Geo. Collins, of the Fashion stables, is in Portland. Receiver Anson went to Portland this morning on business. Mathew McCormack, of Woodburn, returned to his home today. Hon. H. R. Kincaid, and son, Webster, returned from Eugene today. D. A. White, the feed man is in Portland today on a business visit. N. Galloway, of Salem, is at the Minnesota hotel.—Eugene Guard. Geo. H. Irwin went to Portland this morning to look after his fast horses. Restauranter Kenworthy returned today from a trip to Albany and Eugene. Rev. J. Muellhaupt went to Crabtree, Linn county, today to conduct a religious meeting. Rev. C. E. Klierer went to Albany today, where he conducts a German Baptist service once a month. District Attorney McCain went home today. He will return next week to try the Liphart case Tuesday. J. J. Read, salesman of the Woolen Mills store returned this morning from an extended trip in eastern Washington and the Cour d'Alene country, to remain about a week before proceeding south. T. J. Kress, the painter and paper hanger of East Salem, has returned from six months in southern California, and says he is happy to be back where things are green. He reports Los Angeles booming, with about 100,000 people, but ten men for every job. Wages are very low, but the best mechanics after getting established can get from $2 to $2.50 per day. He will take his chances with Oregon. SUCED FOR THIRTY CENTS—Last evening Mr. Irvine, of the Statesman Publishing Co., swore out the papers and this morning they were served on City Marshal Dille, claiming of him thirty cents for balance due on the Daily Statesman. The trial is set for next Thursday, before Justice Johnson, and is said to be a test case to prove whether Mr. McKinney or the Statesman is entitled to collect. Cleveland's latest phrase: "This office is no place for a mortgaged man." MISS BLOCH—Will sing in the Creation Monday evening.

SOCIAL REVELATIONS.

Some Personal and News of the Doings of Oregon People. Mrs. L. H. McMahon is visiting friends at Woodburn. Mrs. H. A. Johnson, Jr., is visiting friends at Jefferson. Mrs. C. E. Wolverson returned from Albany today accompanied by her mother, Mrs. Price, of that city. Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Strickler left for Oregon City via steamer yesterday. They will make the old capital their future home. Mrs. Hugh Thompson, of Salem, arrived on the afternoon train and will be the guest of her parents, Hon. and Mrs. Geo. B. Dorris.—Eugene Guard. Mrs. L. S. Hollett, of North Yakima, who has been the guest of her mother, Mrs. A. W. Dennis, the past week, left for home this morning. Congressman E. S. Eller, who represents the Western Union in this city is happy over the fact that there was born in this city, at 12:30 p. m., Thursday, June 11, 1896, to Mr. and Mrs. E. S. Eller, a son.

Mrs. Gish, formerly Melvina Martin, of Salem, arrived today from her home in Iowa, to visit her sisters and brothers, the Martin boys on Salem prairie. She is the guest of Mrs. Sayre on Chemeketa street.

FLORAL DAY. Mrs. Piper, of South Salem, superintendent of the Flower mission of the W. C. T. U., of this city, went to the state reform school today with a large basket of beautiful flowers for the boys there. The flowers were the gift of Mrs. Lucas, Mrs. O'Neil, Mrs. Miller and other estimable women, who not only grow flowers, but have a heart for humanity.

YOUNG FOLKS' PARTY. Mr. Roy Burton happily entertained about two dozen of his young friends at his home on East State street Thursday evening. Those issuing the invitations intended giving the young gentleman a surprise but the secret could not be kept from Mr. Burton. Games were heartily enjoyed by the young folks. Later in the evening delicious refreshments were served after which dancing, whist and social converse was indulged in until a late hour. Mrs. Burton was assisted in entertaining the guests by Miss Minnie Colwell. Those present were: Mr. and Mrs. A. A. Burton, Mrs. A. L. Colwell; Misses Onie McKinney, Minnie Colwell, Stella Sherman, Blanche Small, of Corvallis, Lottie Sherman, Ella Rice, Carrie Willis, Georgia Davenport, Lelo Nicklin, Minnie and Bessie Sherman, Gertrude Riddell, Constance Holland, Emily Truatcher and Mildred Kirk; Messrs. Roy Burton, Chas. Parvin, Gaines Ford, Clyde Brock, Roy Damon, Harry Hanson, Fred Stump, Fred Bewersox, John Cochran, Ralph Cox, Earl Riddell, Oliver Savage, Howard Jones and Master Dell Burton.

