

Dr. Keene is still downing that bad man, Barkley.

When will the Statesman print Timon Ford's speech?

Let this be a square, clean fight for American principles.

Hon. Steward L. Woodford lunched with McKinley Tuesday!

Bryan and his "country bred wife" got a splendid reception at Woodburn.

That town of Woodburn is again setting the political pace in Oregon.

All foreign questions are losing interest—even international bimetalism.

McKinley clubs are multiplying. But the people are still the power in control of this government.

Who pays Dr. Keene to go around and abuse Elder Barkley? Of course, that is not paid by Mark Hanna.

Bryan's New York speech is unanswerable. Circulate it. One dollar a hundred at this office in silver.

Which is better, that we shall pay 75 cents a sack for flour or $1.50 a sack? Under which price would all be most prosperous?

Cleveland is putting Bourke Cochran forward to feel the public pulse as to how a gold Democrat for president would be received.

The Oregonian and Statesman say Senator Mitchell will support McKinley and the gold standard. That ought to settle it.

It is whispered that Dr. Driver, senator-elect from Lane, is reading the levitical statutes on silver to John H. Mitchell.

Which would produce the most prosperity, flour at 75 cents a sack or $1.50? At which price could the farmer afford to employ most labor?

THE JOURNAL is again the city and county official paper. It has always been the official organ of the ragtag, riffraff and bobtail, you know.

The Oregonian can't answer David Burr Chase, so it misrepresents him. If Harvey Scott says a man is crazy, you know, that settles it.

Why not have Martin Quinn speak at the Salem Bryan ratification? The free silver driver of a Portland laundry wagon came near going to congress.

The goldite and tory politicians of Oregon will wish they had not driven Jonathan Bourne out of the Republican party before they get through with him.

Harper's cartoon showing that the New York City laboring man would be obliged to pay double prices for all farm products under free coinage will not hurt the feelings of the farmers.

Jonathan Bourne has at last resigned. Will the goldite crowd be bappy now? Mr. Bourne is one of the very best organizers in Oregon, and the man who has built up the silver sentiment of this state.

No one can read the speech of Senator Mitchell, of Oregon, printed in this issue, and conclude that in his opinion independent bimetalism is not the paramount issue in this campaign.

To the Taxpayers of Marion County. The county board of equalization will convene at 9 o'clock a. m., August 31, 1896, and will be in session six consecutive days. D. D. Coffey, county assessor. d&w
