FINAL NEWS

Of the Returning Volunteers.

They Will Be Mustered Out at San Francisco.

Will Be Landed From the Transports at Portland.

By Associated Press to the Journal. THE LATEST OFFICIAL. PORTLAND, Ore., July 8.—A dispatch from Adjutant-General Corbin, at Washington, today states that the returning Oregon volunteers will be sent on transports to Portland, notwithstanding the reports that they are to be mustered out at San Francisco.

Following telegram received today at the Governor's office explains itself:

WASHINGTON, D. C., July 8.—Hon. T. T. Geer, Gov.—Referring to your telegram of July 3rd, I have the honor to repeat a copy of the following telegram which has just been sent to the commanding general at San Francisco, as follows: "The Secretary of War directs that the Oregon troops be sent to Astoria on the transports on which they arrive from Manila. On reaching Astoria they will be transferred to transports provided by the citizens of Portland, and the Ohio and Newport returned with all possible speed to San Francisco and be placed in readiness for return trip to Manila."

WASHINGTON, July 8.—The adjutant general stated that the Second Oregon regiment would be mustered out at San Francisco soon after landing there, and in that event it would be allowed to take their arms to Portland, but would deposit them at Benicia, arsenal, San Francisco.

SAN FRANCISCO, July 8.—All arrangements for the reception of the Oregon volunteers on their return from Manila have been made. A committee of Native Sons will welcome them, in company with Governor Geer, Adjutant-General W. H. Zamans, General Warfield and Mayor Phelan.

The governor of Oregon will not be here to meet the Oregon boys, as he will not leave Portland until the news of the arrival of the transport has been telegraphed. It has not yet been decided whether to send the men from San Francisco by rail or by the regular steamers State of California and Columbia, or by the vessels that bring them here from Manila.

The transports Newport and Ohio are now out 23 days from Manila with the Second Oregon aboard. They should reach here next Wednesday or Thursday. The harbor commissioners have placed the tug Governor Markham at the disposal of the governor.

The Newport and Ohio will be followed by the Indiana and Morgan City with the invalids; the Senator, with the Tenth Pennsylvania; the Hancock, with batteries A and B of the First Utah, and the remainder of the First Nebraska the Warren, with the First Colorado, and the Sherman, with the First California.

Last evening Salem Camp No. 118, Pacific Jurisdiction, W. of W. installed the following officers, which ceremony was performed by the retiring Consul Commander, Frank Bowersox: Scott Bonnell, consul commander; F. N. Bonnell, adviser; lieutenant; W. P. McMullan, escort; Frank Cole, watchman; A. Anderson, sentry; C. D. Minton, manager for eighteen months. Banker Oliver L. Darling and Clerk Wylie A. Mooreon held over to the first meeting in January, 1900, their terms being of twelve months duration.

Heart Failure. TACOMA, July 8.—John A. Silaby and Joseph H. Houghton, prominent business men, died suddenly of heart disease this morning. Three other well known citizens died of the same disease within a week. Three of the stricken persons lived in the same block.

A Valuable Dog. wouldn't sell for ten cents to a man who doesn't want a dog. And that is true with most anything else.

The only expedient way to find a man who wants to buy a dog is to speak to everybody in Salem through THE JOURNAL want columns.

Those who are interested will respond. And it would be a very uninteresting dog indeed that wouldn't suit anybody.

Most anything you don't want can be sold at some price if properly advertised.

YACHT RACE.

Columbia and Defender Contesting for the Larchmont Cup.

NEW YORK, July 8.—The Yachts Columbia and Defender contest for the Larchmont Yacht Club. The course is a triangular one, 19 miles. The defender crossed the starting line at 12:40, Columbia 12:40:53. The boats had a great match right after start, Columbia is getting the best of it. In luffing the sloop sailed a mile, which left them half a mile off the course. Passing the Rye, the Columbia was a couple of lengths ahead, both crafts were speeding along with the fine breeze. Columbia wins by three minutes two seconds.

PEORIA, July 8.—A secret session of the volkeraad appointed a committee to draft a franchise reform bill. The government proposals provide for the Islanders obtaining a franchise by a nine years residence.

$100 PRIZE.

Awarded to a Person at Salem Who Has Not Yet Been Found.

