MARION COUNTY MATTERS

Business Being Transacted at the Court House.
PROBATE.
Louise Forstner executrix of the estate of Ben Forstner, deceased, has filed her final account and the hearing is set for September 30.

CHANCERY COURT.
An attachment suit has been commenced in Department No. 1, by the Goodale Lumber Co., against E. A. Stanton. Plaintiff asks judgment for $511.91, alleged to be a balance due on lumber sold to the defendant, with interest from July 15, 1909.

DEEDS FILED.
F. W. Durbin, sheriff, to the W. E. Her, 51.51 acres in T 4 S 1 W Sheriff's deed, $755.

River Notes.
The river stands at 2.5 feet above low water mark this morning. The weather prognostication by the bureau at Portland indicates more rain, and beyond all probability the stage of water will hold at about that stage for some time to come.

The fact that the water fell about two feet recently has caused a number of the logs which were being driven by the Spanning logging company beached and requires extra work to roll them in. The large drive is now all as far down as Salem. Today the creek camp and structures will be brought down. The Gray Eagle has the delivery of Salem's portion of the logs nearly all completed.

The O. R. & N. Company are considering the proposition of building a large log ware house at this point.

The Flour Market.
Flour advanced this morning from $2.65 to $3.00 per barrel. Several merchants made heavy purchases of flour this morning before the market opened. Flour classes must be paid for at once, and the flour is delivered as demanded.

The Salem mills have little wheat left, although their warehouse is full of last year's crop which still belongs to the farmers. Stayton and Anselville mills are out of wheat and refuse orders for flour at any price.

Some think the continued rain will make flour very high this fall, while others claim that the unmarketable wheat will of necessity have to be ground up at home, and hence flour will grow cheaper. At all events, there will be no famine in Oregon.

Prizes Received.
The books which were offered as prizes for the best examination papers in the Willamette university law school last spring have been distributed by Dean Richardson.

In the senior class W. Ellis Richardson took the first prize, Encyclopedia of Pleading and Practice, in twenty volumes, and F. W. Power, the second, Co-operative Digest, in six volumes. In the junior class H. A. Johnson, Jr., took the prize of Blackstone's Commentaries four volumes.

A Young Detective.
J. R. Watkins a special detective of the American Detective Association and who has been on secret service work in Salem for some time, went to Newport this morning. Mr. Watkins is working up some coast case. Mr. Watkins is yet a young man, being only 21 years old, but has had considerable service for both the A. D. A. and the Pinkertons, having worked for them nearly four years.

Miller is Dead.
J. H. Miller, the man who was shot last Wednesday night by Edwin L. Minnis, in Miller's saloon, died Friday morning. An autopsy was held. Minnis is in custody on a charge of assault with a dangerous weapon. This charge will be withdrawn and one of murder substituted.

Judge R. S. Bean and son Ernest returned today from Yaguina Bay, having spent part of two days fishing up the trout streams enroute home.

NEGROS BARACADED:

Armed and Determined to Resist the Sheriff.
ATLANTA, Ga., Aug. 26.—There is a renewal of the race trouble at Darien, Ga., and Governor Chandler has again been asked to send troops there to prevent an outbreak. A few days ago Henry Delagel was arrested at Darien on a charge of assault, and a lynching was prevented only by the action of the governor in sending 200 members of the First regiment, who brought the prisoner to Atlanta and left a detachment on guard at Darien. Today Joseph Townsend was killed and Octavius Hopkins was wounded by John Delagel, who had been shot in the arm. Sheriff T. B. Blount, of McIntosh county, wired Governor Chandler today, urging that more troops be sent to Darien, as the situation is critical. Gov. Chandler has ordered the Liberty independent troops to be in readiness to move.

ATLANTA, Aug. 26.—Gov. Bandler received advice from Col. Lawton at Darien, stating that negroes have congregated in the western portion at McIntosh county, fully armed and determined. Sheriff Blount, with a posse went to their stronghold, with the intention of attacking them but returned to Darien, believing it best to obtain more men. A special to the Journal from Savannah says that Governor Lawton has just ordered the entire regiment to Darien.

The whole trouble here began four days ago, when Henry Delagel, a negro was charged with assault and arrested. His two sons began to talk in an incendiary manner among other negroes in this vicinity. All alarmists among the negroes were arrested.

The jail was not large enough to hold them and 25 of them were sent to Savannah yesterday morning. Delagel and Hopkins went to the house of the Delagel's Thursday night to arrest his sons, when Townsend was killed outright and Hopkins severely wounded, by John Delagel. The negroes are determined to stand by Delagel and have congregated in large numbers.

DARIEN, Ga., Aug. 26.—The city was thrown into great excitement today by the arrival of a courier with news that the negroes who were believed to be in Delagel swamp have evacuated and are now six miles from the swamp, fully armed. The situation is very grave. Col. Lawton believes the negroes will fight.

The negro outnumber the whites, five to one. William Townsend, a brother of the man who was murdered Thursday night, has placed himself at the head of the citizens, to co-operate with the military force.

ATLANTA, Aug. 26.—Gov. Chandler received advice at 2 o'clock that 2,000 negroes are believed to be under arms in McIntosh county and that they positively refused to give up the Delagel murderers.

