

MADE BEN REITMAN RUN THE GAUNTLET

AND SHOWED AMERICAN FLAG DOWN HIS THROAT

According to His Story The Mob Which Abducted Him Could Put to Blush the Most Practiced Discipline of Terrorism in the Gentle Art of Torture—Was No Hope of "Getting Back" at Vigilantes

United Press Service LOS ANGELES, May 14.—Alleging barbarities savoring of the Spanish inquisition and detailing unprintable tortures, Ben Reitman, exhibiting cuts and bruises on his tar-smeared face and body, which he says the San Diego vigilantes inflicted, was seen here today. Friends and sympathizers of Reitman will hold a protest mass meeting at a local theater to night, when Emma Goldman, Anton Johansson and C. T. Spradling, the president of the Los Angeles Liberal Club, will speak.

Reitman Tells His Story

LOS ANGELES, May 14.—Ben Reitman, manager for Emma Goldman, told of his experience with the San Diego vigilantes last night. He said: "The men who captured me were business men of San Diego. When I refused to go with them they held revolvers to my head and body, covered my mouth, and dragged me to an auto. Police cleared the way for them. On the way to the desert they thrust pencils into my nostrils and ears, and stuffed fifth into my mouth. They also struck me with their fists and clubs. Throughout the trip they called me the vilest of names. When we reached the desert we met another party in waiting. I was placed in front of a fire and stripped of my clothing, and then began such scendish and inhuman tortures, the details of which are not fit for publication. I begged them to kill me and end the pain. They replied that they wanted me to go away and tell my gang how San Diego treated my kind. They also said that if they had Emma Goldman there they would give her the same dope. They then ordered me to sing the 'Star Spangled Banner,' and made me pray. My own cane was used to lacerate my intestines. They made me run the gauntlet, beating me with billes as I ran. Just before they put the hot tar on my body their torture became terrible. I was finally thrown to the ground and smeared with fifth. A small American flag was stuck down my throat until I almost strangled. While some of them held me others stuck desert thorns into my ears. They then discussed whether they should blind me or not. Just before the tar was applied they burned my back with redhot cigars. They then plastered on the tar and covered it with cactus and desert grass. They then turned me loose in the desert, and as I ran from them some of them followed me and stoned me until they were tired. After a long walk I arrived at Herendo, naked, and bought the overalls and jumper I wore into Los Angeles."

Cannot Find Governor

SAN FRANCISCO, May 14.—Unable to locate Governor Johnson to ascertain if the state will take any action in the Reitman affair, friends of the man are not decided just now what course to follow.

Wreck Newspaper

United Press Service SAN DIEGO, May 14.—Feeling is high and those who condemn the action of the vigilantes in the Reitman affair are remaining discretely silent. The police deny that they sanctioned the kidnapping of the man, and claim they knew nothing of the affair until it was reported to the department.

Vigilantes Broke into the Office of the Roberts Printing Company last night and pried the forms of the Herald, which paper was upholding the industrialists. Today a committee of twenty went the rounds of all the publishers, warning them to refuse to publish the Herald, or aid that paper in any way.

The prisoners had never been allowed to peep out of the dark little house, and their minds were as blank as if they had been reared in a tomb.

HAWLEY IN FAVOR OF OREGON VETERANS

CONGRESSMAN WOULD HAVE INDIAN WARS UP TO 1890 INCLUDED IN PENSION BILLS BEFORE CONGRESS

WASHINGTON, D. C., May 14.—Congressmen Rucker and Hawley both have introduced Indian war pension bills. The Rucker bill would not meet the requirements of the Oregon veterans because it limits those who can benefit by it to soldiers who served ninety days, while many of the Oregon veterans were not in the field more than sixty days. There are a good many of these who are old and in need of such help as the government may see fit to extend to them. The present Indian war pension bills do not apply to the Indian war later than 1854. The Hawley bill applies to the wars occurring up to 1890.

