

Nebraska MOREHEAD IS OUT FOR VICE PRESIDENT

Petitions Asking Name Be Placed on Nebraska Primary Ballot Filed with His Consent.

WILL FILE IN OTHER STATES

(From a Staff Correspondent.)
LINCOLN, March 11.—(Special.)—Governor John H. Morehead is now a full fledged candidate for the democratic nomination for vice president, two petitions having been filed in his behalf this morning. The first one was placed on the "book" by Secretary of State Pool after receiving it from the hand of Food Commissioner Harman and the second came in by mail a little later.

To newspaper men Governor Morehead stated that he would accept the petitions and would endeavor to put up as good a fight as he could. He believes that Nebraska is entitled to something at the hands of the national democratic convention and he feels that the place is worth going after.

Other filings will be made in all states which cast a preferential primary vote and assurances have been received from some of the nearby states that the governor's candidacy will be a live issue for the voters there.

Special Train to St. Louis.

One of the innovations of the governor's campaign will be a special train to the St. Louis convention filled with Nebraska boosters and headquarters will be maintained in connection with the Nebraska delegation which will make democrats from the effete east sit up and take notice.

Names on the Lincoln petition were as follows: W. H. Smith, state auditor; Charles W. Pool, secretary of state; C.
E. Harman, food commissioner; Dexter T. Barrett, deputy attorney general; Fred C. Ayers, deputy state auditor; Dr. P. L.
Hall, national committeeman; W. T. Fenton, warden state penitentiary; Henry Gerdes and S. A. Holcomb, Board of Control; Charles W. Bryan, mayor of Lincoln; T. S. Allen, United States district attorney; A. M. Morrissey, chief justice supreme court and several other state house employees and Lincoln democrats.

HARMAN WOULD STOP EXPORTATION OF GASOLINE

(From a Staff Correspondent.)
LINCOLN, March 11.—(Special.)—Oil inspector Harman has sent a communication to the democratic members of congress asking that they use their influence with congress to have an embargo placed on exportations of oil and gasoline to other countries.

He gives as his reasons for such action that on account of the large amount of gasoline and other oils going to other countries and the increased used made of it in this country that the price of gasoline has gone from 10 cents a year ago to 20 cents at the present time. In 1911 the exportations of gasoline were 15,000,000 gallons, but the 1915 exportations increased to about 25,000,000 gallons.

He believes that it will be necessary for the United States to conserve its output of gasoline or it will find itself up against a practically prohibitive price. He calls attention to several states in the south where owners have had to store their cars because the price of gasoline has gone up to 40 cents a gallon.

Commissioner Harman says that shipbuilders are now getting ready to build twenty-nine new ships of an especial type for the carrying of gasoline and he believes that some active measures should be taken for the protection of the oil industry.

MADGETT DELIVERS ADDRESS AT STROMSBURG

STROMSBURG, Neb., March 11.—(Special.)—Mayor Madgett of Hastings, candidate for nomination for governor, delivered an address to a large crowd at a dinner given by the Commercial club.

Mr. Madgett said what the people need today is statesmen not politicians; leaders, no bosses—statesmen and leaders who are men among men and in whom the people can safely put their trust.

He also said that the words politics and politicians may live, but politics as a business must surely die. He closed with a tribute to temperance.

ber of teachers will be here at that time, as well as some of the foremost educators of Nebraska and Colorado. Among those on the program are: Mary C. Bradford, state superintendent Colorado; Dr. A.
C. Thomas, state superintendent of Nebraska; Dr. A. C. Monahan, from the ington; Prof. Frederick A. Staff of the ### Widows to Organize Society to Help Widows Help Themselves

"Why shouldn't the widows organize?" Every other class of people, religious sect or political affiliation is organized for protection and the benefits to be gotten by co-operation. Why shouldn't the widows, who need protection and assistance the most, follow their example?"

With this idea in mind Mrs. Bessie C.
Turpin, a widow with three children, whom she has supported by her employment as bookkeeper in local business houses for nine years, has issued an appeal to all widows to meet with her at the Young Men's Christian association Tuesday afternoon at 2 o'clock to organize "The Society of American Widows."

Mrs. Turpin has had the idea in mind for several years and has been quietly presenting her views to local business men since October. The first gun in the campaign for widows' rights was fired when Mrs. Turpin addressed a communication to the Associated Retailers this week setting forth the aims of the Society of American Widows and asking that a discount be made on all purchases by widows in stores which are members of the association. Mrs. Turpin has given up her position and expects to employ all of her time now to furthering the success of her project.

"At the end of the European war there will be a great influx of widows into this country. This will be a great problem for us to solve, and we believe in preparedness. Another necessity for our organization is the inability of the mothers' pension to come to the aid of widows.
Some are ineligible and others, if they receive a pension which is not sufficient for them to live on, are not able to go out and work to make some additional money." By means of the employment bureau and sewing department which we will establish we hope to be able to provide work in their own homes for the widows.

"This is not a charitable organization.
Charity only pauperizes, but our aim is to do a great, lasting good before the case is turned over to the charities. 'Help the widows to help themselves,' is our motto."

Mrs. Turpin plans to present her idea to all the women's organizations of the city and to enlist the co-operation of local business men. She contemplates opening a local office and organizing a widows' stock company. The widows' dues will be $1, honorary members $5 per year. Interested persons will be sold large blocks of stock if they wish.

of the session.

ing of the senate committee on commerce

An effort is being made to get through congress a measure which will prohibit convict-made goods from being shipped from one state to another. This bill if it becomes a law will greatly affect the plant at the state penitentiary recently bill and will register a vigorous kick against its passage.

for an application has reached the office of the governor from Memphis, Tenn., and his assistants are busily engaged today in sending out the blank books to county assessors, necessary for each year. Mr. Mellor says that much of the success of the work and the correctness of the reports depend upon the precinct assessor and without their hearty cooperation the work may be a partial failure. Two thousand five hundred books

Booze Ads Cut Out Of Magazines Sent Into Wyoming

CHEYENNE, Wyo., March 11.—(Special.)—Because of Colorado's statewide prohibition law many Wyomingites, who enjoy "reading the advertisements" of popular magazines, have been curtailed in that privilege and are grumbling loudly. The Colorado law forbids the sale in that state of any publication containing a liquor advertisement. Therefore in magazines sent to Colorado for sale, the liquor advertisements are supplied from that city. Consequently Wyoming-ites who obtain their magazines at news-stands are receiving the Colorado edition, with liquor advertisements deleted.
