Scenes Most Pitiful When Refugees Return

EVIAN, FRANCE, (Correspondence of the Associated Press).—The return to France of the women, children and old men who were sent out of that part of France occupied by Germans for more than four years presented pitiful spectacles. Many of these refugees were little tots whose fathers and mothers had been taken away by the cruel Boche to work in Germany or behind the fighting lines. Others were orphans.

Twice daily the affecting scenes of their return were enacted here when the trains bringing them thru Switzerland bringing 600 to 700 repatriates back to the beloved soil of France. With them were Belgians who came from parts of Belgium then occupied by the Hun. Much was done to relieve the sufferings of these poor people of S. S. Howland representative of the Belgian Relief Commission stationed here, and by Mrs. Howland, his wife.

Describing the scene of the return of a trainload of refugees, Mr. Howland writes: "Slowly, the long line came towards us, the old and the young about equally divided—mas, but few of middle age, for the Germans had use for such and would not let them go. While few showed traces of actual destitution, we knew that but a small number possessed more than the clothes they wore and what the hand bags and bundles they carried contained.

"They were not emaciated, but their faces were worn, sometimes anemic. How could they be otherwise after the years of constant suffering and continued horrors they had endured, with no hope of release before them but victory for the Allies, or perchance the good fortune to be enrolled in one of these little bands of repatriates.

"Now and again someone would rush out from the sidewalk to greet a relative or friend recognized after years of absence. But though such instances were rare, they served to buoy up the hopes of the rest that perhaps farther along they too would be as fortunate.

"Two short runs were made that then seemingly countless children might be able to keep up. Brave little tots they were, holding close to their mothers; if they had them, or if not to those who had befriended them on the way, for many were orphans, or had their parents taken away by the Germans to work. Perhaps, hundreds of miles from their homes.

"Inside the great rooms of the Casino long lines of tables set for supper filled almost the entire space. As the repatriates filed in, women showed them to their seats, while others distributed small French flags to young and old alike—the flag that once more they might wave freely.

"Bowls of soup, slices of good bread, hot well-cooked meat and glasses of red wine still further cheered the hearts of the stranger, so that when the orchestra in the gallery began to play well-known and cherished French airs—airs that had not been heard before in all these long years—tears streamed down the cheeks of many, and of lookers-on as well, while hands and voices proclaimed their keen delight.

"No man did we see between fourteen and sixty unless they were palpably ill or crippled, and comparatively few women who had not long since passed their prime. Mothers had been separated from sons and daughters dragged off by the Boche to work in factories and mines, even on fortifications to be used against their own kin.

"The feast was nearing its end when the Sub-Prefect mounted the rostrum and began to speak. Instantly there was silence. He dwelt upon France's love for her people, her sorrow for their sufferings.

"His words had hardly ceased when the band struck up the Marseillaise. The old, the young, the halt, the blind sprang to their feet, trying their best to join in the refrain but frequently by sheer nervous exhaustion. Sobs could be heard and the faces of most of the women and of many of the men were hidden they wiped away their tears of joy."

LET'S HIRED HELP GO, DOES WORK HERSELF

MRS. TOROLT ASTONISHED AT RESULTS OF TANLAC—GAINS 30 POUNDS.

"My trouble started about two years ago," she continued, "and I have simply been a nervous wreck ever since until now. Last January I went to the hospital where I was told that my whole system had become poisoned by an affected appendix, that an operation was my

ZIMMERMAN ADMITS GUILT OF GERMANY

BERLIN, Dec. 4.—Dr. Arthur Zimmermann, former secretary of state for foreign affairs, writing in the North German Gazette, admits that Germany did not expressly attempt to dissuade Austria from sending an ultimatum to Serbia, adding: "We thought it was over-harsh, but it was known so late in Berlin that it was impossible to attempt to instigate it."

only hope and it was doubtful if this would save me. So I arranged to have my children cared for, in case I should not see them again, and submitted to the operation. Well, the operation was done with so much skill, and I was so carefully nursed that I finally got out of the hospital, and was home with my husband and children again. Then I picked up wonderfully for a little more than a month when I began having terrible pains in my back over my kidneys. My appetite left me, and nothing tasted right. I was constipated, had fearful headaches, and was so nervous I could hardly sleep. I fell off until I weighed less than a hundred pounds and was so weak that it was an effort for me to get about at all.

