

STEAMER ATHINAL IS BURNED AT SEA

Passengers and Crew Are Rescued by the Tuscania and the Roumanian Prince.

ONLY ONE LIFE IS LOST

HALIFAX, N. S., Sept. 20.—The Greek steamer Athinal was destroyed by fire at sea, with the loss of one life, according to a message received by the marine department today. The steamer Tuscania rescued 408 passengers and the crew and the steamer Roumanian Prince sixty-one others.

The message from the Tuscania was dated at 7 a. m. today and was the first official word received from the liner since the wireless report last night that the Athinal was on fire and the Tuscania had rescued the passengers. The origin of the fire was not stated in the message, which read:

"Heard distress call at 8:30 a. m. yesterday. Arrived on the spot at noon and sent a line across to help them. Transferred passengers about 4 p. m. Athinal was abandoned about 3:30 p. m. We rescued 408 passengers and crew and the Roumanian Prince rescued sixty-one. There was only one life lost, that of a man who jumped overboard. We left the wreck burning fiercely in Nos. 1 and 2 holds at 2:30 p. m. Position, latitude 49:34 north, longitude 57:47 west."

The Athinal sailed from New York last Thursday for Greece. It carried sixty-one first, forty-seven second cabin and 23 steerage passengers. The others on board were members of the crew. The cargo consisted of considerable quantities of flour, coffee, cotton, rice and lubricating oil.

The Athinal was 6,742 tons gross and had an average speed of sixteen knots. It was 630 feet long and fifty-two feet beam. The vessel was built in England in 1908 and was owned by the National Steam Navigation Company of Greece.

Survivors Aboard Safe.

NEW YORK, Sept. 20.—The Anchor line office here received a wireless message today from the captain of the Tuscania stating that all of the passengers and crew of the Greek steamer Athinal had been saved.

The message from the Tuscania read: "Monday noon, 408 miles from Ambrose channel lightship. Have on board 381 passengers and sixty-eight crew of the Athinal. Sixty-one survivors are on the Roumanian Prince. The Athinal was destroyed last Sunday, was due here late today. The Anchor line does not now expect the steamer to arrive before late tomorrow.

In the light of the two messages received here today, steamship men are inclined to believe that the entire ship's company was saved. A message received by the Marine department at Halifax states that one man had jumped overboard and had been lost.

OMAHA WARMS TO SUNDAY'S WORK

the discontinuance of the collections, the evangelist launched into probably the most vigorous sermon he has preached. He pounded and stamped and rushed about the platform till his silk shirt was wringing wet. The sermon was strikingly illustrative of the intimate personal way in which all Bible characters appear to Mr. Sunday. Upon Pilate he poured out the anathemas of his wrath because Pilate had condemned Jesus. "Billy" feels the insult as personally as though Pilate were a judge who condemned his own brother to the electric chair.

"Pilate," he said, "was a low-down God-forsaken, stand-pat, free-lunch, rathole, two-by-four, whisky-soaked, licker-spittle, tin-horn, peasant, ward-healing, social-stuffing, stinking ward politician. Outside of this Pilate was all right, according to Mr. Sunday, if pointed out how "Mrs. Pilate" tried to save him from his ignominy and failed.

Turns on Audience.

And then the evangelist turned suddenly upon the audience. He shook his fist at them and with flashing eyes and fiery language he denounced them.

"You're a coward, you're a miserable coward," he shouted. "You're in a class with old Pilate. You're afraid," he taunted them. "You're afraid to walk down these aisles and take your stand for Jesus Christ. You're a coward."

From this fiery arraignment of Pilate he turned to Christ and his manner changed. He painted his Savior with all the glory that his love could think of. He named a hundred great men who have been earnest Christians and cried, "I'm glad that I belong to that kind of a bunch and not to the dirty, sniveling scoundrels that reject Christ."

Audience Applauds.

Mention of the names of Bryan and General Miles brought applause. That of Roosevelt was received in silence.

"If there were 10,000,000 words in the dictionary they wouldn't be enough to express my love for Jesus," he said.

"What is there in Jesus that you can improve on, you idiot and jackass?" he demanded.

"Omaha, Jesus Christ awaits you," he cried just before calling for trail-hitters. "Are you going to crown Him? What's your answer? What's yours, choir?"

And the trail-hitters came down the aisles. They came more spontaneously than they have before. They came without much personal work. And they were an intelligent-looking lot of people, well-dressed and apparently normal-minded. Nearly all were young men and women with a little sprinkling of children.

Greeting for Workingmen.

