BUILD FREIGHT HOUSE SOON

Northwestern is Asking for Bids for the New Structure.

IS TO BE 700 FEET IN LENGTH

General Manager Walters Reports All Crops in the Best Condition They Have Been in Many Years.

General Manager Walters of the Northwestern is just in from a tour of inspection over the company lines west of the Missouri river and coincident with his return comes the official report that immediate construction of the in-bound freight house will be commenced. Bids for the new building are being asked and it is proposed to have it finished and ready for occupancy about the time fall business starts, not later than September 1.

The new in-bound freight house of the Northwestern will start at Fourteenth and Webster streets and extend north, taking in that portion of the old building now there. It will be one story in height, 100 feet wide and 700 feet long. Its cost is estimated at $5,000. It will be of pressed brick, with metal roof and will be equipped with all the modern appliances for handling freight cheaply and expeditiously. The new building will have a floor area of 31,500 square feet.

In addition to the construction of the freight house, $20,000 will be expended in grading and laying team tracks in the vicinity of the building.

Relative to his trip over the western lines, Mr. Walters asserts that he has never known of a time when crops of all kinds have been looking as well as now at this season of the year. All through the northern and northwestern portions of the state there has been an abundance of moisture and winter wheat is far advanced. Farmers have commenced planting corn and the acreage promises to be larger than usual.

CROP REPORT OPTIMISTIC

Burlington Review of Week Sums Up Conditions as Favorable.

CORN PLANTING GOING AHEAD

Nearly Half of the Seeding is Over With in the Southern Part of Nebraska—Plant is Up in Places.

In its soil and crop report the Burlington is even more optimistic than one week ago. Relative to winter wheat, in summing up, the report says:

"Conditions in Nebraska during all of last week were favorable. The low temperature and the abundance of moisture kept the wheat standing and thickening on the ground. The ground is now well covered and the danger from winds blowing the dirt away from the roots of the growing grain has passed. The possible lack of moisture later in the season is all that can prevent an enormous crop."

The condition of the winter wheat growing in Burlington territory is as follows, the comparison being made with last year:

Division Per Cent. Division Per Cent. Omaha..... 101 Lincoln..... 101 Wymore..... 103 McCook..... 95

Notwithstanding the low temperature of last week, corn planting progressed rapidly, according to the Burlington's report. It is estimated that in the southern and central portion of the state nearly 50 per cent of the acreage is planted, while farther north it is estimated at 10 per cent.

In some fields in the southern counties the corn is up and this week will be given its first cultivation. The report indicates that while the precipitation was not heavy generally during the week, it was well distributed. As a rule it ranged from one-half to an inch, with Greeley Center reporting 2.12; Clay Center, 1.12; Republican City, 1.00; Sargent, 2, and Osmond, 2 inches.

The weekly report of the Northwestern indicates 100 per cent conditions on wheat all over its territory and plenty of moisture. The ground, the report says, is thoroughly soaked to a depth of two or three feet. Corn planting is being hurried along, and the alfalfa fields are about ready to be cut for the first time.

Common Dishes Made Uncommonly Good

A few rich spices will add to the goodness of almost any dish. Stewed tomatoes, for instance, are nothing new to the family, but next time drop some Tone's Cloves into them while cooking. They'll have a surprisingly good flavor and will be a new treat to the whole table. Many soups, meats, vegetables, etc., can be thus improved. Of course, you must have the richest spices to get the taste-tempting flavor needed. We tell you, and so does your grocer, that you can depend upon
