AT SETH'S SERENADE.

When Seth got married we had a bee,
and went up to his house for a shivaree.
Some took drums, and some took pans,
and some took whistles, and some tin cans and strings in the bottom and resound to rub,
and they yowled like wildcats at every
scrub,
and the dumbest noise that ever was made as the whoopedew at Seth's serenade.
We carried something beside the noise that little home, we girls and boys, and after the bang, and fun, and din, and gave us an invite and we went in,
and under each arm was a bundle hid—we loaded them down, that's what we did!
Bunches of this and bunches of that—bunches were big and bunches were fat.
And then the squeeze a speech he made for the rest of the crowd at Seth's serenade.

"I'm here to wish you long life," said he,
and a way that is smooth and as straight as can be.
And every day as you're startin' now take a smile on your face and a care-free brow.
I bring you to-night—friends Seth and May—
and the cheer that starts my day."
And he crowded the heap—he's a knowin'
man—
and a Chase & Sanborn coffee can.
And before we left we had coffee made was the best of the treat at Seth's
serenade.

AN RIPER BROS.

SUMMONS.

In the Circuit Court of the State of Oregon for the County of Klamath.
Elvin M. Leomer, Plaintiff, vs.
James M. Randle, Defendant. Summons.

To James M. Randle, Defendant:

In the name of the State of Oregon: You are hereby required to appear and answer the complaint filed against you in the above entitled suit, on or before Wednesday, the 30th day of December, 1908, that being the date of the last publication of the summons in said suit and the last date within which the defendant therein is required to answer said complaint as fixed by the order for publication of this summons, and if you fail to appear and answer, the plaintiff will apply to the court for the relief prayed for in such complaint, to-wit:

Quiet title to the following described real property: The

MILLS ADDITION LOTS are Advancing in Value

When blocks in Mills Addition were offered at bargain prices a number of shrewd investors bought; since that time values have increased materially.

These Lots are Bargain Buys at present prices, and there is every reason to anticipate an advance in prices. Remember these lots are FIFTY feet in width and ONE HUNDRED AND TWENTY FEET deep—more than double the area of most town lots offered to investors.
