ENDEAVOURERS ENTERTAIN. The Endeavor Society of the Christian church gave a pleasant entertainment in the church last night. A prominent feature of the affair was the recounting of experience by those contributing money to the society, they telling their mode of effort to acquire it. An entertaining program was rendered, consisting of a recitation by Della Osborn, vocal duet by Miss and Mr. Woodruff, a quartette by Messrs. Clark and Campbell, and Messrs. Clark and Woodruff; recitation by Miss Adda Pugh; guitar duet by Misses Payne and Haas, and a recitation by Miss Nellie Clark.

Three of these were gentlemen and the fourth a woman. A large crowd witnessed the ceremony.

A drowning man would have little use for a method of rescue which would require days. A dyspeptic doesn't want to bother with a remedy that is going to take weeks to show its beneficial effects.

The Mount Lebanon Shakers are offering a product under the name of Shaker Digestive Cordial which yields immediate relief. The very first dose proves beneficial in most cases; and it is owing to their unbounded confidence in it, that they have put up 10 cent sample bottles on the market. These can be had through any drug-gist; and it will repay the afflicted to invest the trifling sum necessary to make a trial.

The Shaker Digestive Cordial relieves by resting the stomach and aiding the digestion of food.

Laxol is the best medicine for children. Doctors recommend it in place of Castor Oil.

DEMOCRATS COUNCIL

Marion County's First Political Convention.

NEARLY ALL REPRESENTED

List of Delegates and Proceedings in Full.

The Marion county Democratic convention was called to order at Reed's opera house at 11 o'clock by F. N. Derby, the chairman of the central committee, the purpose being to nominate a ticket to be voted for at the June election.

J. R. Fairbank was nominated by E. H. Flagg, seconded by Geo. S. Downing, and was elected unanimously and proceeded to address the convention.

He wore an elegant boutonniere on his breast and although not feeling well proceeded to give a speech that created good feeling and harmony.

He said the tariff question was dead and could not be revived. It was worn out and threadbare. The finance question was alive and the eyes of the world were riveted on Oregon. He did not want to tackle the money question. He warned the Democrats not to precipitate a battle on this line until they had the word of command from some higher authority. Their party was like a ship without pilot or rudder. They had a crew pulling at the ropes at cross purposes, and the ship was liable to strike a rock in mid-ocean. He hoped when the national convention met it would harmonize all elements and unite the people on a good platform. All had to concede something and then the party would march to victory in the zenith of glory and fight for the principles of Thomas Jefferson. [applause.]

In state affairs nothing was exciting attention. There was no controversy about our state government. There would be no issue over the state administration.

But who would vindicate the last legislature? [A voice.] "Hofer." [Laughter.]

Was the Democratic party dead? No. [A voice.] "It is only sleeping." What were all these Republican clubs for? Simply to familiarize themselves with their new regalia and with new rings in their noses. [Laughter.] There might be ring politicians in Portland. There were none in Salem. [Laughter.]

The country demands men, men of principle, men of high character. If the Republicans, Populists and Democrats had such men they should be nominated and elected to serve the people.

Judge Fairbank closed amid great applause, and the assistant named the convention very much. He made a conservative and gentlemanly address, and is a model presiding officer.

W. G. Westcott nominated Eugene Willis for secretary.

He declined; but the convention insisted, and he was elected. F. W. Durbin was made assistant secretary.

On motions made and seconded, the chair was authorized to appoint committees on credentials, order of business, resolutions, apportionment of delegates to the state convention, Geo. S. Downing moved that no precinct have more than one delegate to the state convention.

"Senator" Flagg offered an amendment that Salem precincts No. 1, 2, 3, 4 and Prospect have only one delegate each.

Here Judge Walton rose to a point of order. How could the chair appoint committees until after the committee on credentials reported.

The chair said they would not be appointed until after the credentials were reported.

The motion and amendment were withdrawn, and the chair announced the following committees:

Committee on Credentials—W. E. Finzer, T. J. Davis, A. B. Huddelson, Horace Mann and Fred A. Johns.

Committee on Order of Business—Wm. Hendershott, John Bane, John Gray, Eugene Willis and Wm. H. Egan.

Committee on Resolutions—W. D. Jeffries, S. L. Hayden, Wm. Murphy, S. W. Weaver and N. Lambert.

Committee on Apportionment of Delegates—D. J. Fry, E. H. Flagg, D. Smith, Frank Smith and W. M. Ray.

AFTERNOON SESSION. The convention was called to order at 2:30 and the report of the committee on credentials was submitted and adopted. The convention was one of the largest ever held in this city. A great many of the precincts never held primaries but lists were made up by the active labors of the officers and managers. There was a large number of visitors from Democratic conventions in Marion county are noted for strife and contention.

The report was adopted.

ORDER OF BUSINESS. The committee recommended that the temporary officers be made permanent, that precinct committee men be named.

