

LATE CITY NEWS FOUND

By the Reporters on Their Round of the Town.

To the Pen - Among the Courts - Asylum and Other Notes.

Left Considerable Property.

R. L. Milster who committed suicide near Silverton on Sunday of last week left considerable property for his family.

The Oregon Presbytery.

The presbytery of Oregon convenes to-night at 7:30, at the Presbyterian church in this city.

Already there are many delegates present; the Albany, Ashland, Eugene and Portland representatives having arrived.

Oregon Always Smiling.

That we may better appreciate our own position it may be well to quote a few sentences from a letter from Missouri.

Oregon Schools.

Prof. McElroy says the school population of Oregon is from 85,000 to 87,000. This includes all between the age of 4 and 20 years.

Drouth and Deluge Predicted.

In Topeka, Kansas, lives Prof. C. C. Blake, who for many years has most successfully calculated weather beforehand.

At The Reed.

Last night quite a good audience turned out to hear the Maubury-Boyd company in "His Natural Life."

In For Two Years.

Yesterday Sheriff Hinsbaw of Baker county brought to the penitentiary Milton Eddy, for a term of two years for the larceny of a horse.

CIRCUIT COURT.

Proceedings of the Regular October Term.

The grand jury is composed of the following named gentlemen: Thos. Bruce, F. A. Wanless, J. W. Labare, Harvey Walker, Jos. Ledgerwood, Marion Eskew, B. Phelps, the latter gentleman being foreman.

The following cases have been disposed of:

M. Kam'usky vs. M. Gerschback; garnishee; continued.

H. D. Kelly vs. Wm. Marston; damages; dismissed.

Jacob Voorhees vs. W. L. Tootze; suit in regard to warehouses; settled.

A. R. Jewitt vs. A. English; action for money; continued.

Mc. Mitchell vs. D. F. Weatherford; action for money; settled and dismissed.

Board of School Land Commissioners vs. W. S. Smith et al., S. T. Richardson, made party defendant.

S. F. Chadwick appointed guardian minor heirs.

Katharine Buehheit vs. Ludwig Buehheit; divorce; default, Louis Tarpley referee to take and report testimony.

Azela Kirkland vs. Byron Kirkland; divorce; continued.

Ames vs. Libby; confirmation; confirmed.

Williams & England vs. F. H. Ogle et al.; confirmation; confirmed.

Board of school Fund Commissioners vs. J. R. Coleman; confirmation; confirmed.

State of Oregon vs. F. A. Berning, arraigned, pleads guilty—fined $10 and costs.

Apparently in Cretes.

It has often and only too truly been said that great calamities and misfortunes never come singly, but are grouped together.

One of yesterday's specials noted the circumstance of John Hentz of Silverton having read the account of another Silverton suicide and remarking that he would be the next to go.

Fire the Foot-pads.

From Tacoma, Seattle and Walla Walla, in Washington territory, and from numerous cities in Oregon, especially Albany, come complaints of the doings of footpads and thieves of high and low degree.

Malkuer's Assessment Roll.

The assessor of Malheur county has filed with the secretary of state the assessment lists for 1888, from which we glean:

The docket as set for supreme court this week is as follows:

Tuesday, in the matter of the assignment of Julius Levy, Ira F. Powers, assignee, Multnomah Co.

Wednesday, A. C. Lambert, appellant, vs. Rose G. Lambert, respondent, Multnomah county.

Thursday, E. C. Cross, et al., respondents, vs. Mary L. Baskett, et al., appellants Polk county.

F. M. Conn has a band of thirty-two fine young horses which he will offer for sale cheap during the next few days.

LOCAL SUMMARY.

County court holds a session to-morrow.

Ponoma grange meets to-morrow in regular session.

Miss Pearl Scott has been chosen as music teacher for the institute for the blind.

Some of Salem's printers are trying to organize a typographical union here.

The state railroad commission are in session, Commissioners Waggoner and Slater having arrived here yesterday.

Wm. Leitch and Frank Bennett, picked up under the vagrant act, get respectively fifteen and twelve days in the cooler.

Yesterday there was brought to the asylum from Baker county a young farmer named Frank Jenkins who has been insane for the past few months.

D. L. Moody, the great evangelist is expected to pass through here to-morrow, en route to Victoria. He will stop a day in Portland, and be tendered a reception at the tabernacle Wednesday evening.

It would seem that Sunday had been set aside as a day of self-destruction, two persons in this county having ended their own lives on Sunday of last week and one on Sunday of this.

It might not be inappropriate to suggest to those folks who secure marriage licenses a few days ahead with the request, "don't let it be published," that a good way to buy the newspaper off is with a dose of cake, et al.

"Unknown" will be presented next Tuesday evening at Reed's opera house—it is not unknown to the people of Salem that S. Farrar & Co. keeps the largest and best assortment of staple and fancy groceries in the city.