The July "Gentlewoman" announced that the third prize of $100, offered by that magazine for the best story, has been awarded to E. C. Sawcut, Box 100, Salem, Oregon.

As no such party is known in Salem and there is no box numbered 100 in the Salem postoffice, the query naturally arises: Does $100 of "the Gentlewoman's" good money really come to any one in Salem, or is the name given merely blind to cover the turning back of the $100 into the treasury of the Gentlewoman magazine?

AMERICANS MASSACRED

Said to Have Been Killed on the Kingue River.

CHICAGO, July 8.—A special to the Times-Heard from Washington says: Secretary Hay has sent instructions to Minister Bryan, at Rio de Janeiro, Brazil, and Consul Ruffin, at Assunition, Paraguay, directing them to investigate the report of the massacre of an expedition of which Americans were members on the Kingue river in Brazil. A report received several days ago from Minister Buchanan, at Buenos Ayres, reported that a Mrs. Williams, whose brother resides in Asheville, N. C., and whose husband was a member of the ill fated expedition, is in distress in Buenos Ayres where she was to await her husband's return.

A COMPLICATED CASE.

Suit Involving Validity of the Title to Polk County Land. Judge Boise's court has been occupied for several days trying to unravel the intricacies of a suit wherein Alexander E. Little, et al., are plaintiffs and Jas. Denham, Jas. D. Richardson, R. J. Fleming, Mary C. Denham and A. Fleming are defendants.

The suit involves the title to a piece of land lying just across the river, in Polk county and the cause of action extends far back as 1891. At that time Jas. Denham and Jas. D. Richardson were conducting a shoe store at 118 State street, under the firm name of Jas. Denham & Co.

At the same time they were also conducting a shoe store in Chicago, that establishment being in charge of Jas. D. Richardson while the Salem branch was conducted by Mr. Denham. On March 24, 1891, being then out of debt excepting a balance due the Capital National Bank, which was afterward settled, Jas. Denham transferred the Polk county property to his wife, Mary C. Denham, in payment it is alleged, of something over $40,000 which had been loaned to him by her. The transfer was made through Attorney John A. Carson, on his advice, to avoid any possible complications of the old Common Law.

On July 7, 1891, Mrs. Denham transferred the Polk county property to R. J. Fleming to secure the payment of $5,200 loaned by Fleming to her husband. At the same time Denham also transferred to Fleming the State street shoe stock as additional security.

In 1893 Mrs. Denham made an absolute transfer of the land to Fleming, he buying it outright, giving his notes for the greater part of the purchase price, $5,172. Subsequent to the first transfer, from Denham to his wife, the firm of Jas. Denham & Co. became indebted to Eastern shoe firms, and this suit is brought to set aside the transfer from Mrs. Denham to Fleming and from Denham to his wife, and to make the Polk county land liable for the debts of Jas. Denham & Co.

The connection of A. Fleming with the suit arises from his having loaned his brother, R. J. Fleming, some $2,500 with which to complete the payment of the balance due Mrs. Denham for the land, A. Fleming having taken a mortgage on the property as security.

The case was hotly contested, Geo. Bingham and H. J. Bigger appearing for the plaintiff; W. H. Holmes and Tilman Ford for the defendant. After argument, Friday afternoon, Judge Boise took the case under advisement, and it will be several days before his decision is rendered.

COMMISSIONER

Schurmann's Report Received.

General Wheeler Will Start July 26th.

The Desires of Volunteers Have Been Ascertained.

By Associated Press to the Journal.

WASHINGTON, July 8.—Despatches have been received at the state department from President Schurmann of the Philippines commission giving some account of his journey to southern islands of the archipelago. He finds conditions in those islands extremely gratifying. There is a disposition almost everywhere south of Luzon to accept American sovereignty. Schurmann expects to arrive at San Francisco about August 15th.

It's felt at the state department that the commission has done much to convey to the native Filipinos the proper conception of the American government and in that way has sapped the strength of the insurrection.

WASHINGTON, July 8.—General Wheeler sails for Manila, July 26.

WASHINGTON, July 8.—Otis cables the following:

"The desires of the volunteers in the Philippines have been ascertained. Two skeleton regiments are fairly well assured. Will cable the names of officers nominated for these regiments so that the appointment of lieutenants to recruit in the U. S. can be made."