HAWLEY IN FAVOR OF OREGON VETERANS

Congressman Hawley is trying to reach an understanding with Rucker. He thinks that the latter might very well agree to accept the provisions of Hawley's bill as an amendment to his own. The Hawley bill is short. It provides: "That the secretary of the interior be, and is hereby authorized and directed to place on the pension roll the names of the officers and soldiers of the Indian wars of the United States which occurred prior to the year 1890 at the rate of $16 per month, upon making proof of the fact of such service, according to such rules and regulations as the secretary of the interior may provide. That where there is no record of enlistment or muster into service of the United States in any of the wars covered by the provisions of this act the record of pay by the United States or the record of such service, enlistment, or muster in the war department of the United States or on file in the office of any adjutant general of any of the states or territories shall be accepted as full satisfactory proof of such enlistment and service; and further, where there is no record of enlistment or muster into the service of the United States or in the office of the adjutant general of any state or territory where the service was performed, then other adequate proof may be made of the performance of such service; provided, that each such officer or soldier shall have served at least thirty days in such Indian wars; provided further that nothing in this act shall be so construed as to effect a reduction in the amount of pension now received by any such officer or soldier."

HAWLEY IN FAVOR OF OREGON VETERANS

W. I. Clarke, manager of the Innes-Clarke Lumber Company, when seen by a representative of the Herald today, said that the report of the sale of the company's mill and lumber plant was premature, as no deal had yet been closed. "Negotiations have been under way," said Mr. Clarke, "for the purchase of our plant by Daly & Morrison, for nearly a month, but no deal has been closed."

HAWLEY IN FAVOR OF OREGON VETERANS

It has been generally known that negotiations were under way for the purchase of the plant for some time, but for some reason there has been a delay in the final transfer. Mr. Clarke stated on his return recently from San Francisco that the mill would begin operations in the very near future, either by his company or by the new owners in case the sale was made.

The Indian Who Nearly Killed Woman at Yainax Has Served Term at McNeil's Island—Was on Parole. But Sentence Expired About a Month Ago—Will Be Taken to Portland

HIRAM MOORE IS UNDER ARREST

A message received this morning from Bonanza states that Hiram Moore, the half breed Indian, who beat his wife and another Indian woman, with a pick handle in a fight Monday night, had been arrested by Indian Policeman Dave Chastant and another Indian by the name of Sixby, and was being brought to Bonanza, where he would be taken before United States Commissioner J. O. Hamaker. Mr. Hamaker will make out a warrant and will then telegraph to the federal authorities at Portland to have it approved. As soon as this is done Deputy United States Marshal Griffith will go to Bonanza and take charge of the prisoner.

HIRAM MOORE IS UNDER ARREST

It is stated that Moore has just recently completed a term at McNeil's Island. He came back to the reservation on parole, but the sentence expired about thirty days ago.

HIRAM MOORE IS UNDER ARREST

The report from Bonanza says that Moore's wife received a bad wound on her head, and was also struck in the chest, and internal injuries are feared. Mrs. Mary Mose Chiloquin, an aged Indian woman, had one of her arms broken in two places.

HIRAM MOORE IS UNDER ARREST

The United States marshal said at noon that he had talked with some Indians who had come in from Yainax this morning, and they told him that Mary Chiloquin was the only woman who had been injured. A man has also been placed under arrest at Chiloquin bridge, who is said to be one of the parties who gave the Indians the whiskey which started the trouble. He will probably be brought to Klamath Falls.

PORTLAND, May 14.—Roosevelt dead! Taft in control!

HIRAM MOORE IS UNDER ARREST

This startling report came to State Game Warden William L. Finley yesterday from the Wallowa forest reserve, where the herd of fifteen elk recently brought from the Jackson Hole country in Wyoming were installed a little over a month ago.

HIRAM MOORE IS UNDER ARREST

"Teddy Roosevelt" and "Bill Taft," as the two big bull elk were christened, had many a tussle over who was best fitted to rule the 2,500 acres of the "Billy Meadows" pasture, their new home. It seems that the superior weight of "Big Bill" carried the day.

HIRAM MOORE IS UNDER ARREST

On account of his marked aggressiveness the betting favored "Big Stick Teddy," but "Taft" got in the solar plexus blow and "Teddy" joined the Aonian club in elk heaven.

HIRAM MOORE IS UNDER ARREST

In addition to the demise of the great warrior, the community is mourning the loss of two members of the gentler sex and one of the latest additions, a young calf. Warden Finley believes that the rough trip from the Jackson Hole country to the Wallowa reserve was too much for the animals, and that they received internal injuries to which they succumbed. It is supposed that "Teddy" was hurt when he was thrown to have his antlers cut off before crating.