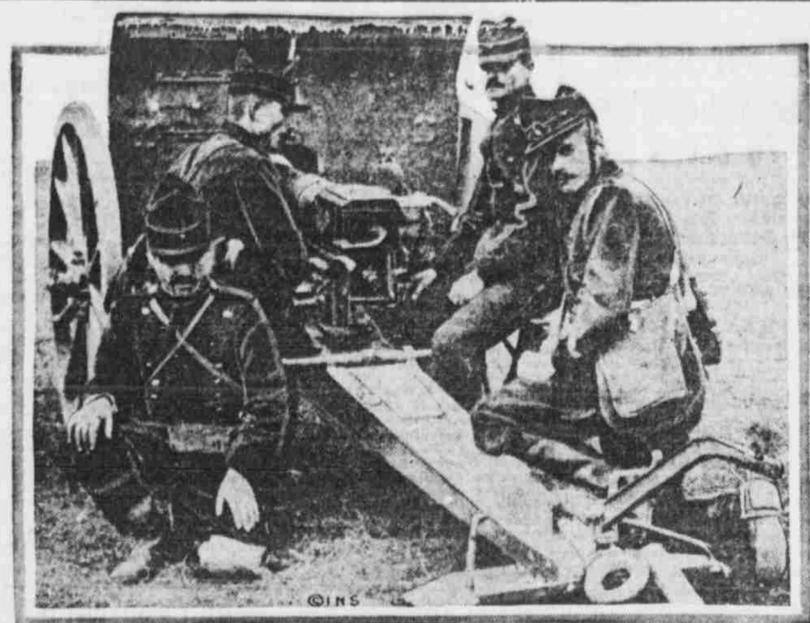

One was a man wearing overalls and working clothes. Him "Billy" gave a tremendous handshake and patted the horny hand with his other hand and shook it again, which was more than he did for any of the others. One was a colored woman.

Quickly the names were taken by the secretary. "Billy" closed the lid of the "well" and hurried off with "Ma" for her train. One trail-hitter arrived after he left and was given the handshake by a substitute. The evening tall-hitting number 180.

"Rody" gave the choir a scolding after the service and notified them that if they didn't attend better there would be many who would find their places taken by others.

Von Bissing, a Half Brother of General, Interned by Britain

LONDON, Sept. 20.—Baron Von Bissing, half brother of General Von Bissing, German military governor of Belgium and a naturalized British subject, after fighting for months for his liberty, has been interned. He was mysteriously spirited away today from his luxurious home in Kensington by detectives, who left a battalion of newspaper men on guard over an empty shell.

It is reported that the Islington workhouse will be the baron's domicile during the remainder of the war.

The internment of Baron Von Bissing follows a long agitation that he be deprived of his freedom in common with numerous other wealthy British subjects of German birth, against whom popular feeling has run. The status of Baron Von Bissing has been the subject of debate on more than one occasion in the British parliament. It was suggested in one of these discussions last February that Baron Von Bissing had a residence at Hove, in Sussex, from which "signal" operations might easily be carried out.

It was denied at the time by Harold J. Tennant, under secretary of war, that Baron Von Bissing had done anything which would justify his removal from the prohibited area or that he had ever done any secret service work for Germany.

Later it was suggested in the House of Commons that the baron be deprived of his liberty in retaliation for the expulsion from Belauim by the Germans in April of Gifford Pinchot, former chief of the United States bureau of forestry, whose sister is the wife of a British diplomat, but nothing came of it.

Four Men Charged With Counterfeiting $2 Revenue Stamp

NEW YORK, Sept. 20.—Four men were arrested here yesterday by secret service agents under Chief William Flynn on charges of counterfeiting revenue stamps. One of them, Joseph Carlini, is said by the police to be one of the Carlini brothers who flooded this country with forged checks twenty years ago.

PRIEST IS BLAMED IN MURDER TRIAL

Porter, that he was trying the case on the train, in the El Paso hotel lobby and on the streets of Tulsa, and that he should take his case to court if he wished to prosecute Porter. He also told the priest that he, Fall, held the priest morally responsible for Connell's murder because he had stirred up trouble between the factions with the water trouble.

Widow Confident.

When Senator Fall had finished his testimony which required more than two hours Saturday evening, H. B. Holt, announced that the defense had rested. Upon the completion of the defense, Mrs. Ralph Connell, today issued a statement for the Bee, saying that the defense had failed to make a case.

"They have not put on Mrs. Porter, or O. M. Tally, witnesses to the shooting. They have not said one word directly of the shooting and have done nothing but introduce character witnesses, who, after testifying to Porter's good reputation, have admitted he was in jail and had been arrested a number of times."

Connell Opposes.

The arguments started today, with W. J. Connell of Omaha, father of the murdered man, making the first argument to the jury. "It is with sadness that I make this appeal to you for justice," he said. "It is only just that I should do this, to the people of New Mexico, to my son in the little cemetery at Tulsa, and to his wife and two children. I ask simple justice, justice, nothing more."

German Munitions Depot Taken.

PARIS, Sept. 20.—The official statement given out by the French war office this afternoon describes great activity on the part of the French artillery at various points along the line in France.

"A depot of munitions within the enemy's line near Herthes was taken." The text of the communication follows:

"In the Artois district our artillery last night delivered a violent bombardment against the works of the enemy and interfered with their provision trains. The German batteries showed particular activity in the environs of Arna.

"The firing of the enemy was also fairly well sustained in the regions of Foucaucourt Harville and Tracy-le-Val. In front of Fontenoy the Germans opened with infantry fire. In the vicinity of Berry-au-Bac last night saw fighting with bombs, artillery and rifle firing. The canal between the Aisne and the Marne was taken possession of a German listening post.

