SALEM'S FAIR REPUBLICAN'S

The Ladies' McKinley Club Addressed by Mrs. W. P. Lord.

About six hundred Salemites, 75 per cent. of whom were ladies, gathered at the Reed last evening to enjoy the program that has been arranged for by the Salem Ladies McKinley club, at 7:30 o'clock a delegation of the members of the club gathered at Hotel Willamette and marched through the opera house headed by the band. Mrs. F. B. Southwick acted a chairman of the meeting, and having stated the object thereof announced an instrumental solo by Miss Genevieve Hughes which was very skillfully rendered.

The trio "Red, White and Blue" as given by Misses Lena Hutton, Ethel Raymond and Georgia Davenport, who were appropriately costumed, was well given and the tableau at the close of the selection, had a pleasing effect.

Mrs. Southwick there introduced Mrs. W. P. Lord, who presented a pleasing appearance, and as the first lady orator of the campaign to appear at Salem more than satisfied the expectation of her friends. Mrs. Lord devoted her attentions chiefly to protection, and showed what a help it would be for the establishment of the flax industry at Salem.

Miss Mattie Southwick, one of Salem's talented young vocalists, sang "Who Shall Rule This Great Republic?" and the appreciation of the audience was evident from the hearty encore that followed to which Miss Southwick gracefully responded.

Miss Genevieve Hughes, who never fails to please an audience, again favored the party with an excellent selection.

Owing to the unavoidable absence of Mrs. R. E. Wands, the address by that estimable lady was unavoidably omitted.

The Heritage quartette sang "The Handwriting on the Wall" and were generously applauded, kindly responding to the encore.

Mrs. Hinges sang "America" the audience joining on the refrain and the meeting was dismissed.

AT MARION'S CAPITAL.

In case of F. W. Godfrey, et al vs. Gervais Milling Co., Scott Jones and A. Schwab today filed an answer in department No. 2, to the objections of the W. C. Noon Bag Co.

In the matter of the assignment of Fremont Arnold, an insolvent debtor. F. J. Bolter, the assignee today filed a report with the county clerk. The report shows a balance on hand of $6.

County clerk L. V. Ehlen today issued a marriage license to Frank W. Bierward and Miss Delina Delisle.

In the Affirmative.

At the meeting of the Willamette University Philhidian Literary society last evening an interesting and instructive debate was had. The subject for discussion was: "Resolved that the President of the United States Should be Elected by the Popular Vote of the People." The debate was warmly contested, each side presenting very plausible arguments in its favor, but the debate was given to the affirmative. Those speaking for the affirmative were: J. G. Callison, leader; R. E. Wilkins, J. M. Johnson and B. E. Haney. The negative was represented by H. W. Swafford, leader; A. O. Garland and Guy C. Miller. Such debates are of great benefit to members of the society and add much to the interest in the meetings.

THE POLITICAL ROUND-UP.

Pointers on the Campaign from Inside and Out.

Wanted—Snow plows for John H. Mitchell's railroad to the planet Mars.

A bad wreck—at Silverton—on John H. Mitchell's railroad to the planet Mars.

The silver men on State street claim the honor of having their flags out first this morning.

Come out tonight and hear that grand old man, Senator Slater and others at the Armory.

It is safe to say that no young American will pull down the stars and stripes tonight, even though it is Halloween.

No coolies need apply for work on Senator Mitchell's railroad to the planet Mars. His earthly railroads need them all.

The business people nearly all decorated their places today, and notwithstanding the heavy rain this morning the Capital city presented a gay appearance.

The Armory is finely decorated with flags for tonight, notwithstanding the big state flag was taken out for the John H. Mitchell meeting at Silverton.

Judge Hurley speaks at the Armory Monday evening. There will be a superb program of music. The Second Regiment band will play and good singing will be had, besides the musical words of the champions of the people's cause.

The Bryan committee has done superb work in this city. They have had but little money to operate with, but they have paid all their expenses from day to day. They have put on no style, but have conducted a clean campaign.

It has been claimed by the McKinley men that of the score of "hop-pygers" in Salem only one was for Bryan. Last evening a poll was taken, and of 18 recorded they were evenly divided, 9 for McKinley and 9 for Bryan. This is the way most of the McKinley boasts fall flat when sifted out.

EDITOR JOURNAL.—The Statesman says that Mr. Minton and T. B. Wait hadn't the $1.50 to pay for the Battle Creek school house. The facts are that Mr. Minton paid the $1.50 before I arrived. I am very sorry such a thing occurred. It has caused very hard feelings in the district, and everyone should frown down school district rows.—T. B. Wait.

Saturday evening October 31, there will be a meeting at the armory which will be of historical significance. On that occasion our people will have a short address from Hon. J. H. Slater, ex-Congressman and ex-United States Senator from Oregon. Mr. Slater is an ardent supporter of Bryan and equal coinage for gold and silver, and many old-timers will be glad to greet the former representative of our state.

Mr. Slater served in congress from 1872 to 1874, and in the United States senate from 1879 to 1885. It will be a grand meeting, beginning at 8 o'clock p. m. and an entertaining program will be had.

A Pleasant Event.

Last evening, at her pleasant home on State street, Prof. Marion T. Cochran gave a party in honor of her guest, Miss Anna Bopp, of Fayette, Iowa. It was indeed a merry party of college students that gathered at Prof. Cochran's, and as is invariably the occasion when such a party meets a delightful time is had. The evening was spent very pleasantly in social converse, after which delightful refreshments were served, and the party disbanded voting their hostess a capital entertainer, without as well as within the class room. Those enjoying Mrs. Cochran's hospitality were: Miss Anna Bopp, Fayette, Ia.; Miss Chesney, Miss Helen Matthews, Miss Hetta Field, Miss Mattie Beatty, Miss Edith Fields, Miss Jessie Settlemier, and Miss Anna Carson. Messrs. L. F. Callison, C. J. Atwood, F. E. Brown, W. J. Shepard, R. W. Williams, Floyd Fields.

A NEW CITY EDITOR.—W. W. Brooks has accepted a position on the Oregon City Enterprise as city editor and will remove with his family, Monday morning, to the city by the falls. Mr. Brooks has been associated in a number of business enterprises in this city and his many friends in this city wish him abundant success in his new departure. The enterprise is the pioneer newspaper of Clackamas county and is to be congratulated upon securing the services of such an enterprising man as Mr. Brooks.
