

BELLEVUE WINS FROM MIDLAND

Kansas Collegians Outclassed in All Departments by the Speedy Indians.

OPEN PLAYS USED PROFUSELY

Bellevue college dedicated its new field yesterday afternoon, with a 7 to 0 victory over Midland College of Atchison, Kan. Bellevue outclassed the Kansas in all departments of the game and should have scored at least twice more. Bellevue was the aggressor throughout and Midland was within striking distance of Bellevue's goal on only one occasion.

Bellevue's touchdown came right after the start of the second quarter as the direct result of a forward pass. The quarter began with the ball in Bellevue's possession in midfield. Stewart gained five yards on a cross-back. On the next play Farnham hurried the ball twenty-five yards to Wenke, who ran twenty more before being downed. Maxwell went over for a touchdown on a cross-back on the next play. Farnham kicked goal.

Open Plays Used.

Both sides used open plays profusely. Midland tried an array of fancy shifts; in fact, Yordy seldom called a play from regular formation. The Atchison bunch pulled off only one successful open play, however. Bellevue made four successive forward passes for a total distance of eighty yards. Midland's open play failed chiefly as a result of weakness in the line. The Indian forwards broke up many of them behind the line before they got started, or Midland pulled them off so slowly that Erwin and Wenke spilled them from the ends.

Yordy Pulls Long Run.

Midland's best ground gainers were long end runs and a delayed pass. Yordy pulled off one long end run of seventy yards, which would have resulted in a touchdown had not Stewart tackled him from behind. Peters and Rowe gained several times through holes in Bellevue's line as a result of delayed passes.

The Indian forwards completely outplayed their opponents. Lichtenwallner and Kinner opened up holes which the Bellevue backs pierced again and again. Stewart, a second-string man, who earned his place on the team by his playing yesterday, gained from five to ten yards again and again. Johns hit the line for good gains through the same weak spot.

Bellevue in Danger Once.

Bellevue's goal was in danger only once, at the start of the third quarter, after Yordy had taken the ball around right end for seventy yards. Line backer took the ball to the three-yard line, but there the redskins' line stiffened, and they took the ball on downs. Wenke's punt out of danger fell short, however, and Midland rushed the ball back to the twelve-yard line. There Peters tried a place kick, which was blocked.

Kinner and Lichtenwallner were towers of defense for Bellevue, besides playing great offensive games. Peters and Yordy were the stars for Midland.

The Lineup.

The teams lined up as follows:
BELLEVUE—7. MIDLAND—6.
 Edwin L. E. R. E. Clarke
 Licht'wallner L. T. R. T. Grothe

Crimson Meets Virginia Today

NEW YORK, Oct. 15.—Three games of more than ordinary importance are featured of the eastern football calendar tomorrow, the meeting of Virginia and Harvard, Pennsylvania and Navy, and Colgate and Army, there are unusual possibilities for upsets and surprises. Should all six teams play strictly to season form the result in each contest is likely to remain in doubt until the closing period.

Virginia goes to Cambridge with the prestige of a victory over Yale to encourage the eleven in its battle against the Crimson. The southerners in their two games to date have rolled up a total score of 84 points to their opponents' zero. Against Yale the Charlottesville team scored ten points and added seventy-four in the meeting with Richmond last Saturday.

Crimson Weakened.

In facing Harvard the eleven from Virginia will find a further advanced and better coached combination than Yale lined up on October 2, but it is doubtful if the Cambridge team can muster the same power of attack and defense that the Elis showed in crushing Harvard's strongest players and shifts from the regular order of formation may weaken the Crimson.

At Annapolis the middies will be called upon to meet, in Pennsylvania, an eleven with three victories and one defeat to its credit, while the navy has yet to win its initial honor bracket. Georgetown and Pittsburgh have both triumphed over the sailors this season and Pennsylvania has not escaped, since Penn State defeated the big Quakers after the latter had accumulated three victories at the expense of Albright, West Virginia and Franklin and Marshall.

The Army also made a poor start this season, being tied to Holy Cross in the opening game, but defeated Gettysburg, 22 to 6, almost double the score run up by Cornell against the same team.

Colgate, on the other hand, has outclassed its two early season opponents, defeating both Susquehanna and Rochester by scores of 44 to 6. With the exception of Holy Cross, neither the Army nor Colgate has met a team which was capable of trying out the strong and weak points of the two elevens which play tomorrow. As a result Colgate and the Cadets will enter the contest as uncertain quantities and it will require a game of this type to fix their status in the gridiron world.

Yale and Princeton will play Springfield and Lafayette, respectively, and both should come through to victory without more than the ordinary early season opposition.

Games scheduled for tomorrow, together with the scores of last season's games where the same institutions met, follow: Virginia at Harvard. Did not meet. Pennsylvania at Navy, 13 to 6. Lafayette at Princeton, 6 to 14. Colgate at Army, 7 to 2. Bucknell at Cornell, 6 to 4. Springfield at Yale. Did not meet. Vermont at Dartmouth, 9 to 4. North Carolina at Georgetown. Did not meet. Amherst at Trinity, 9 to 6.

Rochester at Syracuse, 3 to 15. Carlisle at Pittsburgh, 2 to 11. Muhlenburg at Rutgers, 7 to 11. Williams at Brown. Did not meet. Gettysburg at Penn State, 2 to 15. Swarthmore at Virginia, 6 to 7. Bowdoin at Wesleyan, 6 to 2. Albright at Lehigh. Did not meet. Akron against Oberlin at Oberlin. Oklahoma at Missouri, 11 to 9. Drake at Kansas, 7 to 25. Washburn at Nebraska, 7 to 14.

Kansas Aggies at Kansas State Normal, did not play. Kansas School of Mines at Missouri School of Mines, 6 to 27. Knox at St. Louis, did not play. Washington at Wabash, did not play. Warrensburg Normal at Kansas City Veterinary college, did not play. Hastings College Beats York. EASTON, Neb., Oct. 15.—(Special.)

The foot ball season was opened at Hastings college this afternoon, the local team defeating York college, 4 to 2. The game was made by Schick and goal was missed. Schick, Prince and White were the principal ground gainers for Hastings. Colonel Glasgow Killa Self. PHILADELPHIA, Pa., Oct. 15.—Colonel Edward Brodie Glasgow, 40 years old of Worcester, Mass., and a member of the legislature of that state, committed suicide shortly before noon today in Glasgow House, the country home of his brother, William Glasgow, at Birkha Park, a fashionable suburb of this city. He placed a revolver in his mouth and pulled the trigger and it almost in-
