BOYS TO GO INTO CAMP

Y. M. C. A. Lads Will Start for Blue Lake Monday.

IN CHARGE OF J. C. WATSON

Thirty Youngsters Will Enjoy Outing and They Will Be Cared for in Order to Provide Most Enjoyable Time.

J. C. Watson, secretary of the Young Men's Christian association, has completed all arrangements for the annual camping stunt that has become so profitable and popular and will start the camp on Monday morning at Blue Lake in Harrison county.

About thirty of the younger boys of the association will enjoy the outing. They will be in charge of Mr. Watson and the camp will be a model of orderly comfort. Mr. Watson will leave this morning for the camping grounds to complete the arrangements so there will be no unnecessary delays when the noisy and expectant youngsters arrive on the Northwestern train Monday morning in charge of Physical Instructor De Vol. A sane program for the amusement and instruction of the boys has been planned.

The little colony of thirty boys would not be a lonesome place under any ordinary circumstances, but the camp is to have the unusual feature this year of being shared with a company of Boy Scouts. The Logan scouts have written to Secretary Watson asking permission to camp with the Bluffs boys and the request has been granted. It is also probable that there will be a number of boys from other nearby towns. Several are known to be coming from Walnut. One of the problems Secretary Watson is finding hard to solve is to get a cook of sufficient ability and endurance to provide the food for the constitutionally hungry little army. It will require a big cook, with big hands and a big heart, who will also have something ready for a half-starved boy who can't possibly wait for the meal hour. Friday will be visitors' day at the camp and parents and friends will be among the expected visitors in addition to the public from the countryside.

The usual plan for holding a later camp for the older boys of the association will be discontinued this year for the reason that many of these boys will join the high school cadets when they go into camp next week.

High School Alumni Gives a Reception

The concluding event of the annual commencement of the high school occurred last night when the alumni tendered the usual reception to the graduating class. It was a very pretty event that brought a large number of young people to the hall room of the Eagles' club building.

DEFENDS DEMOCRATIC POLICY

Senator Reed Makes an Attack Upon the General Motors Company.

QUOTES STOCK MARKET FIGURES

Townsend of Michigan Asserts the Country Suffering from Too Much Ill-Digested and Speculative Legislation.

WASHINGTON, June 6.—A defense of the legislative policy of the democratic party since it assumed control of the national administration and a bitter denunciation of "calamity howlers" and those who speak of business depression and lay it at democracy's door marked a speech in the senate today by Senator Reed of Missouri.

"The democratic party seems to me to be in this situation at the present time," Senator Reed said. "If it passes a bill restoring confidence to the financial situation and makes the timorous stiver and begins to hoard a dollar, and if enough of it is done it may be the people will be deceived into believing it."

The senator made a vigorous attack upon the General Motors company and one of its subsidiaries whose president recently criticized congress in a letter appearing in the congressional record. In this letter congress was charged with being responsible for business depression and advised to quit work and go home.

Senator Reed declared that the Motors company was "a criminal trust and an unlawful combination."

"I am publicly calling the attention of the attorney general to this company," the senator said, "and asking him to investigate and take the necessary steps for its dissolution." He produced financial statements showing the company had net earnings of several million dollars each year for several years past and pointed out the fact that with such a showing any man should criticize congress for the lack of business.

Senator Reed read many newspaper interviews and quoted stock market quotations to show that business, instead of declining is increasing, and that stocks are higher and sales greater than a year ago. "Instead of sitting here and yearning and despairing we ought to stand up and endeavor to produce a feeling of just confidence," he asserted.

Senator Townsend said that he did not intend to defend the General Motors company and that it was a trust or a combination in restraint of trade it should be prosecuted. He did take issue with the Missouri senator, however, on the question of the need for further legislation by congress. He read a letter from a Massachusetts business man to Senator Lodge, who was not present, which said, "Business is sick and many cases of it are dying outright, because of just one thing—too much medicine and not enough rest."

"This country is suffering from too much ill-digested and speculative legislation," added Senator Townsend. "You can't cry it down by making an eloquent speech in the senate. The people of the country know it and they are waiting now for an opportunity to express themselves."