"Finally my husband suggested that I try Tanlac, as it was being so much talked about, and the results have astonished us both. I couldn't see much improvement on my first bottle, but with the second my appetite got better, I commenced to feel improved and was surprised when I got on the scales, to find that I had gone up to one hundred and eight pounds. Well, the third bottle did wonders for me, relieving me of all pain and headache and making me want to eat up everything. I now weigh one hundred and eighteen pounds—making a gain of more than twenty pounds on three bottles—and I'm wondering what my fourth bottle which I have just started taking, will do for me. I sleep like a healthy child, never waking at night at all and feel like I could eat five or six meals a day. I dismissed my hired help, four weeks ago, after eighteen months steady service, and since then I have done all my own housework, cooking and everything. I have no more dull drowsy bad feelings and life is a pleasure to me. I can't praise Tanlac enough for what it has done for me."

Tanlac is sold in Klamath Falls by the Star Drug Co., and in Lorain by James Marc, Co.

IF BACK HURTS BEGIN ON SALTS

FLUSH YOUR KIDNEYS OCCASIONALLY IF YOU EAT MEAT REGULARLY.

No man or woman who eats meat regularly can make a mistake by flushing the kidneys occasionally, says a well known authority. Most forms uric acid which clogs the kidney pores so they sluggishly filter or strain only part of the waste and poisons from the blood, then you get sick. Nearly all rheumatism, head-ache, indigestion, dizziness, sleeplessness, bladder disorders come from sluggish kidneys.

The moment you feel a dull ache in the kidneys or your back hurts, or if the urine is cloudy, offensive, full of sediment, irregular of passage or attended by a sensation of stinging, get about four ounces of Jad salts from any reliable pharmacy and take a tablespoonful in a glass of water before breakfast for a few days and your kidneys will then act fine. This famous salt is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithia and has been used for generations to flush clogged kidneys and stimulate them to activity, also to neutralize the acids in urine so it no longer causes irritation, thus ending bladder disorders.

Jad Salts is inexpensive and cannot injure; makes a delightful effervescent lithia-water drink which all regular meat eaters should take now and then to keep the kidneys clean and the blood pure, thereby avoiding serious kidney complications.—Adv.

BRIGHT LIGHT MEANS BRISK BUSINESS

The dingy store can never hope to do more than a "dinky" business. Proper lighting is as essential to the success of the modern retail store as the stock of merchandise on its shelves.

Hopes Women Will Adopt This Habit As Well As Men

Glass of hot water each morning helps us look and feel clean, sweet, fresh.

Happy, bright, alert—vigorous and vivacious—a good clear skin; a natural rosy complexion and freedom from skin troubles are assured only by clean, healthy blood. If only every woman and likewise every man could realize the wonders of the morning inside bath, what a gratifying change would take place. Instead of the thousands of sickly, anemic-looking men, women and girls with pasty or muddy complexions; instead of the multitudes of "nerve wrecks," "rundowns," "brain fags" and pessimists we should see a virile, optimistic throng of rosy cheeked people everywhere.

An inside bath is had by drinking, each morning before breakfast, a glass of real hot water with a teaspoonful of limestone phosphate in it to wash from the stomach, liver, kidneys and ion yards of bowels the previous day's indigestible waste, sour fermentations and poisons, thus cleansing, sweetening and freshening the entire alimentary canal before putting more food into the stomach.

Those subject to sick headaches, biliousness, nasty breath, rheumatism, colds; and particularly those who have a pallid, sallow complexion and who are constipated very often, are urged to obtain a quarter pound of limestone phosphate at the drug store which will cost but a trifle but is sufficient to demonstrate the quick and remarkable change in both health and appearance awaiting those who practice internal sanitation. We must remember that inside cleanliness is more important than outside, because the skin does not absorb impurities to contaminate the blood, while the pores in the thirty feet of bowels do—Adv.
