By MELLIFLOIA. Monday, December 13, 1915.

ABOUT a week ago I told of the meanest man in Omaha putting his wife's pink-lined motoring coat over the engine of his machine to keep it warm. Of course, as no name was given many an innocent man may be accused of the crime. A slender man says his wife has suspected him and that she left a pink-lined coat in her husband's care and that it has not looked its best since.

There is some old suspicion that the fat is amiable and the lank and spare-boned and cross natured. Perhaps, this is why the thin man has been suspected.

The fat may be amiable, but they can be very selfish, even to the point of sacrificing the lining of a wife's perfectly good motoring coat.

The meanest man in Omaha, who used his wife's coat for a machine wrapper was not a thin man, he was not a short man, he was not a particularly blond man, he was not a very old man—and any such men accused of the deed are the victims of a gross injustice.

On the contrary, he was a tall man, a dark man, good of girth, robust build, and there are two other witnesses, not to speak of Mellifloia, who saw the dark deed done.

At the Orpheum.

Mr. and Mrs. George Brandels will give a box party this evening at the Orpheum theater in honor of Miss Lillian Rogers of Chicago, the guest for the holidays of her sisters, Mrs. Brandels and Mrs. Karl Louis.

Mr. William Schorr of Council Bluffs will give a party to eight, including Mr. and Mrs. Charles Benton.

Miss Helen Ingerson will give a party for eight guests. Eight reservations have been made for Mr. F. A. Fitzgerald.

A party of seven will be given by Mr. M. Wasserman, a party of six by Mr. F. W. Mikesell, and parties of five by Messrs. R. W. Waite and R. B. Zackary.

Parties of four seem rather the order of the evening and their hosts will be: Messrs. J. E. Fitzgerald, L. M. Cohn, W. S. Rowe, Carl Purth, Fred Meyer, C. L. Farnsworth, L. J. Millard, R. L. Huntley, L. Klein, A. V. Kinser.

For Distinguished Guest.

In honor of Dr. Winifred Hyde the speaker at today's open meeting of the philosophy and ethics department of the Omaha Woman's club, the members of the department gave a luncheon this afternoon at the Hotel Royal. Dr. Hyde is assistant professor of philosophy at the University of Nebraska. Those present at the luncheon were:

Dr. Winifred Hyde. Mesdames—Mrs. Stanley, William Berry, Robert Gilder, S. A. Collins.

For Miss Trimble.

Mrs. R. H. Busch gave a luncheon this afternoon at the Omaha club for Miss George Trimble, one of the December brides. The table held a centerpiece of pink roses in a French basket. Those present were:

Mesdames—Harold Roboter, R. B. Busch, George Trimble, Helene Boneter, Ruth Latenser, Marjory Howland.

For Popular Guest.

For Miss Lillian Rogers of Chicago, the much feted guest of her sister, Mrs. George Brandels, Mrs. E. A. Higgins will entertain Tuesday.

Thursday afternoon Mrs. Brandels will entertain informally for her guest and for Miss Alice Judge of St. Louis, the guest of Mrs. Charles E. Metz.

At the Yuletide Tea Room.

Mesdames—De Bois, Nathan Merriman, Frank Golpetzer, J. H. Butler, Ella Squires, C. K. Contant, T. J. Mackay, B. F. Crumner, L. C. Wood.

Honor Guest in Virginia.

Mrs. Barton Millard entertained at luncheon this afternoon for:

Mesdames—Misses—Mrs. Raymond Young will entertain on Wednesday afternoon for ten guests, and Senator Millard will entertain again for the guests who made up his luncheon party of last week.

Mrs. H. C. Sumney was honor guest Friday afternoon at a tea given at the Richmond (Va.) Country club by Miss Mary Day Winn and Mrs. R. D. Valentine.

Alumni Luncheon.

The Omaha Alumni club of the Delta Upsilon fraternity will give the fortnightly luncheon Tuesday, afternoon, December 14, at the University club. The Omaha alumni of the fraternity will give luncheons twice a month, on the first and third Tuesdays, after the first of the year.

For St. Louis Guest.

