A HAPPY NEW YEAR

IT IS with the deepest feeling of gratefulness that The Herald is able to extend to its steadily increasing number of readers and the entire citizenship of Klamath county its sincere wish for a most happy and prosperous business during the New Year of 1914.

As we look back over the year just closed, we can have nothing but the kindest of feeling for the treatment and support given us by the people of this city and county. We find that the people have been more generous than probably we have merited at times, and we would assure all that this exhibition of friendliness and good will is deeply appreciated, and will be the means of a greater effort on our part during the year just beginning to merit the confidence shown in The Herald as the representative paper of the whole people.

It is only by profiting by the experience and mistakes of the past that one can be successful in any undertaking, and we feel that it has only been by closely following this policy that The Herald has been able to prosper and grow, while other newspapers have come, and, after a short existence, have passed, and are remembered only as the expensive folly of those who would sacrifice the will of the people for their own personal desires.

"Be fair to your readers," is the only policy that can be followed by a paper if it desires to be successful and retain the confidence of the people. This means that a newspaper must tell the truth at all times, no matter if it should offend a friend or please an enemy.

"Be reliable" is equally as important in the printing of news. It is the policy of The Herald to carefully investigate every item of news before it is given to the public. We have been so careful in this that our readers never feel the necessity of verifying anything they read in The Herald.

We can promise our readers a better paper during the coming year than ever before. It is our desire to furnish the people with the kind of a newspaper that they want. In order to do this as near as possible, we are always pleased to receive any suggestions and criticisms. If you are not getting just what you want tell us about it.

CONNELLY TO PUT UP A FINE HOUSE

IS HAULING LUMBER, ETC., FROM KLAMATH FALLS — O. NEWS NOTES OF THE LORELLA COUNTRY TERSELY TOLD

(Herald Special Service)

LORELLA, Jan. 1.—D. M. Donnelly has sent three four-horse teams to Klamath Falls, to secure lumber and building supplies for the new residence he will erect on his ranch in the near future. He has the stone and cement work about completed for the foundation and cellar. Let the good work go on. We need more people in Langell Valley to do likewise, thus compelling a better price for lands as improvements go up.

Ed Fisher went to Bonanza Tuesday on business.

Walter Broadword, the Bonanza hardware merchant, was a business caller in Lorella Monday.

O. S. Campbell has put in a brand new pump. This is an improvement needed on account of the large number of stock he has to water.

J. D. Walker left Tuesday morning for Vistillas with the mail. He has to use two horses now, thanks to the parcel post—but the worst is yet to come.

Alex Vinson and family returned this week from the Rogue River Valley, where they have been visiting for the past two months. We are glad to see them back again.

Go to K. C. Hospital.

M. F. Herring will leave this evening for Kansas City, where he will enter the Thornton and Miner hospital for treatment. He will be accompanied by his mother-in-law, Mrs. M. A. Porter, who will enter the same institution.

There are 703 bighorns, or mountain sheep in the national forests of Nevada.

Summons

In the Circuit Court of the State of Oregon, for the County of Klamath.

E. R. Reames, Plaintiff, vs. Hiram E. Willard, Frances W. Willard, Mary E. Ellsworth, I. D. Miller, James W. McCreary, May McCreary, J. A. Munch, Mary M. Munch, Defendants.

To Hiram E. Willard, Frances W. Willard, Mary E. Ellsworth, I. D. Miller, James W. McCreary, May McCreary, J. A. Munch, Mary M. Munch, Defendants.

In the name of the State of Oregon, you are hereby required to appear and answer the complaint filed against you in the above entitled suit on or before Friday, the 6th day of February, 1914, and if you fail so to answer, for want thereof the plaintiff will apply to the court for the relief demanded in the complaint, to wit:

For a judgment and decree against the defendants, Hiram E. Willard, Frances W. Willard, Mary E. Ellsworth and I. D. Miller for the sum of $5,400, with interest thereon at the rate of 8 per cent per annum from September 1, 1912, and the further sum of $500 attorney fees.

For a decree foreclosing the mortgage on, and ordering the sale of the following described real estate, and foreclosing and forever barring all the rights, title, interest of the defendants or those holding under, by or through them in said real estate, to wit:

Commencing at a point 1320 feet west of the northwest corner of Section 16, Township 39 south of Range 9 east of the Willamette Meridian, thence south, along the line of forty acre tracts, 6600 feet to the center of the northeast quarter of Section 20; thence in a northwesterly direction to the center of the southwest quarter of Section 17; thence in a northerly direction, through the centers of the southwest quarter and the northwest quarter of Section 17 to the bank of the Klamath River;

J. Gould's Granddaughter Is Now Mother in British Nobility

Had Jay Gould, the first of the great American speculators, lived to this day he might now be dangling on his knee a little lady of British nobility—his own great granddaughter. For his granddaughter, the daughter of his eldest son, George J. Gould, has just arrived in the United States with her husband, Lord Decies, and their daughter. Lord and Lady Decies will visit their relatives in New York for several weeks before going back to London.

Lord Decies is a democratic sort of British nobleman. For instance, he came to the United States booked as John B. Decies. "That ought to be democratic enough even for Mr. Bryan," he said. Then, of course, he was asked if he believed in woman suffrage. "Women should have been granted the ballot long ago," said he. "If they had been given their rights we should not have had these militant suffragettes. There would then be no cause for the burning of buildings and the other outrages we have almost become accustomed to within the last few years."

Friday, February 4, 1914, is the last day of the time prescribed in the order for publication of this summons, the first publication thereof being on Thursday, December 25, 1913. This summons is served by publication in the Klamath Republican by order of the Hon. Henry L. Benson, judge of the circuit court of the state of Oregon for the county of Klamath, dated December 20, 1913, which order requires that the summons be published in said paper once a week for six consecutive and successive weeks, from December 25, 1913, the date of the first publication of the summons.

Notice of Sheriff's Sale of Real Property In the Circuit Court of the State of Oregon, in and for Klamath County.

P. M. Reidy, Plaintiff, vs. Lester L. Leavitt and John H. Garrett, Defendants.

Under and by virtue of an execution in foreclosure issue by the clerk of the circuit court of Klamath county, Oregon, dated December 24, 1913, in the above entitled action, wherein P. M. Reidy, plaintiff, obtained a judgment against the defendant, Lester L. Leavitt, for the sum of $1,300 with interest thereon at the rate of 10 per cent per annum from the 14th day of February, 1912, until paid, for the sum of $135 attorney's fees and for $10.40, costs of suit, and a decree of foreclosure of the mortgaged premises, on the 26th day of September, 1913. I am commanded to sell all those pieces and parcels of land situated in the county of Klamath and state of Oregon, bounded and de-

Reno's Divorce Fame Is Now Killed Forever

United Press Service
RENO, Nev., Jan. 1.—As a divorce center, Reno went into the has-been class today when the new divorce law, requiring a year's residence before application can be made for divorce, went into effect. It is now just as hard to shuffle off the bonds of matrimony in Nevada as in any other state.

FIRE LOSS WAS LESS LAST YEAR

FIRE CHIEF ED WAKEFIELD COMPILES STATISTICS AS TO THE ACTIVITIES OF THE VOLUNTEER FIRE BOYS
During the year 1913, we answered eight alarms of fire," said Ed Wakefield of the Klamath Falls Volunteer Fire Department. "These eight fires entailed a property loss of $12,450. On these losses there was $1,183.15 insurance. A total of 4,100 feet of hose was laid by the fireboys. Some of the fires were in the middle of winter nights, and it was only the efforts of the fireboys that kept the flames from spreading to other structures. The fire losses for 1913 are $23,543 less than in 1912. A national arboretum is being established in Rock Creek National Park, District of Columbia. Eventually it will contain all American tree species which will thrive there. Subscribe for The Herald, 50 cents a month.