Salem's citizens were glad to learn by yesterday's JOURNAL that we are soon to have a steam laundry established here. Mr. Williams tells us he will be ready for business as soon after he secures the contemplated room as is possible.

McCune, the aged father of young McCune who shot Bewly at Sheridan during the quarantine, is still quite ill from the effects of the wound received. It will be remembered he was struck on the head with a rock during the excitement.

The immense dow pumps at the penitentiary, put up by J. A. McCarr, engineer of the insane asylum and at the expense of and for the benefit of that institution, were started up to-day and are working to a charm. They are run by water power.

For an evening's social enjoyment you should go to the social at the Christian church Friday. Miss Belle Stuart will give some of her most entertaining elocutionary pieces, and Miss Margaret Macrum, of the Boston conservatory of music will sing. Also a miscellaneous programme.

Michael Cunningham of Portland, and a native of Ireland, 38 years old, is insane and was committed to the asylum yesterday. He is homicidal and suicidal in his tendencies, is subject to epileptic fits and owing to his violent disposition had to be confined in a straight-jacket at St. Vincent's hospital.

PERSONALS.

N. L. Butler of Dallas is in the city to-day.

Hon. J. D. Lee of Dallas, is in Salem to-day.

State Printer Baker has returned from Portland.

J. R. Bryson of Corvallis came down this morning.

J. J. Daly a prominent Dallas lawyer is here attending court.

Wm. Myer of Ellsworth, Kansas, is looking around in this part of the county.

President Van Scoy's wife has been spending a few days visiting with her parents, at their home.

Rev. H. B. Elworthy, of Brownsville, formerly principal of the South Salem school, was in the city yesterday, on business.

Mrs. C. F. Royal, and her daughter, Mrs. Skipworth, are visiting friends and relatives in Washington county and in Portland.

Pratt Banquet.

The State chairman asks us to state that all prohibs proposing to attend the Mechanics' fair, should do so next week and attend the Pratt banquet in Portland, Wednesday, Oct. 17th.

Exc-Gov. Newell, and ex-Chief Justice Greene, the prohibition nominee for congress, of Washington Territory, are expected among the speakers. Railroad tickets half fare.

OCCIDENTAL JOTTINGS.

News And Notes of a General Interest to the Westerner.

Geo. Flavel is Clatsop's heaviest tax payer. The amount is $126,238.

It costs about $500 a month to run the water works system of Pendleton.

The "Bunchgrass Blade" has been discontinued, and the "Lexington Budget" has succeeded it.

The earliest date of killing frost in Portland was October 14; latest, December 6, and average, November 11th.

In Jackson county the picking of winter apples has begun, and the crop is reported good in nearly every part of the valley.

The citizens of Tillamook county are actively engaged in opening a wagon road up the Wilson river and over the mountains.

A Yamhill county man harvested from 24 acres of ground 2300 bushels of oats this season. If any one can beat that let him speak.

The editor of the Harney Items has shipped by the silvery beams of the moon, leaving his landlady to mourn his sudden departure.

A Scappoose man claims to have the prize sunflower of the country. It is over ten feet in height and the flower is 42 inches in circumference.

In Clackamas county hogs are scarce and in demand, and there are farmers who haven't one. The average price for stock hogs is $5 per 100 weight.

At Oregon City on an apple tree whose fruit ripened in June, a second crop of apples has appeared in clusters, and they are now as large as chestnuts.

Manager Wm. M. Hoag says that the tunnel contract was let the first of the week to Meyer & Co. The tunnel is to be something over four hundred feet in length.

Oregon has a woman mail carrier. Her name is Miss Minnie Westman and she carries mail from the head of navigation on Siuslaw river over the Coast range of mountains, following up the river, to Hales post-office station, within fifteen miles of Eugene.

The first earload of pears to be shipped direct from Ashland to Chicago will leave about the 18th inst. They will be chiefly of the Winter Nellis variety, but a few pound-pears, will be included. This event introduces a new era in the fruit business. Next fall it may be expected to see a number of earloads of pears shipped East.

A farmer in Wallowa county, has succeeded in raising a monster squash, weighing 183 pounds. He took it to the town of Joseph for exhibition, and no sooner had it arrived there than it was made the object of a political bet. If Cleveland is elected a prominent business man of Joseph has agreed to roll the squash to Enterprise, a distance of several miles; and in case Harrison is elected Charles Allman has agreed to do the same thing.

NOSMOUTH.

The State Normal school is in full blast, doing fine work under President Stanley and a full corps of able teachers.

Stanley's bank is doing a good business and proves an appreciated accommodation to the town and vicinity.

Elder Webb of Salem gave his celebrated lecture, full of instruction, wit and pathos. "Nails in his coffin," to a large audience in the college chapel, on last Monday night.

On the Stanley addition to the business portion of the city, south of and adjoining his residence, a large store and hall are going up. A big hotel is also projected. On the same block a large well is being dug and a windmill and tank will supply all the buildings with water. A number of new houses are going up.

Independence.

Low Robertson's new brick building is looming up grandly.

