AN EFFICIENT WORKER.

New York Mail and Express: We have taken great pleasure in referring to the services of the republicans who have most to do in the management of the late campaign, National and State.

This able, patient, courageous, and unselfish worker was Mr. Albert Griffin, the organizer and chairman of the National Anti-Saloon Republican Committee, who for years past has given all his time and energies to the task of so guiding the temperance elements of the republican party.

Mr. Griffin deserves the gratitude of every temperance man and woman in the land, and especially of the republicans who are so nobly represented by Warner Miller.

THE LATE MRS. SHERMAN.

Gen. Boynton's Washington dispatch in Cincinnati Commercial Gazette: The death of Mrs. General Sherman causes widespread and most sincere sorrow in Washington.

She was the most prominent Catholic woman in the United States. There was no more devoted Christian in that organization than Mrs. Sherman.

ness. The rich and those decorated with social rank respected her. The poor loved her. And so all classes in Washington will stand as true mourners by her grave.

Cincinnati Commercial Gazette: Mrs. Ellen Ewing Sherman, the wife of General William Tecumseh Sherman, was Thomas Ewing's daughter, and he was one of the giants among Ohio men. When Judge Sherman died, leaving a large group of little children, with very slender resources, Mr. Ewing adopted Tecumseh and sent him to West Point, and Lieutenant Sherman married his benefactor's daughter, Ellen, who inherited many great qualities, and joined with extraordinary mental capacity a beautiful womanly tenderness.

Thomas Ewing lived not only to see his own sons distinguished, but to see his adopted son and son-in-law, one of the foremost military men of the age, ride at the head of the army of the West through Pennsylvania avenue, returning from the march to the sea, through the Carolinas and Virginia, victory declared, peace proclaimed, and the name of Sherman written on the roll of the immortals.

Mrs. Sherman was a woman of deep religious sensibility, profound conviction and absolute sincerity, and in her heart there was no faltering or misgiving. All religious truth was to her as sunshine. She walked in the sublime faith of the reality of the unknown, and in her consciousness grasped not hopes only, but looked far out upon certainties, and the shores of the unseen world were as palpable to her as the solid earth.

She was a lady whose simplicity was the evidence of her cultivation, and whose devotion to her husband and children was as admirable as if her whole life was absorbed in her relations of wife and mother. It was her happiness to be the comfort and consolation of the General in the troubles of his stormy life, and no man ever had companion more lovely or champion more vigilant than she, and her share in his glory was always beautiful, and is the soft light in the splendor of his fame.

P. S.—The wedding of Lieutenant Thomas Ewing, secretary of the Interior, was May 1, 1850. Among the guests were President Taylor, Daniel Webster, and Henry Clay.

HARRISON SINCE ELECTION.

General Harrison since the election has deepened the impression he made on the country during the campaign. No candidate in the long history of our presidential elections has spoken oftener, more freely or more fully during his canvass. For weeks he was daily before the people with a speech which was the next morning before the 4,000,000 voters in reach of the daily press of the country. Every speech helped him and the cause for which he was a standard-bearer. Not one contained a word or a sentence which was used to his injury. Neither the malice of his enemies nor the ingenuity of partisan opponents could find text or pretext for attack in these speeches, whose collected bulk would fill a volume. If ever a presidential candidate made his own calling and election sure by his own efforts, General Harrison did it in these speeches, which began with his nomination and ended a fortnight before his triumphant election.

But if General Harrison showed he could talk before election, he has shown that he could hold his tongue since then. Visited by hundreds, sought by scores, closeted with conspicuous men by the dozen, a centre of the press, the pressure and the pertinacious petitions which beat about a president-elect, General Harrison has made no mistakes. He has grown daily before the country. His reticence, poise and prudence have impressed all. He has blundered into none of the sentiment which marred the first post-election month of some of his recent predecessors. He has made no pledges. He has avoided political entanglements. We hear nothing of any Indianapolis "conference." The Cabinet-makers are at sea. The gossip vendors bring away nothing from the modest home in which the next President has passed so many hard-working years.

A Write-up of Salem.

