

The New York Racket

Is always in the lead in styles as well as in prices. About a year ago there was a general advance in prices on all lines of heavy shoes. The New York Racket was the last to advance their prices. Now that the prices have declined, especially on heavy shoes, they are the first to reduce their prices. Our customers will find all lines of heavy work shoes down to about the prices that prevailed before the advance. Our line of men's

POLITICAL POINTS.

The remains of the Salem hog were scattered far and wide at the primaries Friday.

Silvertown precincts elected solid straight-out Mitchell bimetalist delegations to the county convention.

Hon. David Craig, of Macleay, will come to the county convention with a solid delegation for representative.

The result of the primary in South Salem was a handsome endorsement of Jap Minto for county treasurer—the precinct where he was born and raised.

E. W. Chapman, of Labish precinct, got a great endorsement at the primaries Friday for his legislative candidacy. He is a pronounced Mitchell man and a champion of bimetalism.

The victory at Woodburn puts Charley Strain prominently before the county convention for the assessorship. He has only one hand but can use that effectively.

The largest vote cast for any one man in Englewood precinct was for Henry Sonneman the popular young German grocer. He refused to go on but one ticket and stood by his friends.

"The Jones" faction which has run things in Labish precinct for many years was plowed up and turned under in the primaries Friday by the Mission Bottom boys and their friends who are for a Mitchell ticket.

Warren Cranston, the cheese maker, is out for the legislature. He will vote for a Republican for United States senator who is on the national platform of 1896. Mr. Cranston is an old-time Republican, and has been a Dolph man in the past.

Grove P. Terrell, of Mehama, is a candidate for county judge, and arrived in town today to remain until after the county convention. He has quite a following from the upper county and has been a straight Republican in this county for 34 years.

Elder Barkley's friends at Woodburn scored a great victory in the primaries. Everything was against them, but they refused all compromises, but a straight ticket in the field of uncompromising bimetalists, and John H. Mitchell men. They stood for the rights of the common people and won.

Chas. Cannon, of Yew Park is a candidate for assessor. He was for many years a miller at Turner, and has a good record as deputy assessor. About a year ago his child swallowed a hat pin and the surgical operations needed to save the child's life cost him a small fortune. He is a hard-working man, a farmer and a man of good qualifications for the place.

Geo. W. Jones, of Turner, will have the support or several delegations for county superintendent of schools. He was born in Marion county about twenty-seven years ago, at Silvertown. He has a degree as Bachelor of Arts from the State university, and has held a state diploma for three years. He has had successful experience as a teacher. This information has a practical bearing on his qualifications for the place. If he gets the nomination on the Republican ticket which he seeks he will be elected and make a creditable record.

Populist Primaries.
The Populist hold their primaries today (March 21,) throughout Marion county. Open primaries were conducted in all precincts containing followers of this political faith. The hour, fixed by the central committee at a recent meeting, was 2 o'clock. For the ten Salem precincts the places of assembling are as follows:

Salem No. 1—No. 3 engine house.

Salem No. 2—Hansen & Cook's stable.

Salem No. 3—Boney's stables.

Salem No. 4—Peerman stable, back of the postoffice.

East Salem—Rickey's school house.

South Salem—Liberty.

North Salem—Building opposite Wade's store.

Yew Park—Rosedale.

Englewood—W. L. Wade's store.

Prospect—Simpson's store.

Many Democratic county conventions are declaring for free silver. Some think this is done as a matter of principle, while many feel sure that it is done purely to cater for the populist vote on a fusion.

HARRISON WILL RUN.

Indiana Managers Say He Is a Candidate.

POPULISTS CLAIM IT ALL

Their Candidate May Be Stewart, Tillman or Cameron.

POPULIST CLAIMS.
ST. LOUIS, March 21.—H. E. Taubeneck, chairman of the national executive committee of the People's party, said in an interview today:

"I believe we will carry next fall all the territories and a majority of the states of the south and west, Colorado, Montana, Idaho, Nevada, Wyoming, Utah, Oregon, Washington, California, Kansas, Nebraska and the Dakotas, and I believe Iowa.

We have a good fighting chance in Missouri and are certain of sweeping Texas. If the union between silver advocates and ourselves is as harmonious as everything now indicates it will be, we expect to capture all states south of the Ohio and Potomac rivers with the possible exception of West Virginia, Kentucky and Tennessee, where the fight will be between us and Republicans. This will leave Republicans sixteen states east of the Mississippi and north of the Potomac and Ohio without taking the Democrats into calculation at all. Whether our candidate for president will be Stewart, or Tillman or Cameron, I am not prepared to say."