The West Side Press is in excellent running order, and editor, compositor, reporter and job printer busy in their new quarters, in the brick block.

Mrs. Steeves deserves much praise in her band of hope work. It meets every Monday afternoon, and Monday there were nearly forty boys and girls present.

When a fact confronts a free trader it does not bother him at all, for he simply ignores it and substitutes his theory for the real condition which confronts him.

NEW TO-DAY.

Cloaks! Cloaks! Cloaks!

WE HAVE RECEIVED OUR—

NEW STOCK OF CLOAKS AND SEAL PLUSH WRAPS

Direct from the East, every garment having been made to order for us.

FINE NEW STOCK OF—

Dress Goods and Trimmings, Flannels, Blankets; New Stock of Carpets, Rugs, Portiers, Shades and Lace Curtains.

The public are cordially invited to inspect our mammoth stock.

J. M. ROSENBERG & CO., White Corner.

H. K. DuBOIS, JON DuBOIS,

DuBOIS BROS.,

Proprietors—

Chemekete Hotel.

FREE BUS.

Sample Rooms for Commercial Travelers.

From $1 to $3 per day.

SALEM - - - OREGON.

10-4-11

For Sale.

A good iron frame Horse Power. Good for all uses, from one to full capacity. All for the low price of $30. Call at the Pacific Cider, Vinegar & Fruit Preserving Company's office, Salem, Oregon.

School Tax Notice.

THE SCHOOL TAXES OF DISTRICT No. 24 in Marion county are now due and collectible at the office of the clerk, in the open house on Court street, Salem, and must be paid by the first of December, or become delinquent. DAVID SIMPSON, Clerk. October 30, '88. 10-3-dw2w

M. M. MEAD, PRACTICAL CUTLER

Filing Saws a Specialty.

Shop on the alley, opposite Minto's Livestock Stable, Salem, Or.

THE SANITARIUM

For the treatment of all diseases of men and women

DRS. GILBERT & WEMP

Medicated vapor baths, oxygen inhalations, electric magnetism, medicated sprays, etc. Office and sanitarium in the Bank block. Consultation free. 10-3-dw

A. E. STRANG,

No. 302 Commercial Street,

SALEM, - - - OREGON.

DEALER IN—

STOVES and RANGES

Plumbing, Gas and Steam Fitting.

Tinware and Artistic Metal Work a Specialty.

Agent for the RICHARDSON & BOYNTON COMPANY'S Furnaces. Established 12 1849

LOWEST PRICES,

BEST GOODS.

Smith's Auction House.

GENERAL OUTFITTERS—

Goods on the installment plan.

SALEM - - - - - OREGON.

FOR SALE OR TO RENT ON IRASOON. A fine ten-room good upright piano. For particulars call at 555 Chemekete St. 10-4

EDUCATIONAL.

WILLAMETTE UNIVERSITY

Graduates Students in

Classical, Literary, Scientific,

Normal, Business, Law,

—AND—

MEDICAL COURSES.

It is the oldest, largest and least expensive institution of learning in the Northwest. School opens first Monday in September. Send for catalogue to THOS. VAN SCOY, President, Salem, Oregon.

17

SELECT SCHOOL.

MISS KNOX

Will continue Her School for the ensuing year at the LITTLE CENTRAL SCHOOL BUILDING, Cor. Church and Marion Sts., beginning

SEPTEMBER 10.

10-4-dw

ST. PAUL'S SCHOOL,

Boys and Girls.

The school will open on the 20th of September. Thorough instruction in the primary and advanced

English Branches.

LATIN AND ELEMENTS OF MUSIC

In course.

TERMS and further information may be had on application to REV. F. H. POST, Cor. Chemekete and State Sts. 8-29-87

CONSERVATORY OF MUSIC!

Willamette University.

Most successful school of music on the northwest coast. About 150 STUDENTS LAST YEAR.

—Courses in—

Piano, Organ, Singing, Violin, Harmony, and Counterpoint.

Diplomas on completion of course. Teachers: Z. M. Parvin, Franklin P. Jones, Eva Cook, Assistant, Lulu M. Smith. First term begins Monday, September 20, 1888. Send for catalogue. For further particulars address

Z. M. PARVIN, Musical Director, Salem, Or. 8-17-dw-w

GREAT DISCOVERY!

Dr. H. SMITH

—IS—

Now in possession of a new discovery in medicine, which is purely a I send a medicine, and acts almost instantaneously on the surrounding tissues of the teeth. It is in no way injurious or unpleasant to the taste. The manufacturers of it claim that its equal has never been known before, and by applying it to the sensitive or sore teeth they can be cleaned and filled without pain. Send those that want all kinds of dental work done without pain, would better call on Dr. H. Smith. Teeth extracted for 50 cents.

—Call and See—

T. J. CRONISE,

Salem's Popular Job Printer,

AT HIS NEW QUARTERS IN THE State Insurance Building, Cor. Commercial and Chemekete streets. 10-17