MERRILL

Mrs. M. Galefmini spent a few days in Klamath Falls last week and attended the funeral of Mrs. C. G. Benedict.

Jas. Barry is feeding his sheep on the W. F. Hill ranch north of Merrill.

C. W. Hosteter, who has been living in the C. G. Merrill place during the winter, is planning to leave for Taft, California. Mr. Hosteter came to Merrill to work on the Crater Gas and Oil company. There is no assurance of being done here in the near future so he will go back to California. The people of Merrill and vicinity would like to have operations resume on these wells.

Sleighing continues to be good on the roads off of the main traveled roads—it seems the cold spell has broken so we may not have the snow much longer.

Mrs. John Hogan was a Merrill visitor Monday from their home over the line in California.

The picture "An Equal Chance" will be given at the theatre on Saturday evening, January 28. This picture is given under the auspices of the Klamath Public health association, and will show the public the value of the work done by the public health nurse in rural communities. This will be a two-reel picture in connection with the regular pictures.

Miss Inez Metzker, who has been visiting at Hollister and Gilroy, California, for a month has returned to Merrill.

T. J. Lynch is able to be out after being ill for some time.

Several car loads of cattle were shipped from Midland. The cattle were bought in the Merrill vicinity. The prices were encouraging.

SHASTA VIEW

You, we have survived the 20 below zero weather and think we are prepared for almost anything Oregon has in store for us.

Mr. and Mrs. D. L. Book and son, Amos have moved for a few weeks to the Siegel house, while Mr. Siegel and Amos cut wood and posts.

C. M. Kirkpatrick, wife and two boys were Klamath Falls visitors Thursday.

Mrs. W. Crandall expects to go to Klamath Falls Monday to spend a few days at the home of E. M. Bubb.

Jack Parker has rented the Louise Hatch ranch and will move his family there from the Ben Daniel ranch in the early spring.

Mr. and Mrs. Martin Christenson of Klamath Falls were visiting at C. M. Kirkpatrick's and H. E. Wilson's last week.

We understand W. C. Dalton has started a "goose ranch" which no doubt will supersede alfalfa and stock raising.

Ben Daniel, wife and daughters Gladys and Marjory were visiting at the home of J. L. Bailey and wife a few days last week.

D. L. Book, son Amos and O. E. Hunt were Klamath Falls visitors Monday.

Roy Fogie and family are again settled at their ranch near Malin.

after having rented it the past year.

The ladies of the Helping Hand society were entertained by Mrs. J. A. McCumb Wednesday with fourteen members and five visitors present. Mrs. G. B. Atkinson of Malin was initiated into the wool carding business at this meeting, G. W. Myers proving to be a very able instructor. The next meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. Alida Macken Wednesday, Feb. 28.

The vat in the Malin cheese factory was filled to within sixty gallons of its capacity one day last week which looks as if another one would have to be installed to care for the gradual increase.

PRESCRIPTIONS
today or next year
WHERE

will you have them filled?