Judge Fairbanks thanked the convention for the new honor.

NO COUNTY TICKET. Justice of the peace and constables of precincts, but no county ticket, was to be nominated.

Geo. S. Downing moved to adopt report. Carried.

Wm. Hendershott was made chairman of the county central committee.

THE PLATFORM reported by the committee was as follows:

Resolved by the Democrats of Marion county in convention assembled, that we favor the money of our fathers, the money named in the constitution, gold and silver. That we are in favor of the free and unlimited coinage of both metals; that each should have the same purchasing and debt paying power, and this without reference to any convention or agreement between the United States and foreign powers.

Second, that the delegates elected today to represent Marion county in the state Democratic convention be and are hereby instructed to use their best endeavors to secure the adoption of the above, or some similar free coinage resolution by the state convention as a part of our state platform.

W. D. JEFFRIES, S. L. HAYDEN, W. M. MURPHY, S. W. WEAVER, N. LAMBERT.

APPORTIONMENT.

The committee recommended one delegate-at-large, one delegate for each Salem and Prospect precinct. Nine more are scattered over the county—fifteen in all.

Aurora was the banner precinct, reported to have but one Democratic vote, and got no delegate.

The report was adopted.

Mr. Derby moved to reconsider vote by which report was adopted.

Seconded.

Mr. Flagg said the committee had spent a great deal of time preparing this report and opposed reconsideration.

Judge Davidson said there were at least eleven delegates for each state delegate.

Thos. Wait charged that skulduggery was creeping in. Every man was entitled to his rights and the Salem precincts could not snow under the country delegates without having something to apologize for. He was loudly applauded.

Eugene Willis: Salem cast two-thirds of the votes, but asked only one-third of the delegates.

All we want, said Geo. S. Downing, is a fair representation, and he supported the report.

Luke Smith said it was a fair report. The county delegates had made the report. Reconsideration was voted down.

PAINE'S CELERY COMPOUND.

Mrs. J. A. Sample Owes Her Strength to This the Best of All Remedies.

For the unfortunates who lie awake, staring at the ceiling and counting the strokes of the clock, every sleepless night is an eternity. Mrs. J. A. Sample of 1558 Broadway, New York City, was afflicted with insomnia until her nerves were on the verge of prostration. She thinks her condition was due to indigestion. Here is what Mrs. Sample says: "I have used Paine's celery compound with marked and decided benefit. It is especially useful in insomnia, arising from indigestion and poorly nourished nerves. "I should add that my granddaughter, Vera Hafeigh, was so thin and puny at the age of 10 as to cause us the greatest anxiety. We had no difficulty in inducing her to take Paine's celery compound. Today the roses bloom in her cheeks, and I never saw a healthier stronger child than Paine's celery compound has made her."

The brain is the centre of the nervous system. Sleep alone rests this vital organ, together with the nerves. During the waking hours the nervous system works incessantly. Poor sleep means a poor nervous condition, and protracted insomnia leads every case to prostration, and too often to dread insanity. The mischief that results from a weakened nerve is much greater and more destructive than most folks even dream of.

The all important thing for nervous, run-down persons, and for those who are "ing sleep is that Paine's celery compound builds up the whole physical system, and by improving the digestion and regulating the nerves it insures sound, refreshing sleep.

In winter most women and many men lead hothouse lives. A flagging appetite, a disposition to pick at this dish and that, rather than to eat a square meal, is among the early indications of failing health. Then comes delay in falling asleep and the fretful, uneasy feeling the next day.

Deliverance from such a miserable condition by the use of Paine's celery compound has caused men and women from every section of the United States to write sincere, hearty words of praise and thankfulness for this grand invigorator. People enjoying perfect health sometimes wonder at this gratitude; but whoever has suffered from prostration of the nerves, of which insomnia is one of the symptoms, will understand how hard it is to overstate the torment of this condition. And whoever has been made completely well by Paine's celery compound feels that no words can overstate the joy and gratitude such persons feel.

This is the state of mind of those who are nervous, sickly, broken-down persons who have used Paine's celery compound and been made well.

Mrs. Sample tells of the happy result in the case of her granddaughter. One of the most conspicuous instances of the remarkable power of Paine's celery compound over debility is shown in the relief it has afforded children. Of course the dose is adapted to the age of the little patient. The compound purifies the blood and corrects any tendency to constipation. Pale, puny children are made vigorous, rosy and healthy by this incomparable remedy.

Court House News. Herbert Mason, a subject of Queen Victoria, today filed his declaration of intention with County Clerk L. V. Ehlen.

In the matter of the guardianship of Christ, Emil, Lizzie, Jacob, Emma and Albert Lichty, aged 19, 17, 15, 13, 11 and 8 years respectively, having property of the value of $160, it was ordered that letters of guardianship be issued John Dick upon his filing a bond of $320.
