

Nervous

People find just the help they so much need, in Hood's Sarsaparilla. It furnishes the desired strength by purifying, vitalizing and enriching the blood, and thus builds up the nerves, tones the stomach and regulates the whole system. Read this:

"I want to praise Hood's Sarsaparilla. My health run down, and I had the grip. After that, my heart and nervous system were badly affected, so that I could not do my own work. Our physician gave me some help, but did not cure. I decided to try Hood's Sarsaparilla. Soon I could do all my own housework. I have taken

It Went For Wm. McKinley

Wonderful Increase Over the Vote in June.

[Baker City Weekly Epigram.]

In the June election 85,000 votes in round numbers, were cast for supreme judge, and for congressman 89,000 votes were cast. There is no doubt that the latter vote was "stuffed" to the amount of about 4,000 and in favor of the Republican congressional nominees. The presidential vote in November reached a total, in round numbers, of 97,000. The subjoined tables are instructive, as showing where this increase came from, and its probable extent. The "estimated votes" and "estimated majorities" by counties were made by a system of discounts and percentages, six weeks before election, by a Bryanite, and gave the state to the popocratic candidate by a little over 1500.

In making the estimates no account was taken of the enemy's "reserve forces"—Hanna's boodle, the control of the returning boards and the desperation of a cause that justified repeating. This "reserve force" is clearly shown by the McKinley vote in the counties of Multnomah, Clackamas, Marion, Washington, Clatsop, Wasco. In Columbia both parties seem to have marshalled reserves from the Washington side of the Columbia river. The great increase, however, appears only in those localities in close touch with the "civilizing" influences of Portland and along the lines of transportation.

A study of the railway and steamboat time tables out and into Portland, and the hopeless condition of the republican fight in Washington state, should be made in conjunction with these tables of Oregon's late vote.

The "official" totals were taken from the Oregonian of November 21st and are approximately correct. In the estimates McKinley was given the benefit of the 4,000 fraudulent votes polled in June for the Republican nominees for congress, an average of five per cent of the Democratic vote, all of the prohibition vote and ten per cent of Vanderberg's vote. The Republican state central committee notified their national committee that they would win Oregon by 3,000 majority, and to do this they figured they must increase their vote 6,000 in the state over the June returns, 5,000 of which they expected to make in Multnomah county. They did it.

To the Bryan forces these tables are of interest. On the whole, they show a perfect union. Outside of Clackamas, Willamette and Washington counties they show that the Populists and Democrats carried perfectly fair with each other, and this ought to silence all charges and countercharges of bad faith. It is due to Clackamas county to say that in June the issues there were local retraction and the referendum, and that neither proposition was in issue in November. The figures from Willamette county speak for themselves, as do those from Washington. To the Bryan forces these tables point out the essentials of future success, namely, the imperative importance of so amending our laws as to secure a free ballot and a fair count, and the necessity of the silver Republicans, the silver Democrats and the Populists cementing their union on terms of exact equity to all.

These tables disclose one other important fact. The counties where populism has been in vogue during the past four years are those which gave majorities to Bryan, and especially were the large majorities obtained where the silver propaganda had been most extensively carried on in preceding campaigns. In the November election Josephine was the best campaigned county of the state, with Umatilla, Baker and Jackson close up. In these counties the "paramount issue" was kept to the fore. Harney, Malheur, Grant, Union, Linn, Coos, Douglas and Polk were carried by virtue of good campaigning and an early education. Lane county was carried into the Bryan column by like conditions and the influence of an old Roman to whom the reform forces owe a great debt of gratitude.

FREE TO EVERY MAN.

The Method of a Great Treatment for Weakness of Men.

Which Cured Him After Everything Else Failed.

Painful diseases are bad enough, but when a man is slowly wasting away with nervous weakness, the mental forbodings are ten times worse than the most severe pain. There is no let up to the mental suffering day or night. Sleep is almost impossible and under such a strain men are scarcely responsible for what they do. For years the writer rolled and tossed on the troubled sea of sexual weakness until it was a question whether he had not better take a dose of poison and thus end all his troubles. But providential inspiration came to his aid in the shape of a combination of medicines that not only completely restored the general health, but enlarged his vigor, and he now declares that any man who will take the trouble to send his name and address may have the method of this wonderful treatment free. Now when I say free I mean absolutely without cost, because I want every weakened man to get the benefit of my experience. I am not a philanthropist, nor do I pose as an enthusiast, but there are thousands of men suffering the tortures of weakened manhood who would be cured at once could they but get such a remedy as the one that cured me. Do not try to study out how I can afford to pay the few postage stamps necessary to mail the information, but send for it and learn that there are a few things on earth that although they cost nothing to get they are worth a fortune to some men and women. Write to lifetime of happiness to most of us. Write to Thomas Slater, Box 320, Kalamazoo, Mich., and the information will be mailed in a plain sealed envelope.

M. Ostrogorski, 132 Rue D'Assas, Paris, France, who is about to bring out a book on American political methods, writes to the author. "Perusing the books on the subject I was fortunate enough to find your book on 'The School of Politics.' I was wondering whether the evils of machine rule and of bossism were obtaining in the west as well as in the East. I read it with the greatest interest."

"THE SCHOOL OF POLITICS,"

OR THE AMERICAN PRIMARY SYSTEM EXPOSED.

Published by Charles H. Kerr & Co., Chicago, Ill. Price 25 cents. A hand book for citizens, legislators and students.

1. The Primary and Spoils Politics.
2. How Primaries are Conducted.
3. The Primary As It Should Be Safeguarded by law.

"The School of Politics" shows that the corrupted primary is the political crime of the Nineteenth century, and that reforms in city, state and national government are out of question until this evil has been remedied. The little book then lays bare the methods of the bosses from New York to California, showing how, under laws made ostensibly to protect the people, they have legalized their fraudulent methods. The practical working of the primary in city politics is shown up in our principal Western cities. Also the perfected law adopted in California last year, but knocked out in the courts of that state. The remedy is plainly pointed out. Should be read by every student of American politics and every legislator. They will here find the facts of the pernicious system, clearly set forth, also the needed remedies, by many leading journals. If you read a copy you will want others to read it. Single copies, 25 cents. Special rates on larger numbers. The author would be pleased to receive communications from readers of the book, on the subject under discussion.
