Fine Arts Society Course for Winter

The Omaha Society of Fine Arts opens its winter lecture series at the Hotel Fontenelle, Tuesday, November 3, at 8 o'clock. The first speaker, Prof. Charles Zuehlke of Boston, is perhaps the best known to Omaha audiences, since he appeared here last year for the Fallmeist club. Prof. Zuehlke, who will talk on "The Gothic Revival," is popularly known as "the free lance of democracy," having traveled over half a million miles expounding the doctrine of democracy. Raymond Weyer of the Hackley Art gallery, is a member of the Artists' society in London, having studios in both London and Paris. His extensive travel has made him familiar with the art of many nations, and has made him very interesting both as an art lecturer and writer. A few years ago he was called to America to take charge of the Hackley Art gallery, which in the last two years has gained a national reputation for the high quality of its collection. Alfred Noyes, the famous English poet, is one of the most sought after of the lecturers of today. He has an Englishman of letters come to America who has so thoroughly won the hearts of the people through the reading of his own poems as has Alfred Noyes. To him is due in a large measure credit for the noticeable growth in the appreciation of poetry. He has visited most of the centers of learning in the east and middle-west and south, and wherever he has gone his reading of "The Barrel Organ," "Forty Sinking Seamen" and "Tales of the Mermaid Inn" has awakened an interest in poetry in the hearts of many persons. Mr. Noyes will be accompanied by his wife, a charming American girl, the daughter of an army officer under General Grant. John Cowper Powys comes to America this month from his beautiful English home in the County of Sussex to deliver more than 100 lectures throughout the states. For twelve years before coming to America he devoted his time to lecturing in England and Germany. Walter Scott Perry of Pratt Institute, Brooklyn, N. Y., and A. D. F. Hamlin of Columbia University, New York, will give a series of lectures on architecture. Both are scholarly men, distinguished as authors and lecturers, as well as being in charge of the fine arts departments of their universities. Mr. Perry has traveled much in foreign countries and has been privileged to obtain much of the material for his lectures and the photographs for the lantern slides from private study of cathedrals, buildings and art collections of Europe and the far east. Lorado Taft, sculptor, of Chicago, will give two lectures on sculpture, fully illustrated by a most exceptional collection of slides, which he uses in his lectures at the Chicago Art Institute. Mr. Taft is able to fill very few lecture engagements outside of Chicago as his time is entirely taken up in the studio. In order that the public may be able

After the first lecture these talks will be given: November 17--"Saracenic Architecture," November 18--"The Taj Mahal," "The Alhambra," Walter Scott Perry. November 20--"The Head and the Unravel," Raymond Weyer. January 1--"Optimism in the Poetry of the Future" (with readings from his poems), Alfred Noyes. January 14--"Masters of the Grand Style," Dante, January 21, "Shakespeare," John Cowper Powys. January 28, 29, 31--"Gothic Architecture," "Renaissance Architecture," A. D.

F. Hamlin. February 11--"Russian Literature: Dostoevsky, the Soul of Russia," John Cowper Powys. March 2--"Gothic Sculpture," March 14, "Renaissance Sculpture," Lorado Taft. Mrs. Charles T. Kountze is president of the Fine Arts society. The program committee includes Mrs. W. G. Uie, chairman; Mrs. C. W. Russell, Mrs. Leonard Everett, Mrs. Lloyd Osborn, Mrs. F. H. Cole, Mrs. Frederick Rouse, Mrs. Osgood Eastman, Miss Lida Wilson, Miss Caroline Dodge and Miss Laura Scott.

Sir Charles Tupper, Canadian Leader, Dies in England

OTTAWA, Ont., Oct. 30.--Sir Charles Tupper, venerable Canadian statesman, died in England today. He was 94 years old. The news of the death of Sir Charles came in a cablegram from Sir George Perley, Canadian high commissioner in London, to Sir Robert Borden, the premier. Sir Charles Tupper's death occurred at Beaulieu Heath. The official cablegram reads: "Sir Charles Tupper died peacefully this morning." Charles Stuart Tupper, of Winnipeg, Man., son of the late James Stuart Tupper and grandson of Sir Charles, succeeds to the baronetcy. He is a son-in-law of Dr. Charles Morse, registrar of the exchequer court of Ottawa and is about to leave for the front, having obtained a commission in the Cameronian highlanders.