An early number of the Overland Monthly will contain a descriptive article on Salem and surrounding country. This magazine is among the first. A. Peringer is the agent for Salem, and orders left at Starr's for him will receive careful and

A man who has practiced medicine for 40 years, ought to know salt from sugar; read what he says.

TOLEDO, O., Jan. 10, 1887. Messrs. F. J. Cheney & Co.—Gentlemen:—I have been in the general practice of medicine for most 40 years, and would say that in all my practice and experience, have never seen a preparation that I could prescribe with as much confidence of success as I can Hall's Catarrh Cure, manufactured by you.

Have prescribed it a great many times and its effect is wonderful, and would say in conclusion that I have yet to find a case of catarrh that it would not cure, if they would take it according to directions.

Yours Truly, L. L. GORSUCH, M. D. Office, 215 Summit St.

We will give $100 for any case of catarrh that cannot be cured with Hall's Catarrh Cure. Taken internally. F. J. CHENY & CO. Toledo, O. Sold by druggists, 75c.

Salem is progressing as well as Oregon and the valley.

A Sound Legal Opinion.

E. Bainbridge Munday Esq., County Atty., Clay Co., Tex., says: "Have used Electric Bitters with most happy results. My brother also was very low with Malarial Fever and Jaundice, but was cured by timely use of this medicine. Am satisfied Electric Bitters saved his life."

Mr. D. I. Wilcoxson, of Horse Cave, Ky., adds a like testimony, saying: "He positively believes he would have died, had it not been for Electric Bitters."

This great remedy will ward off, as well as cure all Malarial Diseases, and for all Kidney, Liver and Stomach Disorders stands unequalled. Price 50c, and $1, at Dr. H. W. Cox's Drug Store.

The tide of immigration has set in earnestly.

TO CONSUMPTIVES.

The undersigned having been restored to health by simple means, after suffering several years with a severe lung affection, and that dread disease consumption, is anxious to make known to his fellow sufferers the means of cure. To those who desire it, he will cheerfully send (free of charge) a copy of the prescription used, which they will find a sure cure for consumption, catarrh, asthma, bronchitis, and all throat and lung maladies. He hopes all sufferers will try his remedy, as it is invaluable. Those desiring the prescription, which will cost them nothing, and may prove their salvation, will please address Roy, New York.

The newcomers are all delighted with our country.

Nipped in the Bud.

Is it not better to nip consumption, the greatest scourge of humanity, in the bud, than to try to stay its progress on the brink of the grave. A few doses of California's most useful production, SANTA ABIA, the king of Consumption, will relieve, and a thorough treatment will cure. Nasal Catarrh, too often the forerunner of consumption, can be cured by CALIFORNIA CATR-CURE. These remedies are sold and fully warranted by D. W. Matthews & Co., 106 State Street, Salem, Oregon, at $1, or three for $2.50.

New orchards are being planted all about us.

Reasoning from a Sound Text.

Say the doctors—and who shall say them?—a special predisposition seems to result to the development of rheumatism. Where there is this tendency, most of us know from observation what a deep hold disease takes when once incurred and neglected for a short time. Is not this a sound text, then from which to advocate the early use of Hostetter's Stomach Bitters in a malady so hard to dislodge as rheumatism? Another thing. It is well ascertained that a falling off in vigor, resulting from indigestion and mal-nutrition, increases liability to rheumatism. What then is more likely to act as preventative than this potent restorer of the gastric troubles that increase the rheumatic tendency? Malaria, constipation, dyspepsia, biliousness, debility and kidney troubles succumb to this genial preventative and remedy.

Oregon beats the world for fine weather.

The city authority of The Dalles pay a bounty for dog scalps.

Don't Experiment.

You cannot afford to waste time in experimenting when your lungs are in danger. Do not permit any dealer to impose upon you with some imitation of Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, Coughs and Colds, but be sure you get the genuine. Because he can make more profit he may tell you he has something just as good, or just the same. Don't be deceived, but insist upon getting Dr. King's New Discovery, which is guaranteed to give relief in all Throat, Lung and Chest affections. Trial bottles free at Dr. H. W. Cox's drug store. Large bottles $1.

Welcome the boom by assisting all deserving enterprises.
