GROVER WILL TAKE A HAND

In Making Nominations for the Next Congress.

AN IMPORTANT POLITICAL SECRET.

If True it Ensures the Complexion of the Next Election.

Cleveland's Latest.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 25.—A choice political secret came to the surface, which will cause uneasiness in the minds of congressmen who have not followed the will of the president since the inauguration.

It is that he proposes to take hand in selecting members of the 54th congress.
National democratic executive committee propose, if possible, secure absolute control management next democratic national campaign committee and also committee designated by democratic national league clubs.

Government Changes in France.
PARIS, Nov. 25.—The entire French cabinet has resigned.

SECOND BIGGEST POSTOFFICE.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 25.—Hon.
Washington Hising has been appointed postmaster of Chicago. He has been a political boss and editor of the Illinois Staats Zeitung for years.

Exporting County Books.

ST. HELEN'S CO., Nov. 25.—In the matter of the exporting of the county officials' books, no definite conclusion has yet been reached by the commissioners. The work of re-exporting Sheriff Masie's books was finished Wednesday evening, but no order of court has yet been made. In a drunken row here, one of the participants had his jugular exposed by a knife thrust. The wielder of the knife made his escape and left for Portland. No word has been heard from him as yet.

BIG FOOTBALL GAME.

College Teams Contest Before a Distinguished Crowd.

SPRINGFIELD, Mass., Nov. 25.—The Yale and Harvard eleven met today to contest for football supremacy in the presence of a large crowd. Among the distinguished spectators were Governors McKinley and Russell. A bet of $2500 to $1000 on Harvard found no takers.

3:18 p. m. End of first half, Harvard having ball on her 25 yard line. In second half Yale got a touch down, first in game. Yale kicks goal, score, Yale 6; Harvard nothing.

Action of Harvard, Thorne of Yale, and Waters of Harvard, were disabled.
Yale wins six to nothing.

Government Defeated.

OTTAWA, Ont., Nov. 25.—The liberals are jubilant here over the election of Joseph Martin to represent Winnipeg in the Dominion parliament. Last election the government candidate had a majority of 500 over his liberal opponent who now defeats the conservative by 400 majority. The issue was on the tariff question. Two members of the Dominion government recently visited Winnipeg and the Northwest, promulgating a moderate degree of tariff reduction next session. The people called for a clean sweep of protective duties and free trade with the United States, which the liberal candidate made his platform. This is the first significant defeat sustained since the death of Sir John Macdonald.

K. of L. Row.

PHILADELPHIA, Nov. 25.—An effort was made by the Hayes faction in General Assembly of Knights of Labor this morning to elect their three men, Kennedy, McQuirk and Martin, to the executive board, but without result. Powerfully left the meeting before it adjourning. All sorts of rumors are afloat as to his reason. Knights refuse to talk.

SHE DIED IN SEATTLE.

Mystery in Connection With the Death of a Young Lady.

MASON CITY, Ia., Nov. 25.—Carrying out the instructions of Attorney Hurn and Coroner Osborne, the remains of Hannah Whitnall, buried here October 23, were exhumed. The young lady died in Seattle, Wash., October 16, under suspicious circumstances. She lived with her uncle, George Pollock, who verbally agreed to give her a large estate upon his death.
Mr. and Mrs. Pollock and Hannah arrived in Seattle October 14, and the same night Hannah was taken seriously ill at the European hotel. She went into convulsions and died. A post-mortem was held and an eight-month-child taken from her. The latter was put into the coffin and buried with the mother. Today when the remains were exhumed there was no child in the coffin. The coroner's verdict was rendered in accordance with the above facts. This state can have no further jurisdiction in the case, but the county attorney will doubtless ask the Seattle authorities to make a further investigation.

STORY OF HER DEATH.

SEATTLE, Wash., Nov. 25.—Hannah Whitnall, whose mysterious death created such a sensation at Mason City, Ia., died in this city October 13th.
She came here that day with her foster parents, Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Pollock, and they put up at a hotel. That night she died in convulsions, following the exposure of the fact that she was about to become a mother. The Pollocks were greatly astonished at the disclosure of her condition, and when she was dying threatened to leave her to her fate. They relented, however, and when she died had her body embalmed and buried. Physicians held a post-mortem and removed the child, keeping it without informing the Pollocks.
The body was exhumed and sent to Mason City, where an investigation caused the discovery of the fact that the child was missing. The official record there believe the girl to have been poisoned, and have asked Seattle officers to investigate.

A. Coffin, president, Indianapolis Cabinet Company; P. B. Coffin, secretary same; A. S. Reed, treasurer same.
These men are already under bonds for wrecking the Indianapolis National Bank.

Big Billiards.