CHICAGO, July 8.—Samuel S. Pague, who while lieutenant of Company F, Fifteenth United States infantry fired three shots at Colonel Croften and was dinned from the army on the finding of the court-martial, died in a lodging house under circumstances which point to suicide.

DISASTROUS CAVE-IN

Covers Up Several People Killing and Injuring Others.

By Associated Press to the Journal.

CARLETON, July 8.—A disaster has occurred in Jagir's Fontein Diamond mine, where the fall of thousands of tons of earth buried several people including an Australian named Forgy. Some other Australians were killed. Several persons were injured and 16 are missing.

Clerk Awarded Damages by a Portland Jury.

By Associated Press to the Journal. PORTLAND, Ore., July 8.—In the state circuit court today the jury, in the case of Mrs. Amelia Jester against Lipman, Wolfe & Co., returned a verdict awarding Mrs. Jester $2500 damages. Mrs. Jester had been an employe of the firm and was accused by them of pilfering from their store. She sued for $10,000 for false imprisonment and defamation of character.

Band of Bunch Grasses.

Andrew Willis, of Sherman county is in the city with a band of fine Eastern Oregon horses. They are at Ulrey's stable on Commercial street. Mr. Willis had the misfortune to have his band of horses run by the overland train night before last, resulting in six being killed outright and a number of the others were badly skinned up and bruised. One of the horses had a leg broken and was driven, along with the rest, into the Albany city pound. He was obliged to pay toll on the entire bunch. He has not yet recovered his damages from the Southern Pacific Co. and unless he does his horse venture in the valley will not be very profitable.

Texas Flood.

St. Louis, July 8.—A special to the Republic from Caldwell, Texas, says: Two hundred square miles cotton bearing land has been flooded. The crop destroyed was worth almost $4,000,000. The rise in the Brazos river has cost the people of Texas little less than $10,000,000.

POISONED CONFECTIONS

Puzzling San Francisco Police Officers.

SAN FRANCISCO, July 8.—Chemist Price found a large quantity of arsenic in the study which was sent to Miss Florence Campbell and caused the alarming illness of her self and friend, Mrs. Elsie Schell, last Friday night. The address on the package was cut from an old envelope, which it is said Mrs. John R. Rathum had sent to Miss Campbell when the two women were conducting a friendly correspondence. The police are convinced that Mrs. Rathum did not send the poison, and are still investigating the mysterious case.

MODUS VIVENDA

Is Not Yet Settled Upon.

Salisbury and Choate Cannot Agree.

Other Foreign News Matters of Interest.

By Associated Press to the Journal.

WASHINGTON, July 8.—Ambassador Choate has not communicated to the state department the result of the representations he has made to Lord Salisbury, respecting the modus vivendi under instructions of yesterday. Although it is believed to be almost hopeless, to expect that the successful outcome of direct negotiations with London, it is not regarded here as inevitable that a hostile clash will follow the failure to secure the modus.

Confidence is expressed in the sufficiency arrangements, backed by the sound, common sense of the officials of the United States and Canada, now in the disputed territory in Alaska to prevent a collision.

As a matter of fact the United States and Great Britain have been actually working under the tacitly understood modus vivendi and if this spirit continues on both sides there is little reason for the failure of the negotiations to result in anything more serious than another disagreeable postponement of the final settlement.

Judge Grosscup's Condition.

By Associated Press to the Journal. CHICAGO, July 8.—Reports from Ashland, O., state that the condition of Federal Judge Grosscup is considerably improved. The jurist is no longer confined to his bed, and every indication is that he is on a fair way to complete recovery.

Two Pardons.

Governor Geer today issued pardons as follows: Leo Giet, a Chinaman from The Dalles, sentenced to life imprisonment for murder; released to be transported to China; Marcus Scholl, of Portland, one year for larceny. Parson recommended by Judge M. C. George, who sentenced him.

KLONDIKE CLEAN-UP

Reported By Dr. Wilcoxson as Larger Than Expected

By Associated Press to the Journal. TACOMA, July 8.—Dr. Wilcoxson, of Chicago, who arrived from Dawson, brings authentic news of a famous clean up in Klondike during June. Pack trains arrive at Dawson daily, each bringing in $500,000 to $1,500,000. One pack train made several trips from Professor Lippys claim on Eldorado, which produced over two tons of gold dust.
