BUCKING SHOW AGAIN TOMORROW

WILLIAM SIMS WILL PUT ON LAST RIDING CONTEST OF SEASON AT MODOC PARK TOMORROW AFTERNOON

The last roundup entertainment of the season is scheduled for tomorrow afternoon at the Modoc ball park, when the famous bucking horses of the country will try odds with a number of prominent local riders. The show will be under the management of William Sims, who has arranged to have the celebrated White Cloud make one of his regular appearances. The champion bucking bull, Nero, will also perform with his usual agility.

C. R. Miller of the Miller Photo company will be on hand with his moving picture camera on this occasion. He expects to get some fine film to add to the famous Klamath moving pictures.

SONG RECITAL PLEASES

The song recital last evening at the Eleventh street Baptist church was a decided success, the audience being highly pleased with all numbers rendered. Misses Clara Calkins and Maude Scoville and W. U. Foster, whose decided talent in vocal and instrumental work was so well appreciated, made a free will offering of their services toward the church building fund. The offering was large and well appreciated.

CARD OF THANKS

Mr. and Mrs. H. B. Odys and family wishes to thank the many friends for their sympathetic kindness during the recent bereavement of their dear beloved son and brother, Coyote.

LAKEVIEW CHURCH DEDICATED TOMORROW

A new Presbyterian church, erected at a cost of $10,000, will be dedicated tomorrow at Lakeview. Rev. A. J. Montgomery, superintendent of the home missions, is to have charge of the dedication exercises.

It is said to be the furthest Presbyterian church of its size from a main railroad line in the United States.

SURPRISE PARTY LAST NIGHT

A surprise party was given last night by members of the board of the Christian church and their wives and friends for Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Duncan, who leave Klamath Falls next week. Mr. Duncan has been president of the board for many years, and as a token of recognition of his help, Mr. and Mrs. Duncan were presented with a beautiful silver berry spoon.

"THE LITTLE AMERICAN"

Mary Pickford, plus Cecil B. De Mille, plus a powerful story, a wealth of action, a series of remarkably spectacular effects, a number of surprises that will positively thrill and a cast of unusual capabilities, is what "The Little American," a new Artcraft picture at the opera house tonight and tomorrow, has to offer. Each individual connected with the production of this picture feels that he or she has contributed their very best talents to the cause of this striking subject. The picture has already created a sensation among film circles and that it will prove the greatest cinema success of the year is freely predicted by many who are in a position to judge.