ATLANTA, Aug. 26.—Journal special from Darien says one of the Delagel's is reported as captured this afternoon without trouble.

SAVANNAH, Aug. 26.—The First regiment of the Georgia volunteers will leave 4 p. m. for Darien. They will take five days rations and 10,000 rounds of ammunition.

Job Completed.
The Salem Painters Union having finished the painting of the North and East school buildings, the board of school directors held a special meeting this afternoon and made the last payment on the job. The directors speak in the highest terms of the manner in which the work has been done, and the Painters' union may well feel proud of the job in which it has handled its first large contract. The tall flagpole on the East building was not mentioned in the contract for painting, but C. A. Bort shinned up and painted it, and the directors made him a present of $2.50.

Bad Weather Again.
The weather has taken another change for the worse. It rained a little during the night, and began again early this morning. If this rain came from the north, and while it arrived at a serious time, it is not believed that it can last long with the wind in that quarter. The barometer has fallen very low, and the prospect is for more rain.

Dave M. Smith formerly secretary of the Oregon Land Co., returned today from the Klondike. He came out last week with Ben Cook, but does not expect to return very soon. He will visit the Klondike for a short time.

H. Brown and Elmer Gilliam the Dallas stage driver and limousine were in the city today making arrangements to start a first class livery stable in connection with several stage lines.

Miss Matilda Byrn returned home yesterday from the other side of the Panama where she has been visiting her friends. Mr. and Mrs. D. H. Weyant, the past three months.

Mrs. N. J. Damon and family and Miss Mead and Miss Richter returned today from Nye, Nev., having closed their cottage for the season.

STATE NEWS.

In a row at the Belshie farm near Moro, G. H. Botsford, of Portland, struck Charles A. Stults, of Hood River, in the arm with a hayfork, breaking the arm and severing an artery. Botsford was arrested and held for trial in $500 bail. He escaped from the county jail while the keeper slept and is still at large.

Glen Jack, a son of the Linn county treasurer, has enlisted.

John Roach fell from a rapidly moving train near La Grande, Tuesday morning. The right arm was so badly injured that it was necessary to amputate it and the right leg was broken at the ankle.

The following are the new officers of the Douglas county W. C. T. U.: President, Mrs. Helen R. Ferguson, Eden; corresponding secretary, Mrs. Ida F. Marsters, Roseburg; recording secretary, C. L. Armitage, Roseburg; treasurer, Mrs. Mary H. Jewett, Gardiner.

Mrs. Mary E. Dutcher died near Philomath Saturday from what the doctors think was carbolic acid. It is believed that she took the poison with suicidal intent.

G. L. Rees brought to the Albany Herald office Tuesday a new variety of grass that no one has yet been able to name. It grew in a field of oats which had been sown upon a timothy sod. There is but a single bunch of it as from one seed more than that which is high to a tall man, and while the oats were full ripe it was still green and unheaded. The stems of the straw look very much like rank oats, and the top blades more like maize or small corn. It grows in a field frequently by wild geese in the winter, and suggests the seed may have been brought to Oregon by geese.

Nuggets valued at about $12,000 are exhibited at the Medford bank. They form a small part of the clean-up of the Sterling Mining Company. H. E. Ankeny, vice president of the bank, will display them at the Portland exposition.

Mr. P. A. Young, of Albany, has arrived home from his Alaska trip. Mr. Young had a life experience in the Alaskan coal fields. He was taking a picture at a close-quarter, when an immense explosion of rock was made. He quickly snapped his camera and fled just in time, some big rocks falling where he had been standing. The result of the snap is not yet known.

Members of I. O., in Albany, are fast getting into employment. Mr. Sam Worrel has accepted a position as day clerk at the St. Charles. Clyde McClung is working at McKillop & Burkharts, and Orin Bean will have charge of the warehouse business of Beam & Simpson at Mukwonago. Geo. H. Bruce will open an insurance office and study law. Fred Kohler is driving team, Arthur Furdon is draying, and the boys from the farms are now at work. Several of the college students are preparing to resume their studies in September.

The date of the picnic to be given the returned volunteers at Eugene postponed on account of the weather, has been set for Thursday, August 31. Everything will be free to the soldier boys. The arrangements will include many things of interest. Propositions are on foot to have an exhibition drill by companies of the Second Oregon, a baseball game between the soldiers and town boys, dancing, lunch, and a series of bicycle races may also be arranged.

Oregon City is to have free mail delivery.

Matt Mann, of Hillsboro, was thrown from his cart and instantly killed Friday morning. His neck was broken.

N. S. Nelson expects to build a new sawmill at Newberg in the near future.

Prepare for Hop-picking.
You cannot hinder the rain from falling, but you can prepare for hop-picking. Estimating that the hop crop for Oregon would be large, and that many new pickers would be required, I have bought, and am now opening several bales of heavy twill sheeting, a most economical material for tents, as after you have used it for a shelter during your outing, you can cut the cotton up for other purposes for the family; not necessary to lay it away where it may mildew and spoil before next season. Then you will need rubbers for yourself and the girls, and blankets to keep you warm; better and cheaper to buy the articles to keep you dry than to have to pay for medical treatment and drugs. All buy gloves. I have sizes and qualities to suit. I buy for cash, and keep for sale for cash, a large stock of staple and fancy dry goods. Your patronage solicited.