Miss Irma Wiedemann gave a luncheon this afternoon at her home to eight guests for Miss Alice Judge of St. Louis, house guest of Mr. and Mrs. Charles E. Metz. Miss Lillian Rogers of Chicago, sister to Mrs. George Brandels, and Mrs. Karl Louis, was the other out-of-town guest. The table was decorated with a centerpiece of Mrs. Ward roses.

For Miss Stewart.

Mr. Ben Warren entertained at dinner last evening at the Hotel Fontenelle in honor of Miss Marjorie Stewart of Muncie, Ind., house guest of Miss Elizabeth Davis, who left for Chicago. Those present were:

Misses—Marjorie Stewart, Louise Dinning, Elizabeth Davis, Melissa Davis, Moore—Gerald Wharton, Willard Butler, Roger Keelins, Ben Warren.

Postponement.

The social tea of the Omaha Suffrage association, which was to be given on Wednesday afternoon, has been postponed until after the holidays.

Husbands Entertained.

The members of the Comor club will give a husband's entertainment this evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Dismick.

Engagement Announced.

The engagement of Mrs. Isabel Campbell to Mr. Harry B. Reed is announced, the wedding to be soon after New Year's.

Honors Former Omaha Girl.

Mrs. James Ward Thorne of 1200 Lake Shore drive, Chicago, gave an informal luncheon Monday at her residence for her sister-in-law, Mrs. Austin Niblack, formerly Miss Helen Outley of Omaha. The guests included Mrs. Joseph

CHRISTMAS CHEER FOR ALL THE NEEDY

That is the System Being Worked Out by Mrs. Doane of the Associated Charities.

COLD INCREASES THE NEEDS

Many cases of need which have been sent to various private organizations have been referred to Secretary Doane of the Associated Charities. The secretary has a staff of assistants who are looking up the needs of the little ones and the elderly folks and others who will need Christmas cheer. The work requires a system. The desire is to arrange for all who are in need and to do the most good to the greatest number.

A school teacher who is doing a little missionary work in her own neighborhood called at the Charities office and told of two little sisters whom she found primping each other. Asking them the reason for their unwonted diligence they explained they wanted to be ready for Santa Claus any time he might happen along.

Santa Will Visit There.

This teacher will see that the sisters have a merry Christmas. She will care for a few other cases with the co-operation of the Charities office.

As mother called and asked if Mrs. Doane would arrange to send her children some shoes for Christmas. A boy asked for a sled. A widow with five small children asked for help in making the season seem like Christmas for her little ones. Several families have asked for coal.

"We are having many requests for clothing. The cold weather increases the need of warm garments, which will be acceptable," said Mrs. Doane.

FIRST CHRISTIAN CHURCH SHOWS GOOD INCREASE

At the annual meeting Sunday at the First Christian church reports were received showing an increase of 245 members for the year, which has been the best in the history of the church in matters of local and missionary finances. This was an increase of $1,000 in mission contributions for the year.

During the day twenty-seven teams of two men each visited every member of the church, completing an "every-member-revival" the result of which was made known at the evening service. The report of these teams was encouraging for the ensuing year. By means of this canvass the officers know what financial support they may expect for the church during 1916.

POSTOFFICE CLERKS INSTALL THEIR OFFICERS

Newly elected officers of Branch No. 21, National Association of Postoffice Clerks, were installed Sunday afternoon at a meeting held in the swing room of the Federal building. They were: Ed Bellach, president; F. C. Kravis, vice president; E. F. Handbauer, financial secretary; J. F. Hurley, corresponding secretary; and L. F. Dyrhager, treasurer.

The new president appointed the following men as chairmen of the various committees: Entertainment, E. A. Glass; finance, L. D. Metz; grievance, P. E. McGovern; membership, O. G. Carter; relief, Herman Tombrink; publicity, C. P. Rodman.

The Mutual Benefit association, an insurance body auxiliary to the postoffice clerks' organization, made its report of the year's business and refunded $11.20 to each of the forty-six members after paying all obligations of the year.