A PLEASANT PARTY. A pleasant and highly successful surprise party was given at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Harve Massey in North Salem, in honor of Mrs. Massey's birthday. The early part of the evening was devoted to social converse and instrumental music. At 11:30 o'clock all marched into the dining room where refreshments, consisting of ice cream and cakes, were served bountifully. Nothing was left undone on the part of the family to make all feel welcome. For unrestrained mirth and enjoyment of all the guests, the pleasures of the evening would be difficult to surpass. Those present were: Mr. and Mrs. Mart Painter, Mr. and Mrs. Willard Cross, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Ryan, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Andrus, Mr. and Mrs. Charlie Steele, Mr. and Mrs. Richard Renee, Mr. and Mrs. George Jacobs, Mrs. Oscar Taylor, Mrs. Charlie Gies, Mrs. C. Morton, Mrs. M. E. Walker, Miss Rose Gage, Mr. Gus Freinard, Mr. Charles Watson, Mr. Harry Watson, Mr. Emmett Taylor, Mr. Ralph Taylor, Masters Alva Gage, Harry Andrus, Carl Gies, Edward Ryan, and Miss Agnes Ryan.

ANOTHER CURIOSITY.—W. R. Anderson has added another curiosity to his collection. It is a young porcupine, from Canyon City, and has been put into the monkey cage, where it is adopted as one of the family. The quills have not grown out enough to hurt any one, and the lively little fellow is as harmless as a kitten.

IN THE HOP FIELD.

Something About the Crops and Improvements. A number of small improvements are being made between Salem and Hall's Ferry. The hopyards of Messrs. Croisan, Ley, Homes and Pettyjohn are all in good condition, the vines being string high and branching. A. P. Gordon has commenced work on the slough road to Hall's Ferry in district No. 2. He succeeds Geo. Croisan who has been road master for several years and has made great improvements on this piece of road. Mr. Gordon says wait till I get through before you criticize me. John Fromater has a new house nearly complete. He has been confined to the house for a week with a bad leg.

Miss Timm of Liberty, is teaching the school at the Pettyjohn school house. She had twenty little ones, and the larger ones seemed to be all at home—the oldest being two girls of twelve and thirteen. They all kept good order, and seem attentive to their lessons.

Crops in the Pettyjohn neighborhood are fair. Winter wheat is fine, Spring sown grain is not very strong. It is bound to be short. The hops will be light also, on account of cold rains. Cherries are almost a total failure.

There will be a literary program and public speaking, at the school house on Saturday evening at 8 o'clock, to which all are invited.

COURT HOUSE NEWS.

The jury returned a verdict of guilty in the case of the state of Oregon vs. Andrew Robinson, who was charged with having committed rape upon the person of Carrie Robinson, a 14-year-old adopted child. Robinson has been confined in the county jail since last court term. The girl was turned over to Superintendent Gardner, of the Boys' and Girls' Aid Society, in Portland, and has since become a mother.

An order was granted by Judge Burnett restraining Sheriff Knight from selling a lot in Watts' addition, Salem, under execution issued in the case of A. Bush vs. B. A. Wetzel et al.

Docket entries made yesterday by Judge Burnett were as follows: J. M. Skafie, administrator of the estate of D. M. Keene, deceased, vs. J. F. Nicollet, replevin as per stipulation, H. P. McNary, receiver, vs. Geo. Collins et al., action for money; demurrer to amended plea in abatement argued.

A true bill was not reported in favor of Thos. Nelson who was accused of the crime of selling a girl of whisky to James I. Daxler on February 15th, without having a license so to do.

THE RETURNS.—Official returns are in from 21 of the counties of this state. The state canvassing board will not begin to make the official state canvass until all the returns are in, which will not be much before the end of the month.

