Mrs. Mackay Has Been Sued for $1,000,000 for Alienating Affections of Dr. Blake, Noted Surgeon

MRS. CLARENCE MACKAY

New York, Newport, Boston and Philadelphia society hasn't received such a shock in years as came with the announcement that Mrs. Joseph A. Blake, wife of a well known surgeon of New York City, has sued Mrs. Clarence Mackay, wife of the bonanza heir, virtual owner of the Postal Telegraph Company and a cable line, for $1,000,000 for alienation of the doctor's affections. When Mr. Mackay hurried aboard the first eastern trip of the great vessel Imperator in June with his children and sailed away to Europe, it was rumored there was a disagreement in the family. When it was learned that Mrs. Mackay didn't know he was going the reports concerning Dr. Blake dropped out. If this suit comes to trial, and Mrs. Blake's accusations are supported by evidence, it will be one of the most momentous events the "Four Hundred" has ever passed through.

OUR WEEKLY SERMON

"SOUL HARVEST"

By ELDER S. D. HARLAN, Pastor Christian Church

Matt. 9:37. "The harvest truly is plentiful, but the laborers are few." The Master has spent the night in prayer and now he names his twelve assistants and points out their fields of labor, saying, "Lift up your eyes and look on their fields, for they are white already to the harvest." His disciples expected the soul harvest to ripen at some future time, but the Savior informs them that wherever work and prayer is accompanied with faith God will prepare fields to receive the word of truth.

Today heathen nations are awake to their need and are crying for help. Even so-called hermit nations are awaking and rubbing their eyes to catch the first gleams of a new day. We must reach these awakening people before they busy themselves with other tasks and give all allegiance to other gods. It is the duty of the Church to enter these open doors at home and abroad. Man has ever been looked upon from various viewpoints. The oppressor regards him as a minion to be slaughtered in battle or taxed to the utmost to support his throne. Politicians view him only as a unit to be counted in the party vote on election day. The financier looks upon him as a possible asset to his schemes for growing fortune. But Jesus viewed the multitudes with compassion and the cry of the unsaved filled his eyes with tears. The followers of Jesus must enter these open doors with the gospel of salvation before the man-hunters of this age crowd in ahead of them.

Never in the history of the world were so many tired of idols. We are told that wise men once went westward, led on by the thought of worship, and today it seems the same star is guiding millions to America.

That professing Christians might arouse from their lethargy and get a vision of the ripening fields. Many will not look upon the harvest for fear it will cost them something. But let us remember that God spared not his only Son; "that whosoever believed in him should not perish." If we would only look long enough on the soul harvest to see its possibilities! Paul with two or three helpers conquered Europe for Christ. Dr. Livingston opened darkest Africa to civilization by the light of the Gospel.

Sixty-five per cent of America's population is outside the Church. Only fifteen per cent of our young men attend religious services. This brings us to the question, Should we rest contented with our loved ones out of Christ? Matthew, twenty-fifth chapter, pictures the great day of separation, while the sadness of a lost soul is pictured in Jerome, 8:26. "The harvest is passed, the summer is ended and we are not saved." Let us pray the Lord of the Harvest to send reapers into his harvest, for, both Isaiah and Paul tell us that the Christian religion is very reasonable. And if we warn our brother of his danger his blood will be on our head. But if we live the way outlined by Christ and his apostles and help gather precious sheaves, we will rejoice to meet the Lord of the Harvest.

Rally Day Tomorrow. The Presbyterian Sunday School will observe Annual Rally Day tomorrow. A good program has been prepared, with plenty of fine music. All the friends of the Sunday School and church are urged to be present and asked to come early that they may enjoy the entire Rally Day service.

BIG EATERS GET KIDNEY TROUBLE

TAKE A GLASS OF SALTS BEFORE BREAKFAST IF YOUR BACK HURTS OR BLADDER BOTHERS YOU

The American men and women must guard constantly against kidney trouble, because we eat too much and all our food is rich. Our blood is filled with uric acid which the kidneys strive to filter out, they weaken from overwork, become sluggish; the eliminative tissues clog and the result is kidney trouble, bladder weakness and a general decline in health.

When your kidneys feel like lumps of lead; your back hurts or the urine is cloudy, full of sediment or you are obliged to seek relief two or three times during the night; if you suffer with sick headache or dizzy, nervous spells, acid stomach, or you have rheumatism when the weather is bad, get from your pharmacist about four ounces of Jad Salts; take a tablespoon full in a glass of water before breakfast for a few days and your kidneys will then act fine. This famous salts is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithia, and has been used for generations to flush and stimulate clogged kidneys; to neutralize the acids in the urine so it no longer is a source of irritation, thus ending bladder disorders.

Jad Salts is inexpensive; cannot injure, makes a delightful effervescent lithia water beverage, and belongs in every home, because nobody can make a mistake by having a good kidney flushing any time.

Great Runner Wants to Be a Walker

George V. Bonhag, the record holding distance runner, who announced his retirement from competition after the Olympic games at Stockholm, is training again. Bonhag will probably essay to come back in the role of a walker, and in this branch of the sport he has had plenty of experience, having won a world's Olympic championship in his first heel and toe race. He is training hard these fall days, and will probably make his first start as a walker in the seven mile championship race in November.

Bonhag is, perhaps, the most remarkable athlete in the country in many ways. He works for the city of New York from 9 a. m. until 5 p. m. every day. From his work Bonhag walks to Columbia university, a distance of over six miles. After doing his training stunt he has supper, and in the evening attends a course in civil engineering at Columbia university. In direct contrast to Hannes Kohlemainen, the great Finnish runner, who makes a specialty of being violently massaged before and after his races, Bonhag never has a "rub down." He goes out for his races "cold," as the athletes say. Bonhag's idea in trying to "come back" is not to win further honors on the cinder path, but to give his heart and leg muscles a certain amount of work which he figures out that they need after his having run distance races for eleven years.