Efforts Are Being Made to Maintain Peace in Tarrytown. TARRYTOWN, N. Y., June 6.—Revised efforts on the part of the local police department and Sheriff Doyle of West Chester county to maintain the peace of this village marked the close today of the first week of the fight being waged by Alexander Berkman and others for the right to hold public meetings in protest of the policy pursued by John D. Rockefeller, Jr., with reference to the Colorado mine strike.

While Berkman was in Brooklyn and New York in search of recruits for an army which he declared will invade Tarrytown tomorrow to hold a demonstration, Sheriff Doyle was marshaling a force capable of handling a crowd of 200 persons and if possible prevent a recurrence of last Saturday's clash when thirteen Industrial Workers of the World were arrested.

In an announcement made public today Judge Moorhouse declared that Berkman would not be permitted in his court tomorrow when the prisoners are brought before him for arraignment. One of the original thirteen deserted the cause of free speech yesterday and was released under a suspended sentence of six months in the penitentiary.

ENJOINED FROM USING TRADEMARKS AND NAMES. TRENTON, N. J., June 6.—The chancery court of New Jersey has granted an injunction on final hearing against the Pacific Coast Biscuit company, operating a number of cracker plants on the Pacific coast, for infringing on sixteen of the leading trade marks, trade names and packages of the National Biscuit company.

The case has been pending in New Jersey courts for several years and this is regarded as the most important decision on the subject of unfair competition in trade.

WORK FOR ENGINEER BOARD

State Convention Decides to Push Matter Before Legislature.

REGULATION IS NOW LACKING

Indicted Plumbers Will Be Asked to Report to Federal Court in Des Moines by Seventh of July.

(From a Staff Correspondent.)

DES MOINES, June 6.—(Special Telegram.)—Active agitation among the stationary engineers for a special board to examine and license engineers in Iowa will be the outcome of the state convention of engineers here today. Some of the cities now license engineers, but there is no state regulation.

Plumbers to Plead Soon.

It was decided late today that the indicted plumbers will be asked to report to the federal court by July 7 and plead to the indictments found here.

Problem of Wolf Bounty. When does a cub become a wolf and cease to be a cub? That is a problem which has engaged the attention of the legal department of the state this week. A county auditor who failed to join in the political scheme to rebuke the legislature for almost everything it did put the question up to the legal department. Assistant Attorney General Robinson was assigned to work it out. He found that definitions of "cub" did not appear in the court decisions, but a wolf is supposed to be an adult and the courts know what that means. An adult is one full grown, hence a cub is almost anything that isn't. This leaves it so that the bounty of $1 for a cub goes until the animal is full grown, when the $20 bounty applies.

Test of Berry Box Sizes.

Rumor that one of the Des Moines commission houses is going to put on the market three carloads of strawberries put in off-sized berry boxes has stirred the state food department to activity in watching for violations of the berry box law. The department maintains that only three sizes of berry boxes are allowed by law in Iowa—the quart size, the pint size and the half-pint size. All others are outlawed. But it is said the berries from Kansas are in boxes a pint and a half in size. The commission houses hope to avoid the penalties of the law by putting a label on each box stating its size. But the state food department will not take this as an excuse for marketing in illegal sized boxes, for the very purpose of the law was to establish standard sizes so that every customer would know what he is getting without looking at a label or anything else. A suit to test the law is in sight.

Expense Statements.

Candidates for office before the recent primaries are filing expense statements with the secretary of state. They show very large expenditures. George C. Scott, republican for congress, Eleventh district, spent $15,000; Frank P. Woods, Estherville, republican for congress, Tenth district, spent $40,000; Sant Kirkpatrick, Ottumwa, who was defeated for democratic nomination in the sixth, spent $12,000. Some of the progressive party candidates say they did not spend anything in their campaigns.

Parole Case.

The parole case of Betsy Smith, who has been twenty years in prison at Anamosa, was before the parole board today. The board has gone into the whole question of the correctness of the decision of the jury which found her guilty since it was found that she claimed that she was innocent of the crime. She was convicted of killing her husband in Des Moines. John Cowley, formerly of the parole board appeared to tell what he knew of the case.