THE FIRST BATTLE.

Over the Lines of Mission Street.

BANKER JOHN H. ALBERT

Fights Off a City Officer and Five Men.

The first round in the battle over the lines of Mission street was fought between 10 and 11 o'clock this forenoon, between Banker John H. Albert and Street Commissioner Culver.

MR. CULVER'S STATEMENT. Mr. Culver, as street commissioner, went out to Mission street this morning, with Elmer White, Geo. Clymer, Sam Miller, Robt. McKillop and Dick Mason, acting under instruction of the city council and Acting City Attorney Geo. G. Bingham, to remove the south line fence of John H. Albert from Mission street. They were getting along nicely, having torn down about a half a block, when Mr. Albert arrived and told the men to quit. He pushed the men aside and then Mr. Culver says he stepped in to go ahead with the work himself. Albert took hold of him, tried to push him off, at the same time striking at him with his hands, hitting him twice. Culver parried his blows and kept him off. He advised Mr. Albert to come off, as he was very much excited and did not seem to act as rational as usual. Albert stepped inside his premises, picked up a stone and threatened to brain the first man who touched the fence. Culver said he was only acting as agent of the city and did not wish to commit violence or have his men do so. He said he had a right as road supervisor to go upon his premises in fulfillment of his duties. Culver then ordered his men to go on with the work. Lawyer Bingham says the proceedings are all regular so far and Culver will act under his instructions. "I never saw a man so excited in my life," says Mr. Culver. "I have no feelings against Mr. Albert in this matter and have only acted under instructions."

MR. ALBERT'S STORY. About 11 o'clock John H. Albert was telephoned to come home, that Street Commissioner Culver with a force of men was tearing down his fence on Mission street. He responded immediately and arrived at the seat of hostilities on his bicycle. Culver and five men were tearing down the fence in question. They had pulled up the posts for a quarter of a block leaving the wires attached just northwest of Geo. G. Bingham's residence. Mr. Albert immediately notified Mr. Culver and his men that they were unlawfully breaking his enclosures, and ordered them to immediately desist. Commissioner Culver: "Go ahead men and pull out that post." Mr. Albert (pushing them all back from his line): "This is a personal aggression. Mr. Culver has no authority to order you to touch this fence." Culver here grappled Mr. Albert and Albert struck him twice over the head with a ruler he had in his hand. It was wrapped in a JOURNAL of last night, which softened the blow some, but the blows produced quite an effect. Albert disengaged himself from the commissioner's bear hugs, and jumped back upon the terrace inside, where he was liberally supplied with ammunition, in the shape of small boulders, with which he armed himself, and threatened to knock out the first man who touched the fence or came inside the enclosure.

This produced an armistice and hostilities were suspended until a parley was had. Albert: "Show me your authority or some warrant or legal authority, to break this enclosure. Stay outside the fence while you do it." Culver: "My authority are the orders of the council." Albert: (Snapping his fingers.) "The orders of the council don't go here. If you have no warrant you are a private aggressor, and you will get in here only over my dead body. The men here took no part saying they did not want to hurt Mr. Albert. The commissioner had ordered them to do this. Albert: The commissioner has no authority to give such orders. You became personal aggressors by acting under him when he has no warrant. I again warn you not to proceed. They all seemed disposed to do anything more. Mr. Culver then said to his men "I don't see as we can do any more" and told his men to go off to other work. Culver then warned Albert not to restore the fence which he had partially torn down. Albert: "I will restore the fence exactly where it was, and do it immediately." He called his men and set them at it and by this time the fence is restored and the first battle of the Mission street line was fought.

Mr. Albert says he will defend his line if Mr. Culver brings a hundred men to tear down that line. He says they will never move that line unless they do it over his dead body. And he seems to mean what he says.

CULVER ARRESTED. Mr. Albert had a warrant issued this afternoon before Justice Johnson for the arrest of Street Commissioner Culver, on charge of breaking down a fence unlawfully. This act was set out in THE JOURNAL's history of the whole matter, published Thursday evening. Mr. Culver may have Mr. Albert arrested for assault.
