Mrs. Adam McLaughlin died at the M. E. parsonage in this city last Saturday morning. She had been in poor health for several months, and on Wednesday of last week submitted to an operation for the removal of a cancer, but in her weakened condition she was unable to rally from the operation. She was forty-six years of age, and had been a resident of Bon Homme county for many years. Funeral services were conducted in the M. E. church Monday afternoon by Rev. A. W. Thurston, and the remains laid to rest in Rose Hill cemetery. She leaves a husband and three children, one son grown to manhood, another about ten years old and a little daughter but four years of age. She was a devoted wife and mother, and an earnest christian lady, and leaves a large circle of friends whose sympathy is extended to the sorrowing family in their irreparable loss.

Mr. Charles Cobb and Miss Maggie Wysoph were married on Tuesday at 9:30 o'clock a. m., at the home of the groom's sister, Mrs. Logeman, in Menno, Rev. H. R. Upton of Scotland performing the ceremony. Those present from Scotland were Mr. and Mrs. Will Cobb, Mrs. Jas. Blair and Mr. John Romberg. The bride wore an elegant costume of white satin, while the groom was attired in the conventional black. Following the ceremony, which was of the "short and impressive" variety, a sumptuous wedding breakfast was served, after which the bride and groom boarded the train amid the usual shower of rice, old shoes and good wishes, for Alexandria. After a brief wedding trip they will return to Scotland to make their future home. Both the bride and groom are well and favorably known in this vicinity and have many friends who unite in extending congratulations and best wishes.

A BULL DOG CINCH.

Our price, quality and all around satisfaction is what you get when you buy lumber or building material from us. Nothing but square dealing goes here. When you pay for a certain grade of lumber here, you can put it down in black and white, you'll get that grade—nothing less. If a man knows the difference in lumber, he wants the best his money will buy. If he doesn't know the difference he wants the best anyway.

Estimates promptly furnished on all bills—large or small.