Limited Liability Case.

The matter of deciding whether the new rule of the railroads as to limited liability for delays in shipments of all freight, applies to live stock as well as to perishable goods, has been deferred. The railroads are intimating that they will change the rule so that it will specifically exempt live stock and time is given for this change. The case came before the railroad commission today on protest of the Corn Belt Meat Producers' association. The question, however, of applying the rule to interstate shipments will be taken to Washington as soon as the case can be made up. Under the rule as it stands no shipper could get any compensation for great damage done by reason of failure to reach a market with any kind of freight.

Pleas of Guilty.

Most of the officials of the Master Plumbers' association indicted for violation of the anti-trust law will plead guilty and pay small fines. The evidence is overwhelming that the manner in which the business was done was contrary to law. The officials followed the advice of competent lawyers and believed that what their associations were doing was within the law and entirely proper, but it seems that the federal authorities hold otherwise.

It is expected that following the closing up of the suits in federal court, no matter what is done with them, there will be continuation of the probe for violation of the state laws in Iowa, which was commenced long before the federal inquiry was commenced. This would be for the purpose of establishing a conspiracy in restraint of trade or control of business or the fixing of prices. While the federal indictment can be satisfied with a fine, the state accusation would be a felony and subject the men to terms of imprisonment in the penitentiary.

The government has virtually given the defendants until November to show up and enter pleas of guilty. They will not be sent for, so it is said, and may take their own time in getting ready for defense. None of the indicted prisoners has been arrested.

Colored College People.

An organization to be known as the Iowa Colored Alumni has been formed by a number of colored graduates of the state university. The following officers were elected: E. Joe Brown, liberal arts '28, law '30, president; Miss Letta E. Cary, liberal arts '12, now professor of modern languages in Bishop college, Marshall, Tex., first vice president; Laurence C. Jones, liberal arts '07; founder and principal of the Piney Ridge Normal and industrial institute at Braxton, Miss., second vice president; Miss Adah F. Hyde, Des Moines, liberal arts '19, recording secretary.

Condition of Iowa Fruit.

Fruit prospects are not so good in Iowa according to Wesley Grange, secretary of the State Horticultural society. Percentage averages for June on all fruits make 68, as against 78% for May. A year ago the June average was 65% per cent. The average for each kind of fruit for June is:

Table with 2 columns: Fruit type and percentage. Includes Apples, Black raspberries, Blackberries, European plums, Grapes, Japanese plums, Strawberries, Cherries, Currants, Peaches.

The following is the program for the quarterly conference of the chief executive officers of the state institutions with the board of control of state institutions to be held June 16-17:

"A Model Program for a Ward," by Mary Lawson Neff, M. P., Des Moines; "The Moral and Religious Side of the Prisoner's Life," by F. H. Plekworth, chaplain, the reformatory, Anamosa.

Camp of Instruction for Officers. Adjutant General Logan today announced the date for the annual camp of instruction for the Iowa National Guard to be June 21-23. The camp will be held at the state rifle range near Des Moines.

Dr. George H. Chappell, director of the Iowa weather and crop service, was reapointed today by Governor Clarke for another term in that position. The appointment is on recommendation of the State Board of Agriculture.

Coal Operators Want Business. As a result of a visit of the officials of the Iowa Coal Operators' association to the State Board of Control the specifications for coal at the institutions will be changed, somewhat so as to give a little advantage to the Iowa operators.

The Iowa coal men have complained that they are unable to compete with those from Illinois on the sale of coal on the British Thermal unit basis where price is the sole consideration. The State Board desires to buy all coal in Iowa but must conform to the law as to competition.

PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH APPEALS MISSOURI CASE. KANSAS CITY, June 6.—Sanford B. Ladd, today filed two appeals in the federal court against the decision of Judge A. B. Van Valkenburg handed down last December, giving all the property formerly belonging to the Cumberland Presbyterian church in Missouri to the Presbyterian church of the United States of America.

The suits involve property valued at more than $1,200,000. The litigation grew out of the union of the two churches in 1868. Certain members of the Cumberland church refused to approve the action of their assembly in performing the union and claimed all the property of the church. Several suits were filed.
