

THE CAPITAL JOURNAL

PUBLISHED DAILY, EXCEPT SUNDAY, BY THE Capital Journal Publishing Company.

HOFER BROTHERS, Editors.

THE ONE CENT DAILY.

The One Cent Daily newspaper is encouraging the formation of the reading habit in homes where little reading was ever done before.

In homes where the reading habit is not established among the children there is ignorance, idleness, untidiness, and the people live more like animals than humans.

THE ONE CENT DAILY is the electric light that dispenses ignorance. Try it.

SUGGESTED COMMENT.

Get in to your proper state at the States picnic.

Aspenville people have got their strawberry crop harvested and will celebrate.

The Woman's Relief Corps will take a ten cent tea with Captain Sarah Jones, 275 High a street, Friday evening.

Lowering the American flag to half mast on the railroad depots was one of the tributes of respect shown the deceased multi-millionaire Stanford, president of the Southern Pacific.

The Corvallis Masonic Temple will be built. As soon as the meetings of the several lodges there can be held the financial arrangements will be made and the work will go ahead.

Crop Notes.

Oregon strawberries were quoted at Seattle yesterday $1.25 to $1.50 a crate. New potatoes $1.25 a cwt. Good fresh eggs 22 cts.

Hop quotations: New York 19 to 22c. London, steady at 24 to 26 and 28 to 32 lb.

Wool is 5 cents lower than last year at this time.

Eugene Register: Some of the prominent prune growers of this county had been doubtful about the prune crop for some time, but an examination of the orchards now shows the trees well laden and the prospects are much better.

FROM BROOKS.

M. L. Jones went to Portland Thursday. Dr. Hensel and wife went to Salem Monday.

See El Shaw at Brooks if you want a span of six young mules 3 years old.

John Brooks left for Yaquina Tuesday.

Mr. Walker of McCoy visited with J. Fruit Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Darling of Washington, parents of Mrs. Sam Jones, came Monday on a visit.

Big Winnings on a Small Stake.

A group of men were standing in the office of one of the leading hotels recently, and the talk turned to gambling and gamblers.

"What I am going to relate took place in New Orleans in 1868. A neatly dressed, quiet mannered fellow accosted me in the office of the St. Charles hotel and wanted to borrow $20.

He had been in New Orleans a week and had 'gone broke.' He said he felt like he could win if I could only lend him a 'stake.'

After some persuasion I let him have the money, with the understanding that I was to have half of his winnings, and that as soon as he had won enough to take care of himself he should pull out my half.

I took care of him for a few days, and after reading a little while I went to my room and went to sleep.

"About 1 o'clock in the morning a boy came to my room, woke me up and handed me a package. It contained $200 and a note from Corey saying it was my half of the winnings, and that I could take it or send it back to be played on as I chose.

I thought $200 on a $20 investment was pretty good, so I put the money in my pocket and decided to let well enough alone. The first thing I heard the next morning was that Corey had won $5,000.

He kept on playing and in 24 hours had won, all told, $16,000. I did not see him for a good many years after that, and when I met him again he had plenty of money. The second meeting was our last, and I have not heard a word from him since."—Louisville Courier-Journal.

Each Girl Has One True Friend.

In England, as we have been told, there is a "Girl's Letter Guild," having a membership of over 5,000 persons.

Of this number 3,000 are girls. The remaining names on the list are those of lady correspondents and honorary members, who control and carry out the provisions of parties who have inaugurated so beneficent an institution, giving by letter advice and help to this expectant crowd, and it is so arranged that each girl member of this guild shall have one true friend to whom she may safely open her heart, and to whom she may appeal for suggestion and aid in any emergency.

What a merciful plan for the many not knowing which way to turn in seasons of uncertainty and trial!

May it not be accepted among us as a timely suggestion, by which many a young woman may receive sympathy and be led by the one true friend to whom her name has been assigned to such advancement as shall secure at least an honest independence and bring into some stunted life a brightness never dreamed of?

The very fact of such a friendship correspondence that will enter heartily into one's joys and sorrows, that can kindly offer suggestions without fear of offense, is itself an education.—Harper's Bazar.

The Fashion in Necklaces.

Necklaces grow more elaborate, and old-fashioned chains with lockets are again revived, which is a mercy now that the fashionable bodice uncovers so much of the average unloveliness of the feminine neck and shoulders.

Call them Venus kissing places or saucers, what you will, the depressions above the shoulder blades are less noticeable with some kind of necklace, and the fairness of the skin is enhanced by the gold and gems.—New York Sun.

In 1892 17,396 vessels arrived in New York harbor.

Very few Scotch peasantry wear the kilt. Most of them are dressing after the manner of English people.

The town of Perry, Me., is half way between the equator and the pole, the forty-fifth parallel of north latitude passing through it.

Ravenstein's estimate of the earth's fertile region in square miles is 28,500,000; steppe, 13,901,000; desert, 4,180,000; polar region, 4,888,800.

The Japanese legislature has decided against the editorial chair for woman. The post of editor is, it says, "neither becoming nor desirable for woman."

Tutt's Pills Regulate The Bowels.

Constipation deranges the whole system and begets diseases, such as Sick Headache, Dyspepsia, Fevers, Kidney Diseases, Bilious Colic, Malaria, etc.

Tutt's Pills produce regular habits of body and good digestion, without which, no one can enjoy good health.