"In the Champagne district our artillery replied to a bombardment of our positions to the north of Camp de Chignons and checked the fire of the German's heavy artillery. To the north of Perthes a depot of munitions within the enemy's lines was blown up.

"Between the Aisne and the Argonne district the artillery of the enemy maintained its activity during all last night. In Lorraine our batteries continued their destructive fire upon the works of the enemy.

"In the vicinity of Ban-de-Sapt French field artillery dispersed a detachment of German pioneers."

Hawkins Arrested On Perjury Charge

TRINIDAD, Colo., Sept. 20.—Horace N. Hawkins, chief counsel for John R. Lawson, union leader, convicted on May 3 of the murder of John Nimmo, a deputy sheriff, during a battle near Ludlow on October 25, 1913, was served with a capias, charging him with subornation of perjury in relation to the affidavit of Grover Hall, a member of the jury in the Lawson case.

The information was filed in the district court last week by the attorney general's office. Hawkins gave bond in the sum of $1,500 and with Attorney General P. W. Clark, also charged with subornation of perjury, appeared before Judge Granby Hillier in chambers. Mrs. Hawkins planned late today to make application to Judge Hillier for a change of judge.

Charges Against Hesperian Crew

NEW YORK, Sept. 20.—Mrs. Ronald Whiteway of Toronto, one of the survivors from the Allan line steamer Hesperian, which was sunk by a torpedo or mine in the British war zone, arrived today on the steamer Philadelphia from Liverpool. She said that an investigation was in progress regarding the conduct of the crew of the Hesperian, which, she declared, was not praiseworthy, to say the least.

After the shock of the explosion, she said she found herself in a lifeboat, but did not know how she got there. As the boat was being lowered, she asserted, a sailor sprang into it and struck her breaking her arm at the shoulder.

Archibald is Met On Shipboard by Secret Service Men

NEW YORK, Sept. 20.—James F. Archibald, the American correspondent, who was intercepted by British authorities, while carrying a message from Dr. Constantin T. Dumba, the Austro-Hungarian ambassador, to Vienna, arrived here today on the liner Rotterdam.

Several secret service men boarded the Rotterdam at Quarantine early today and questioned Archibald. They were reported to have searched the man, his baggage and his state room and to have taken away a cane belonging to him. Archibald denied this.

After leaving Quarantine Archibald said: "I do not know anything about the situation here. If there is any contemplated prosecution of me it is perfectly unjustified."

"I took the letter which caused the trouble, from Ambassador Dumba without knowledge of its contents and entirely unwittingly. That is all I care to say at present."

Archibald, on landing, met a man he described as his secretary. The man said he was Charles Mercer. Archibald and Mercer held a short conference and Archibald announced he would defer the leaving of an additional statement. He said he expected to go to Washington soon.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 20.—Whatever the government's action toward James F. J. Archibald, the American correspondent involved in the case of Dr. Dumba, the Austrian ambassador, it will not be taken for several days, and not until Archibald has had opportunity to make explanations to officials here.

Bryce Asks America to Stop Slaughter of Armenian Men

LONDON, Sept. 20.—Viscount Bryce, formerly British ambassador to the United States, has sent to the Associated Press a plea that America try to stop the slaughter of Armenians.

"The civilized world," he says in his plea, "especially America, ought to know what horrors have been passing in Asiatic Turkey during the last few months, for if anything can stop the destroying hand of the Turkish government it will be an expression of the opinion of neutral nations, chiefly the judgment of humane America."

"Soon after the war broke out between Turkey and the allies," continued the viscount, "the Turkish government formed, and since has been carrying out with relentless cruelty, a plan for exterminating Christianity by killing off Christians of the Armenian race. Accounts from different sources agree that over the whole of eastern and northern Asia Minor and Armenia the Christian population is being deliberately exterminated, the men of military age being killed and the younger women seized for Turkish harems, compelled to become Mohammedans and kept with children in virtual slavery."

"The rest of the inhabitants, old women, men and children, have been driven under convoy of Turkish soldiers into unhealthy parts of Asia Minor, some to the deserts between Syria and the Euphrates."

New Method Makes Straight Hair Wavy

(Popular Hygiene.) It has been found that a simple and harmless fluid, well known to the drug trade, has a remarkable action when applied to straight, lank, unruly hair. It dries in exquisite waves and curls which have all the appearance of true naturalness. It has also proved a delightful and beneficial dressing for the hair.

This product is nothing more than ordinary liquid salinette, which of course anyone can afford to use. A few ounces of it will last a long time. One will enjoy using it, too, not only because there is nothing sticky, greasy or unpleasant about it, but because it is so easy to apply. It is only necessary to moisten a clean tooth brush with the liquid and draw the hair through the brush from tip to tip. If this is done at bedtime the hair will be beautifully wavy and curly in the morning, and will not have that dull, scorched look which comes from the use of a hot iron.—Advertisement.
