THE SILVER REPUBLICANS.

Our extreme sound money republican friends must not get excited too much, and attempt to kick all the former "free silver Republicans" out of the party. They may be needed for winning future victories. It was the spirit of conciliation in the June campaign and throughout the fall contest that laid the sure foundations of the victory that was accomplished on November 3d. The state of Washington furnishes a striking contrast in the disastrous consequence of the opposite policy. There is no reason why all the men in Oregon who have been loyal republicans in the past may not be true members of that party in the future. -Salem Statesman Dec. 6.

We are in receipt of many letters from Silver Republicans from all parts of the state asking what shall be their future party alignment in the legislature and state politics?

That depends not on whether the McKinley Gold standard Republicans party, but on the actual work done for economy and promised reforms in the coming legislature and by the present Republican state administration.

The lower house in 1895, where a majority were against goldbug corporation ring-rule, spent $3,500 for clerical expense of 60 members, while the ring-ruled senate under Simon, Mc-Ginn, et al., spent $13,000 for clerks, etc.. for 30 members.

And so in all lines of expense by the state. Silver Republicans will be found true to their principles.

The young girl suffers, bodily and mentally, in silence. The trouble usually comes so gradually it is attributed to some outside cause. There is undue principles.

In the coming session of the legislature silver Republicans will be found voting for an organization of both houses in the interest of economy and reform. Failing to get such an organization they will still battle as individuals for such legislation as will be in the true interest of the people.

Mr. R. T. Caldwell, is book-keeper in the First National Bank of Fulton, Ky. "I was completely run down. My nerves became so unstrung through loss of sleep and worry that I felt sure I would be compelled to give up my position. I would lie awake all night long, and it took but little

I first procured a trial bottle from a local druggist and good results quickly followed. I then procured a dollar bottle, and by the time I had used this up I was a different man.