CHICAGO, Nov. 25.—The biggest ranged this morning. Ives and Schaffer matched to play sixty days for aggregate stake of $22,000. They will play one game for five hundred points, cushion caroms. Winner to take entire stake and total gate receipts.

Homesteader Missing.

ALBANY, Or., Nov. 25.—A special from Detroit, Marion county, says Joe Hamilton, a bachelor homesteader, formerly of Minneapolis has been missing for three days. He started to a neighbor's cabin, a distance of about three miles through mountain forest, and has not been seen since. It is thought he must have met with some accident, as he is a thorough woodsman and not likely to become lost. A snow storm has raged since the relief party, thoroughly equipped has started in search of the missing.

ASTORIA, Or., Nov. 25.—Judge Lang-horn, of Pacific county, Wash., has issued a warrant for the arrest of A. Davis, late proprietor of the Cathlamet Gazette, who is charged with being a dangerous lunatic, and who will, when captured, be taken before a commissioner for examination. Last week Davis, who has for some time been acting in a peculiar manner, wrote letters to George M. Cornwall, the present proprietor of the Gazette; J. Bruce Fairworth, O. M.
Harvey, Charles Wren and A. D.
Burrill, residents of Cathlamet. These letters all contained the same wording, and were to the effect: That if the parties addressed did not deposit $2000 each with the writer in his bedroom within 12 hours after receipt he would burn their houses over their ears and then kill them. After posting the communications he died the authorities and took the steamer for Portland, where it is believed he is now in hiding.

IMPORTANT COMING SOCIAL EVENTS.

Interesting Review of Transpiring Events.

A COMING WEDDING.

Monday afternoon, Nov. 27th, 1893, will be a memorable day and honor a rising young Salem physician. At that time in St. Lawrence church, Portland, Doctor Louis Lemieux, of Salem, will be united in marriage with Mademoiselle Henriette Alice, second daughter of the Chevalier L. O. de Castonguay, a French Canadian gentleman of high standing. The bride came to Chicago with her family and then comes on to Portland to meet her affianced, who has been a resident physician of this city for the past year. Rev. J. S. White of St. Joseph's church, accompanied Dr. Lemieux to Portland to perform the ceremony. The bride and groom will take a short trip to Tacoma and return to this city Tuesday to take up their residence at Mrs. Thompson's boarding house, on Capital street.

"ALVIN JOELIN."

One hundred and eighty laughs in 180 minutes is an enticing and tempting announcement. Of course every one familiar with theatrical bad lines knows this means that Oliver L.
Davis is to appear in his always popular creation, "Alvin Joelin," and the fact that he will personally interpret the role of "Old Uncle Alvin" is sufficient to pack the house. The play has been a marvellous success and made a vast fortune for him. This is owing to the fact that the simple story, laughable incidents and sensational and pathetic features appeal directly to the masses. The general theater goer sees in "Alvin Joelin," as portrayed by Mr.
Davis, a comedy drama drawn on familiar lines, yet none the less original.
The character of Alvin is the quaint old Yankee farmer, who comes to the city to see the sights and sees them, is a characterization of the typical down-east husseyed, which, as a piece of character acting, is a revelation. To say the performance is funny, is using a very mild expression, for it is simply one scream of laughter after another.
To speak of Mr. Davis' effective improvisation of Joelin would be but to cover old ground, for his acting has been enjoyed in this city on numerous occasions. Reed's opera house, Nov. 27-next Monday.

THE PEOPLE WIN.

THE JOURNAL is not the organ of any Portland or state house ring. It made the fight that defeated Jo Simon for a federal judgeship. It made the fight that defeated his man for attorney-general of this state and resulted in the election of Hon. Geo. Chamberlain.

Both those achievements were great victories for the people of this state.
Mr. Chamberlain has shown himself to be a vigorous and able state prosecutor.
He has just won the case of the State vs. Multnomah county, recovering $66-978 89 taxes due on mortgages since 1891 from the Portland tax dodgers.

Mr. Chamberlain is for his record as attorney general THE JOURNAL'S idea of a public official. We do not care what party he belongs to, if a man makes a record of vigorously defending the public rights against private and corporate robberies he is entitled to the support of the unprejudiced press and voter. Mr. Chamberlain made the same kind of a fight in upholding the old railroad commission when it reduced rates and won every time. He has been the tax-dodgers and corporations every time it has been his duty as state attorney to attack them. If we had such a man for governor today there would not now be a half million of state taxes hid back by dishonest county officials and booting banks.
The state would not be sitting idly by while the corporations raised freight rates at a time of unusual agricultural depression.

The state would not be in danger of losing the six agricultural colleges appropriation in Job Bros. bank at Corvallis for lack of vigilant prosecution of its case.

Overridden as this state is by tax-dodger, corporation-lawyers, moneysharers, and for and ring politicians an occasional vigorous and able champion of public interests is an object of agreeable contemplation.
