TWO WARSHIPS COLLIDE.

British Battleship Sinks off Tripoli.

GOES DOWN WITH 400 MEN.

Sir George Tyrone, K. C. B. Vice-Admiral Lost—21 Officers Drowned.

LONDON, June 23.—A frightful calamity has befallen the British battleship Victoria, flagship of the Mediterranean squadron, and hundreds of lives have been lost. The Victoria, which flew the flag of Vice-Admiral Sir George Tyrone, K. C. B., was run into off Tripoli by the British battleship Camperdown, also belonging to Mediterranean squadron, and under command of Capt. Charles Johnston. The Victoria had an enormous hole in her side in which the water poured in torrents. Before those on board could cast loose their small boats she went to the bottom, carrying down with her nearly all on board. Some of the officers and crew managed to get out of suction caused by the sinking vessel and were rescued.

Among those lost are Vice-Admiral Tyrone. First reports of disaster stated about 200 men had been drowned but later dispatches show the loss of life far greater, not less than four hundred. The Admiralty received a telegram from Tripoli, Syria, under date of today as follows: "While maneuvering off Tripoli this afternoon the Victoria and Camperdown collided. Victoria sank in 15 minutes in 18 fathoms of water. She lies bottom uppermost. Twenty-one officers drowned. Two hundred and fifty-five men saved." The injury to the Camperdown is not yet fully ascertained, but it is serious and will necessitate her going on dock for repairs.

The vessel carried 600 officers and men, 107 marines.

Another Out.

CHICAGO, June 23.—The Great Northern has made another out in trans-continental rates as follows: From St. Paul, Minneapolis and Duluth to Spokane, Seattle, Tacoma, Vancouver and North Pacific coast points $25 first-class and $18 second class, to be effective June 25, and apply in both directions. The Northern Pacific lost no time in meeting the rates and will put them in effect the same date. The Great Northern also decided to place on sale commencing July 1, 3,000-mile tickets good for one year for $75, tickets to be good over the entire system, the Sioux City & Northern and over the Canadian Pacific between Neche and Winnipeg. The Western Passenger association, which is greatly disturbed by the actions of the Great Northern, will meet June 27th to take suitable action. The opinion among general passenger agents is that the Union Pacific will not enter the fight, preferring rather to abandon Montana business.

In Nicaragua.

MANAGUA, Nicaragua, June 23.—General Augustine Layiz has been appointed commander-in-chief of the Nicaragua army. Official letters recalling Minister Guzman from Washington have been signed and sealed. Minister Guzman's intimation that the Nicaragua Canal company backed the revolutionists and furnished money to help them along are declared to be without foundation. Minister Guzman's brother denies the story that he has been recalled on account of the statement.

Prepared for Robbers.

TOPEKA, Kan., June 23.—The Arkansas City and Caldwell banks are still guarded by armed men in anticipation of a raid by Indian territory desperadoes. The cause of the alarm was appearance on the streets of Arkansas City of eight well-armed men whom no one seemed to know, but who bore the appearance of being night riders from the territory about four miles distant. When the citizens armed themselves, the gang, withdrew and went into camp on Grouse creek, where they were joined by half a dozen others. As they have permitted no one to come near their camp, their purpose is only guessed. Owing to the frequent robberies by men from the Indian territory, Arkansas City and Caldwell business men determined to be fully prepared, and they are guarding not only their banks, but all the business houses carrying considerable sums of money. The report reached here this afternoon that the gang, now composed of a dozen men, was moving westward in the line of Caldwell.

The Behring Sea Arbitration Proceedings.

A NUMBER OF VISITORS PRESENT.

Great Scarcity of Fodder in the Rhine Provinces.

