

OMAHA LOSES TO WICHITA

Six Runs in Eighth Inning Fail to Win for Bourkes.

ELEVEN TO SEVEN IS THE SCORE

Jobbers Bench Hits in Fifth and Eighth Innings for Ten of Their Scores—Visitors Use Five Pitchers.

WICHITA, Kan., May 13.—(Special Telegram.)—Wichita won the opening game of the Omaha series, 11 to 7, by bunching hits in the fifth and eighth innings. Omaha used five pitchers trying to check the hitting of the Jobbers. The Bourkes staged a batfist of their own in the eighth and chased across six runs on seven hits.

Ferry opened for Wichita and held the Bourkes to two hits in the four innings he worked. Thomason singled in the first with two down, but was out stealing. Coyle beat out a hit to Perry to start the fourth. Ferry turned his ankle as he fielded the ball, but was able to finish the inning. Thomason sacrificed and Coyle took third. Kane's sacrifice fly scored Coyle.

Thomas held the Bourkes safe until the eighth, when a batting rally was staged. Fugate singled. Justice flew to left. Coyle got a Texas leaguer. Thomason hit to Hughes. Thomason was safe at first and Hughes failed to tag Coyle. Fugate slid into third and gave his ankle a slight wrench. Arbagast ran for him. Kane singled, scoring Arbagast. Congalton was out at first, Coyle scoring. Shestak singled to center, counting Thomason and Kane. Schipke singled. Grubb singled, scoring Shestak. Neff, batting for Fugate the second time around, was hit by a pitched ball. Justice hit to short. Rapp booting the ball. Schipke scored. Coyle hit to Thomas. Grubb was out at home plate.

Applegate held the Jobbers safe for four innings, allowing but four scattered hits. A base on balls in the fifth, followed by two doubles and a single, resulted in Robinson coming to the rescue. A base on balls, a single and a double caused Hicks to be called to the double. A single scored one off Hicks, but Grubb spared a liner for the third out. A single and a double scored one off Hicks in the sixth. Two doubles and a single in the seventh eliminated Hicks and Fugate took his turn.

A single was secured off Fugate, counting one more run. Cloeman pitched the eighth with no more damage. Score:
