'Cause furiners in furria parts
Wear furs in summer time,
Our summer girls still keep it up.
Sans reason and sans rhyme.

NEW YORK, June 16.—If you have a little mole on your shoulders then this summer you will be quite the thing.

Also ermine or kolinsky shoulders are more to be desired than bare shoulders, even if the bare shoulders be bear shoulders.

In plain words, the summer girl prefers furs on her shoulders even to wings.

Like the snows of yesterday, the snowy white foxes of last summer have vanished to give place to flat capes of unspotted ermine combined with moleskin, entire cape collars of kolinsky, all mole one or all ermine ones.

They are very quaint, old fashioned and bewitching, so what matter if they be a bit uncomfortable when the thermometer, which is no respecter of furry fashions, begins to climb.

One lovely model of moleskin, shaped like a little triangular shawl, is edged with fringe of chenille and in fact all these little fur shoulder capes put more things on edge than teeth.

A wide, straight piece of kolinsky that folds stiffly around the shoulders as if it were made of card board, fastens in front with two gorgeously enamelled buttons and is edged in a fold of chiffon.

Yet another of mole cut like a semi-circle is finished with a tiny quilling of taupe satin and another of unspotted ermine is edged in lovely white scallops of itself.

A stunning semi-circular cape of moleskin has a wide collar of ermine scalloped on the edge and taupe ribbon ties in front that end in cunning ball pompons of the mole.

Quite the only way in which the erstwhile popular white fox is allowed to appear is a band trimming on a wee cape of unspotted ermine and as a high wide collar on the same. On little shirred capes of taffeta bands and collar of white fox also are used.

Maribeau and ostrich bands feather a few taffeta capes also in lieu of fur, but this season fine feathers don't make nearly so fine birds as do fine furs.

This fur shoulder fad ought to prove a dandy reducing scheme not only for your pocket book but also for your embonpoint.

Verily, a pair of too stumpy shoulders awathed snugly in mole or kolinsky during the torrid months will emerge drooping perceptibly when Autumn calls.

Shrugging of shoulders as well as hugging of shoulders will all have to be done under cover, however, and all the poor male human motifs suffering around their adored flames this summer will undoubtedly have the companionship of a large flock of moths au naturel, but there's one consolation—no naughty beauty will be able to turn the cold shoulder on her loveick swain this little old summer.

The summer election of officers was held yesterday by the Woman's Library Club, and the following were chosen for the ensuing year: president, Mrs. Robert E. Wattenberg; first vice president, Mrs. Orson A. Stearns; second vice president, Mrs. Louis Jacobs; secretary, Mrs. Elsie Taylor; treasurer, Mrs. E. J. Sheets. The Library Club members at their meeting yesterday made arrangements for their annual "guest night," to be held the evening of June 23. At that time, all members are to attend and bring one guest. A program will be rendered during the evening, and refreshments will be served.

By far the prettiest party of the year was given yesterday afternoon at the White Pelican hotel, when Mrs. Robert A. Johnson entertained at bridge. Mrs. Johnson was assisted by Mrs. William M. Duncan and Mrs. G. A. Krause. The sun parlor was used for cards, and punch was served during the time bridge was played. First prize was won by Mrs. Charles C. Hogue, second prize went to Mrs. Thomas Hampton, and Mrs. J. F. Maguire was given the consolation prize. After the award of prizes, the guests repaired to the White Pelican dining room, which was arranged in a most entrancing manner for the occasion. Large round tables were used, and these were beautifully decorated, a huge bowl of sweet peas forming the centerpiece on each table. Encircling the bottom of the bowl, and partly concealed in the sweet pea foliage was a circle of tulips, the stems of each tulip being a tiny electric light. The dining room was darkened, and the ruddy subdued glow given by these floral effects added much to the unusually charming effect. Mrs. Johnson's guests were all enraptured by this novel arrangement. The sweet pea blossoms were also used in profusion in pretty designs centering at the big bowl and running to the edges of the tables, and palms and plants were in evidence all over the room, forming a picture of real enchantment. A dainty repast was served to the guests, who were Mrs. Frank S. Ankney, Mrs. J. C. Hardenbrook, Mrs. Karl G. Cummings, Mrs. William M. Duncan, Mrs. Charles Wood Eberlein, Mrs. Jack S. Elliott, Mrs. F. B. English, Mrs. Louis Gerber, Mrs. E. W. Gowen, Mrs. Thomas F. Hampton, Mrs. C. C. Hogue, Mrs. W. Paul Johnson, Mrs. G. A. Krause, Mrs. A. J. Lyle, Mrs. J. F. Maguire, Mrs. Charles J. Martin, Mrs. S. Edward Martin, Mrs. Will H. Mason, Mrs. Henrietta Melhase, Mrs. A. D. Miller, Mrs. Sillas Obenchain, Mrs. E. R. Reames, Mrs. O. W. Robertson, Mrs. Leslie Rogers, Mrs. M. Sargent, Mrs. Fred Schallcock, Mrs. Oscar Shive, Mrs. Philip J. Sinnott, Mrs. Wesley O. Smith, Mrs. L. L. Truax, Mrs. Clarence H. Underwood, Mrs. George J. Walton, Mrs. Frank Ward, Mrs. George Watt, Mrs. Merie S. West, Mrs. Earl Whitlock, Mrs. Levi F. Willets, Mrs. Albert M. Worden, Mrs. George I. Wright, Mrs. Carrice Worden, Mrs. Don J. Zumwalt, Mrs. Frank Jennings, Mrs. W. H. Merrill, Mrs. Alice McCourt, Mrs. Elbert B. Hall, Mrs. Louis U. Van Bellen, Mrs. Dorothy Luce, Mrs. Vittum.

An enjoyable dancing party was given at the Elks' Temple Thursday night, when the lodge entertained the ladies of the members and the cast presenting "A Night in Bohemia," at a dancing party. This was a "shirt waist" party, negligence being the prevailing attire, and this proved a happy thought, considering the elevation of the mercury throughout the week, making the dancing comfortable for all. The Peerless orchestra, which added so much to the success of "A Night in Bohemia" by its rendition of the musical program, was of course the orchestra furnishing music for Thursday night's

Notice of Sheriff's Sale
By virtue of an execution duly issued by the clerk of the circuit court of the county of Clatsop, state of Oregon, dated the 17th day of May, 1916, in a certain action in the circuit court for said county and state, wherein Pauline E. Harris and J. C. Clinton, executors of the last will of Sam E. Harris, deceased, as plaintiff, recovered judgment against Phil F. Bower and Jennie Mabel Bower, his wife, for the sum of Fourteen Hundred and Ninety-six and 57/100 Dollars, on the 30th day of January, 1915.

Start Tomorrow and Keep It Up Every Morning

Get in the habit of drinking a glass of hot water before breakfast.

We're not here long, so let's make our stay agreeable. Let us live well, eat well, digest well, work well, sleep well, and look well. What a glorious condition to attain, and yet, how very easy it is if one will only adopt the morning inside bath.

Folks who are accustomed to feel dull and heavy when they arise, splitting headache, stuffy from a cold, foul tongue, nasty breath, acid stomach, can, instead, feel as fresh as a daisy by opening the stapes in the system each morning and flushing out the whole of the internal poisonous stagnant matter.

Everyone, whether ailing, sick or well, should, each morning, before breakfast, drink a glass of real hot water with a teaspoonful of limestone phosphate in it to wash from the stomach, liver and bowels the previous day's indigestible waste, sour bile and poisonous toxins; thus cleansing, sweetening and purifying the entire alimentary canal before putting more food into the stomach. The action of hot water and limestone phosphate on an empty stomach is wonderfully invigorating. It cleans out all the sour fermentations, gases, waste and acidity and gives one a splendid appetite for breakfast. While you are enjoying your breakfast the water and phosphate is quietly extracting a large volume of water from the blood and getting ready for a thorough flushing of all the inside organs.

The millions of people who are bothered with constipation, bilious spells, stomach troubles; others who have sallow skins, blood disorders and sickly complexions are urged to get a quarter pound of limestone phosphate from the drug store. This will cost very little, but is sufficient to make anyone a pronounced crank on the subject of inside bathing before breakfast.—Adv.

on the 15th day of July, 1916, at the court house in Klamath Falls, in said county, at 10 o'clock in the forenoon of said day, sell at public auction to the highest bidder, for cash, the following described property, to-wit:

The northwest quarter (NW 1/4) of section 19, township thirty-nine (39) south, range five (5) east Willamette meridian.

Taken and levied upon as the property of said Phil F. Bower and Jennie Mabel Bower, his wife, or as much thereof as may be necessary to satisfy the said judgment in favor of Pauline E. Harris and J. C. Clinton, executors of the last will of Sam E. Harris, deceased, against said Phil F. Bower and Jennie Mabel Bower, his wife, with interest thereon, together with all costs and disbursements that have or may accrue.
