The decaying maple leaves on the sidewalk make a very good substitute for the historic orange peel.

The Father of Waters is as yet unweaved by bridges south of the mouth of the Ohio, but the steamboat men are not long to escape harrassment in this respect, as work is about to be commenced upon a great bridge at Memphis for the Kansas City, Fort Scott & Memphis railway system.

The Glasgow papers have been filled this week with an interesting breach of promise case between well-known society people. A smoker received a letter from his sweetheart, in which she said: "You must choose between me and your cigars." He continued to smoke, and the engagement was broken. The court decided in the young man's favor.

JOHN RANDOLPH used to declare that he would go a mile out of his way to kick a sheep. His political successors seem to have inherited his spite against these innocent and harmless animals. Having seen the effect of the reduction of the tariff on wool effected by the tariff act of March 3, 1883, in reducing the total of sheep in the United States from fifty and a half millions to forty-four and three-fourths millions, the Mills Bill, by making wool free, seems determined to render this race of animals extinct in this country. What is the cause of this? Is it unreasoning hatred for this inoffensive animal or, as they punish Dakota republican sentiments by refusing her admission to the union of the states, do they also intend to punish the western states for their stalwart republicanism by this attack upon one of their chief industries while fostering and protecting rice and sugar? It looks like it. The average democrat has no use for wool except to pull it over the eyes of the people, and for this purpose desire it free.

Every four years the public school book question agitates the public mind. That time has again come round, and the school superintendent in the various counties will soon take a vote, and the force of selecting the best books will be at an end for another short period. The heads of families—those who furnish the books for their children—should have something to say in this matter, and the legislature should make some enactment to remedy the matter. Books that are adopted by the state should be well and substantially made—printed on first-class paper, with good type, etc. The price should not be so exorbitant that the price of the books alone should bar any one from obtaining a good public school education.

A REFORM SCHOOL.

Admiral Porter, in his annual report to the secretary of the navy, says he regards the apprentice system as one of the best features of the navy, and in that connection the report runs thus:
 "The crews of our ships are generally made up of sailors from every part of the world, but mostly the Scandinavian race, good reliable men in time of peace, who care little under what flag they sail; they have no sentiment for our flag or nationality, and possibly, if it came to an action with a ship of their own or neighboring nation, they would haul down the American colors and hoist their own. This is a contingency against which we should provide, and we have means of doing so through the vast number of American boys who are roaming the streets at will, and who would consider government employment a boon. What is required is a larger number of native-born apprentice boys, and the enlargement of the conveniences for their introduction into the service.
 This would prove a most excellent reform school for many a wayward boy, and would qualify him for a useful and profitable life. The government should provide recruiting posts in the various states, where these youths could enter the service."

The telegraph tells discouraging stories of affairs in the western portion of Kansas. Whole counties are being depopulated, the people either going to Colorado or back to the Eastern states. For three years the people have raised no crops.
 These counties comprise what the old '49ers called the Great Plains, and are absolutely good for nothing except stock raising. The people have been compelled to leave or starve. In Scott county there were 4000 people two years ago. To-day there are not more than 450. Many of the emigrants to our favored clime are from Kansas, and tell many tales of privation and suffering. Those are fortunate who leave while they yet have money enough on which to get away.

In response to a recently published letter of Powderly, requesting an expression of opinion by local assemblies as to the necessity for congressional legislation on the subject of trusts, local assembly 1233 has sent a letter to congress, demanding immediate legislation to abolish all institutions that gamble in food, and in further protection to the masses, that all trusts be abolished.

C. A. PILLSBURY, the big Minneapolis miller, is a bull on wheat, and declares the price will yet touch two dollars. He now has on hand about a half a million bushels, nearly a third of which is in his own elevators. He does not hold anything in Chicago, and simply says "it's a short crop," when asked why he is a bull.

The managers of the Southern and Central Pacific railways propose to bridge Carquinez straits, and thus effect an entrance to San Francisco without a big transport. The exact location has not yet been decided on, but it is believed it will be North Vallejo or Vallejo Junction.

This is always desirable, and the speeder it takes place the better. Doubtly welcome is it in the case of those un-industrious little organs, the kidneys, which, when they go on a strike—so to speak—and drop work, seriously imperil health to more than one way. First and foremost, their function begets their disease, which is hydronephrosis, including such dangerous maladies as Bright's disease and diabetes. Next, when they are inactive they fail to assist in removing from the blood impurities that begot rheumatism, gout and dropsy. Third, their inaction weakens the bladder. All this is preventable and remediable by the pleasant promoter of organic action, Hostetter's Stomach Bitters, at once a tonic and regulator. This gently but effectually impels the kidneys to return to duty, and strengthens them and the bladder, upon the bowels, stomach and liver it likewise exerts a regulating and invigorating influence, and it strengthens the system, and averts and remedies malaria and rheumatism.

Adam Messler is convalescing.
 Grant Martin and wife of Mehama are visiting friends and relatives here.
 Marion Loftis has his house well under way and it will soon be completed.

Walter Sapp passed through Turner on his way home from Lewiston, Idaho.

Joe Fryrear of Black Butte, Crook county, is stopping in Turner for a few days.

Rev. Calder of the M. E. church has moved to Turner to take charge of the Turner and Jefferson circuit.

Turner is badly afflicted with tramps. There are quite a lot lounging around the depot every day.

Green Cornelius Jr., left for home last week. He is engaged in the stock business in northwest Idaho, near St. Mary river.

Mrs. Mattie Morris of Turner, Miss Mary Condit and Annie Neal of West Stayton returned from the Mechanics' fair last evening.

Silvers and Shupper are back from the O. P. front where they have been hauling freight. They report progress in construction.

Our village is lively this fall. A great deal of freight is handled here for the O. P.; also Turner is chief shipping point for Aumsville, Stayton and Mehama.

Several small bets have been made on the coming election. An enthusiastic Tippe bet five dollars on a 7000 majority, then five that he would win the bet, and another amount on the general result.

Queen Natalie has sent a protest against the divorce granted to King Milan to the Greek orthodox synod of Bucharest and Athens, to the holy synod of St. Petersburg and to ecumenical patriarch of Constantinople.

"Her Age Cannot With Her." Remarked an old gentleman, as he gazed fondly upon the comely little woman by his side; "but frankly," he continued, "at one time I thought cosmetics would." The silly little woman, in order to appear youthful, plastered her face with different varieties of whitewash, yecelp, "blams," "creams," "lotion," &c. "Yes!" interrupted the little woman, "I did, until my skin became like parchment, and so pimply and coarse." "Well," said the listener, "what do you use now?"
 "Use," was the reply, "nothing but common sense, and Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery. Common sense told me if my blood was pure, liver regulated, appetite good, that the outward woman would take on the hue of health. The 'Discovery' did all those things, and actually rejuvenated me." Its thousands of cures are the best advertisement for Dr. Sage's Catarrh Remedy.