Paris, June 23.—A large number of visitors were present at the session of the Behring sea tribunal of arbitration. Among those who listened to the proceedings was Hon. James B. Easton, American ambassador to France. Hon. E. J. Phelps, of counsel for the United States, opened his argument in behalf of the contention of the United States, and his address was a brilliant one. He said that the case presented only two main questions: Have the Canadians and the renegade Americans, who adopted the British flag in order to defy the laws of their own country, the right to continue destroying the seal species? and, if so, what regulations are necessary to prevent the extermination of the seals? Other questions might be involved, but they were merely incidental. America headed the claims that the indiscriminate destruction of the seals, including the slaughter of the gravid animals proceeding towards the Pribiloff islands, the herding grounds, and of the mothers seeking food at sea, is inhuman, barbarous and a violation of the laws of all civilized nations for the protection of wild animals in their breeding season. Such slaughter, he contended, must eventually result in extinguishing a valuable industry, established for nearly a century by Russia, and maintained by the United States in the cession of Alaska to the United States by the Russian government. The British claimed the right to exterminate the species for the sake of a temporary profit. They do not meet the question as to whether the right existed, but exhaust the resources of the ablest advocacy to evade it. The British counsel approached the question in every direction except a straightforward one. They pretended to inquire if the United States were justified in seizing British vessels engaged in seal hunting. Mr. Phelps declared there was no such question before the tribunal. The arbitrators were not concerned in the question of past seizures, except as to the finding of the necessary facts on which to base further negotiations. Counsel having agreed upon the facts, the tribunal ought to dismiss the matter of the seizures.

Drouth in Holland.

THE HAGUE, June 23.—The drouth continues throughout Holland. The municipal authorities have been instructed to take steps to provide drinking water, which in some villages costs a penny a pail. The dearth of water is greatest in the northern districts, where a fodder famine has caused the sale of livestock at any price. In spite of the drouth, however, winter crops of wheat and rye are satisfactory, especially in Limburg. Grain crops are fairly good in the northern provinces. Oats are very backward. Of potatoes there will be a small crop of good quality. Even with copious rainfalls now the hay crop will prove deficient.

Epidemic of Suicide.

VIENNA, June 23.—A suicide of epidemic has broken out in Buda Pesth and other Hungarian towns. Seven cases of suicide were reported at Buda Pesth yesterday. Cases of insanity are increasing. This is attributed to drinking poisonous concoctions substituted for wine, which became scarce through the ravages of phylloxera. Ignata Abels, a Jewish recruit, committed suicide at Vienna yesterday, on account of ill treatment to which he was subjected by petty officers. The authorities have ordered an inquiry into the affair.

Riot at Vienna.

VIENNA, June 23.—Great excitement has been caused at Andrychow by the rioting socialists. The mob had full possession of the place for a time and a large number of shops were pillaged. The military finally intervened and some of the rioters were killed and a number wounded.

Ordered Extradited.

VICTORIA, June 23.—Extradition proceedings in the case of Rev. A. R. Reams, pastor of the Methodist church south of Merced, Cal., who ran away with Lucy Rucker, daughter of one of the deacons of the church, closed yesterday and the court ordered that Reams be committed for extradition.

Speaks of His Partner.

NEW YORK, June 23.—Referring to the death of Senator Stanford, Mr. C. P. Huntington said: "We are deeply pained to hear of his death. He was the last of my old partners in building and operating railroads, and I deeply feel his loss. Our business connections run back for 30 years, and our acquaintance for over 40 years. In business matters we never had a jar in all the years of our association. We did differ in respect to some political matters, but as to those we agreed to differ. But the leaf was turned down upon all those differences a long time ago, and our personal relations remained undisturbed at the time of his death."

Man Killed.

TACOMA, June 23.—An unknown man was run into and killed by the west-bound Northern Pacific express train a mile and a half east of South Prairie. The man was setting close to the rail on a trestle when the train came around a curve. The attempt to stop the train was unsuccessful. The body was brought here.

Scarcity of Fodder.

BERLIN, June 23.—At a meeting of Wurtemberg peasants a petition to the king was framed asking him to convoke the landtag and ask a grant for the purchase of fodder abroad and its distribution among the peasants on credit. In Hesse the landtag has been summoned to meet for a similar purpose. Along the Rhine and in Hesse-Nassau the greatest scarcity prevails. The price of hay has risen 8, 9 and in some places 10 shillings per hundredweight. From Strasburg it is reported meat is selling at such prices that the peasant farmers have been forced to slaughter their cattle. It is feared the result will be a meat famine in 1894. In many places cattle have been starved to death. The Frankfurt Zeitung suggests the customs duties on fodder be repealed, and the government make a vigorous effort to enable the people to preserve their stock cattle in the event of a famine, before it is too late.