Charles Philbert Back to Prison

Charles Philbert, charged with participating in recent Omaha holdups, was taken back to Lincoln, by Warden Pen-ton of the state penitentiary, to serve the remaining twelve years of a fifteen-year sentence for a similar offense. Philbert was sent to the reform school at Kearney in 1906, escaped, and was later recaptured. Still later he was released from the penitentiary on parole, was sent back, released a second time on parole, and now has returned again

JULIUS ORKIN Grand Opening Sale Prices Mean a Monday Morning Rush for Ladies' Suits, Dresses, Coats, Blouses, Etc.

The word has gone 'round! Omaha's feminine populace knows to a certainty that this IS a garment selling far and away different from the usual stereotyped "sale" offering. Every piece of goods quoted in the "Grand Opening Sale" was purchased shrewdly, at a considerable discount, from New York makers who preferred selling at huge reductions rather than suffer the inroads of "Mid-Season." Further argument is unnecessary; all that is needed is to tempt you to visit this store Monday; the STYLE and the PRICE of the wearables will accomplish the SALE to YOU.

Judge the Store From These Modern Windows Ladies' Suits, the Sort That Should Bring $30.00 to $35.00, Are to Sell at $22.50

Julius Orkin, during a trip to New York a week or so ago, came across a lot of exceptionally stylish suits in the very materials that are hailed as popular NOW; materials such as Broadcloths, Poplins, Gardardines, Serges, etc. They are made up in Black and in such shades as Navy, Brown, Green, Wistaria, etc. As to style one may choose fur effects, velvet and braided-trimmed effects; some belted and some in box style. There isn't a garment in the lot but that will be hailed with delight by knowing ones. Mind you Julius Orkin bought them far lower than usual because of it being "Mid-Season."

Don't Pay Regular Prices---There's a Sale on Now Ladies' Dresses--Kinds That Bring $17.50 to $19.50 Elsewhere. Here at $12.50

The showing of our new and stylish Fall and Winter dresses in this lot is one that one expects to find in the most up-to-the-minute eastern establishments. See the Taffeta Silk Dresses, the Velvet dresses, the combinations of velvet and silk and cloth and silk. Sizes to fit any woman are among the lot; colors to strike any desire for shade are here as well. Again let it be impressed upon you that these dresses are the NEW things. Julius Orkin took advantage of the "Mid-Season" state of affairs and bought the garments pretty much his own way. Hence this low price--$12.50

Everything Larger, Newer, Absolutely Newest Ladies' Coats-Popular, Highly Wanted $17.50 Styles, Worth $25.00 to $29.50, Now--

Julius Orkin Bought Right---So He Sells Right "The Blouse Shop"--The Proper Title for This Department Ladies, Blouses--Hundreds of New Effects Offered Saturday, Low as $1.95

An expenditure of $1.95, $2.50, $2.95, $3.50 or $3.95 here, on Monday, will secure for you blouses that will cause earnest expressions of admiration. A space like this will not hold sufficient type to tell of the many little quips, turns, trimmings and make-up effects that cause a waist to be stylish, but you'll entuse just that much more when you see the stock. This new waist section is replete with the things you will be expected to wear if you keep rigidly to styles now. Start your dollar traveling here; secure a REAL BLOUSE VALUE.

Velour Coats $19.50 Corduroy Coats $22.50 Sealette Coats $29.50 Special! $35.00 $45.00

Decatur Indians Buy Dodge Car

Mr. and Mrs. Brooks, Indians, living at Decatur, Neb., landed in Omaha the other day and decided to buy a car. After visiting Auto Row and looking over the various models, they stopped at the Murphy-O'Brien Auto company's office, and when they came out they were the possessors of a Dodge roadster. Of course they had to see Omaha, and Dug Bowe, sales manager for Murphy-O'Brien, drove them around town for some time and then took them home. A smile of satisfaction illuminated the faces of both Mr. and Mrs. Brooks when they left, and they stated that without a question of doubt there will be a great number of Dodge cars in their territory after once their roadster is shown to their friends. Use The Bee's "Swapper" column.
