century the first church was dedicated to Cecilia, who had been sainted. Gradually since then churches have been dedicated to her all over the world, and November 22 is celebrated everywhere as St. Cecilia's festival. Father Wise drew lessons of religious constancy, progressiveness and love from Cecilia's life. His sermon was heard with the closest interest and was a vivid portrayal of a beautiful Christian life. St. Cecilia is the patron saint of the cathedral parish and of the entire diocese.

RE-OPENING OF BREAD LINE OF THE BOWERY MISSION

NEW YORK, Nov. 25.—A week's celebration of the thirty-three years' work in "helping down-and-outers" in the "up-and-in-ranks" was begun by the Bowery mission at its little brick chapel today with songs, prayers, anniversary services, reminiscences and much feasting. The latter, in which hundreds shared, was at the expense of "Mother" Sarah Bird and Frederick Townsend Martin, and it marks the reopening this week of the winter bread line at which a thousand cold and empty stomachs are warmed and filled every midnight with hot coffee and rolls. The brotherhood of the mission now includes about 30,000 men.

"Cascarets" Best for the Bowels

The millions of Cascaret users never have Headache, Constipation, Billiousness or Sick Stomach.

It is more necessary that you keep your Bowels, Liver and Stomach clean, pure and fresh than it is to keep the sewers and drainage of a large city free from obstruction. Are you keeping clean inside with Cascarets—merely forcing a passage every few days with salts, cathartic pills or castor oil? This is important.

Cascarets immediately cleanse and regulate the stomach, remove the sour, undigested and fermenting food and foul gases; take the excess bile from the liver and carry out of the system the constipated waste matter and poison in the intestines and bowels. No odds how badly and upset you feel, a Cascaret tonight will straighten you out by morning. They work while you sleep. A 10-cent box from your druggist will keep your head clear, stomach sweet and your liver and bowels regular for months. Don't forget the children—their little insides need a good, gentle cleansing, too.—Advertisement.

Speeder Chasers Save Cyclist's Life On His Maiden Ride

CHICAGO, Nov. 25.—Two Chicago motorcycle policemen pursued a speeder mounted on one of the machines through Lincoln park this afternoon at the rate of forty miles an hour, and were astonished to see the man turn his motorcycle into the lagoon in which he vanished as high as the tree tops. The officers arrived in time to drag the man from the water.

Instead of asserting that he was going only eight miles an hour he thanked them for saving his life, as it was his maiden ride on a motorcycle and he had forgotten how to stop it. Every time he tried to slow down he said he made the machine go faster and he had turned into the water in desperation. He gave his name as Godfrey Coleman. Park gardeners strapped for the wheel and Coleman went home on foot pushing the motorcycle.