FAINE FINDS THAT OPALS ARE MOST UNLUCKY GEMS

George Faine, 209 Grant street, was arrested for borrowing an opal pin for too lengthy a period. "Ah ah" will take it right back, judge," vouchsafed George. "These opals is mighty unlucky." The judge turned him loose.

"Grandpa is a Grand Old Name" is the Song R. C. Hoyt Was Singing

R. C. Hoyt, clerk of the United States court, is normally a well-balanced, calm, cool gentleman.

But Monday, December 13, 1915, at 9:27:32 a. m. he entered his office grumbling gaily as a giddy girl. He was humming a snatch from a popular song (and he a staid Congregationalist, too). The popular song was "Grandpa is a Grand Old Name."

"Aren't you feeling well?" inquired John Nicholson.

"Feeling well!" exclaimed Mr. Hoyt. "Feeling well! You ask aren't I. I mean, am not I feeling well? John, if I was feeling any better I'd have to wear weights on my shoes. Feeling well! Ha, ha, ha!"

"Perhaps he added a rare stamp to his collection?" opined Miss Moore, of the office force. Mr. Hoyt is a leading stamp collector.

Mr. Hoyt could contain himself no longer. He laughed right out loud.

"Rare stamp!" he chortled. "Well, I should say I have added a rare stamp to my collection. The rarest ever. Yes, sir, it's so rare that it's worth more than all my collection. Worth ten times as much. Oh, yes, a million times as much."

MINISTER FOR UNITARIANS

Committee Reports that It Expects to Be Able to Select One in a Short Time.

A permanent minister for the Unitarian church of Omaha probably soon will be selected. The congregation met at its parish house, 423 North Fortieth street, Sunday morning and received the report of the committee on ministers. William F. Baxter was chairman of the committee.

Through the Western Unitarian conference of Chicago the American Unitarian association of Boston, and eminent ministers in different parts of the country, the committee got into intimate touch with the national Unitarian movement, formulated a program of activities to begin at once, and will soon make some definite recommendations as to the selection of a permanent minister for Omaha. A strong local organization is expected to result from this within a short time.

The recent Unitarian National conference at San Francisco, at which ex-president Taft presided, has given a strong stimulus to the liberal church movement throughout the country.

Local church activities are to begin at once. On Wednesday, December 23, Rev. Robert Leavens of Pittsburg, Mass., will arrive to conduct the first general meeting, which probably will be held at Turpin's hall at Twenty-eighth and Farnam streets that evening. Mr. Leavens will be in the city for three days. After the holidays there will be a series of meetings conducted by different out-of-town men pending the appointment of a regular minister for Omaha. Among those will be such as President Emeritus Charles W. Eliot of Harvard, Mr. Newton Mann of Chicago, formerly of Omaha; Dr. Samuel McChord Crothers of Cambridge, Mass.; Rev. John Haynes Holmes of New York City; Mr. Frank S. C. Wicks of Indianapolis; Dr. Jenkins Lloyd Jones of David Starr Jordan of Stanford university.

On next Sunday Rabbi Frederick Cohn will address an open meeting of the study class at the parish house. This meeting is open to the public.

IRISH NOBLEMAN PAYS OMAHA VISIT

Sir Horace Plunkett, Who Owns Considerable Property Here, Comes to Go Over Accounts.

DOES NOT SPEAK OF THE WAR

Sir Horace Plunkett, Irish nobleman and extensive property holder in Omaha and other sections of this country, arrived in Omaha Monday morning and at once closeted himself with his auditor in the office of his local agent, Conrad Young, in the Brandeis Theater building to go over his local accounts for the year's business.

He expects to be back in Omaha perhaps the latter part of this week on his return to the east. He arrived in New York from Dublin about December 2.

"POP" ANDERSON TO GIVE HONORS TO HOTEL CLERKS

For the eleventh time since the organization of the Nebraska Iowa Hotel Clerks' association, Colonel William Anderson will install the new officers. The ceremony will take place Wednesday evening at Hotel Fontenelle. Colonel Anderson, familiarly known as "Pop" by many traveling men, is chief clerk at Hotel Rome, and was the founder of the greeters' organization.
