STATE FAIR

On Its Last Legs for the Season of 1899.

Rather Unsatisfactory Exhibition, Considered as a State Fair.

The good weather with which the fair has been blessed, has held throughout, and no fault can be found with that part of it.

It is indeed fortunate that this is so, for had the unfavorable weather of last year prevailed this time, it is hard to realize what a frost would have prevailed.

SOCIETY EXHIBIT.
The show in this department is not up to the standard of former years in quantity, but is claimed to be in quality. Many of the coops are empty, but there are about 175 occupied. There are of Burred Plymouth Rocks 32 coops, White Plymouth Rocks 7, Black Langshals 9, Silver Wyandottes 4, Buff Wyandottes 2, White Wyandottes 21, Brown Leghorns 10, Buff Leghorns 6, S. S. Hamburgs 5, Light Brahmas 4, Buff Cochins 2, Black Monarchs 7.

There are two coops of turkeys, a few of geese, two of Pekin ducks, a few of bantams and pigeons and seven of canary birds.

There are also some rabbits.

YESTERDAY'S RACES.
There were four starters in the 2:20 pace which was started shortly after two o'clock and four heats were run, Carrie S. Barnes taking the first, John A. Crawford the third and fourth, and Larnac the fifth. The day was not long enough, however, and the conclusion was postponed until 1 o'clock this afternoon. Summary of the 4 heats is as follows:

Barnacle (Barnstark)..... 3 4 3 1
Anna J. (Glasford)..... 2 3 4 3
Joe A. Crawford (Casto)..... 4 1 1 4
Carrie S. Barnes..... 1 2 2 2

The 2:28 trot was contested by Road Boy, Phil N and Birdie Williams. Each of the three heats ended in the horses coming under the wire in the order named. Time--2:29.4, 2:21.4, 2:20.

The 3/4 dash was won by Al in 1:02, Jim Bozeman second and Loyale third. Tourist, Misty Mail and Tennessee Maid, were also in the race when it started.

The horseless carriage race was a spirited contest between Edward Shields and Ed Hansen, of Portland, two miles being driven by each, and was won by Hansen. It was to be repeated today.

DAIRY EXHIBIT.
In the dairy building there is a full set of dairy machinery under charge of George Weeks.

In the way of an exhibit of dairy products there are 9 cheeses and 12 entries of butter, some excellently colored.

TODAY'S RACES.

Kill Two Birds With One Stone.
While taking a holiday to attend the "Fair" use a part of the time to visit Hobson's dry goods store. The proprietor and clerk will be glad to see you, they enjoy showing the fine goods. The weather will soon be cool, select a new cape or jacket for your wife and daughter.

The boys must be clothed for school--this is your opportunity to get them a new suit, fit and price guaranteed--ladies, ask to see the Corset Belt Wrappers, something new. A full line of dry goods bought for cash to be sold for cash at prices to give satisfaction.

W. H. HOBSON,
207 Commercial street.

Mr. and Mrs. F. S. Harding of McMinnville are in Salem attending the M. E. Conference and state fair. Mr. Harding is editor of the Telephone-Register.

Ex-Gov. Z. F. Moody came down from the Dallas this morning. He was accompanied by his son, Hon. M. A. Moody, congressman from the second district, who will take in the state fair and visit a few days.

N. Hunziker of Brooks, was a Salem visitor today.

WHEAT ABLAZE.

Concluded from First Page.

The intense heat compelled the firemen to stand behind the freight cars on the switch in the street. Chief Churchill says the firemen were not supposed to know which warehouse contained the farmers' wheat, and even though they would have gladly saved it, it was no time for them to discriminate.

Inspection of the pressure gauge at the water works reveals that during the fire the pressure was a shade over 80 pounds, which furnished excellent service. With more hose and men to handle it still better work could have been done.

Mr. Graham, of Portland, manager of the O. C. T. boats, saw the fire, and speaking of it simply said the fire department did all it could, but that there was not enough of it.

The Salem Flouring Mill Co. is a corporation with a paid up capital of $200,000. Theo. B. Wilcox, of Portland, has a controlling interest in it, and the remaining stock holders are Breyman Bros., Ladd & Bush, of Salem, Chas. Ladd, Corbett & Macleay, of Portland, and several persons in Scotland.

The loss to the company is estimated at about $150,000, with $65,000 insurance, which would make a net loss of $85,000. There were about 150,000 bushels of wheat in the mill and warehouse which was nearly all owned by farmers and wheat buyers. Koonitz & Co., of Halsey, have about 20,000 bushels, May & Sender, Harrisburg, 15,000 bushels, and Baber & Co., of Junction City, about 12,000. These lots are insured, but none of the balance is, except what farmers have money borrowed on, and, as Manager Holland says, "it's a pity they haven't all got money borrowed."

Taking out what Koonitz & Co., Baber & Co. and May & Co. own, there is about a round 100,000 bushels of wheat in the stack. Of this there is possibly 20,000 lost by falling into the race and by fire. Fortunately the bins on the side next to the race were not so full as the others. This leaves about 80 per cent of the farmers' wheat on the ground, which will no doubt be appraised pro rata to the proper owners. It will be worth over 35 cents per bushel for feed, and several carloads have already been spoken for.

Mr. Wilcox is expected in the city tomorrow, when the insurance adjusters will begin work. The insurance is nearly all in local agencies.

Speaking of the fire department, Manager Holland says "Chief and men worked heroically. They stood in the blistering heat and did more than their duty. We are ten thousand times obliged to them all."

Casper Meyer and Wm. Clagget each have three years' crop of wheat in the warehouse, Mrs. Ellen Savage loses 1500 bushels. It will be impossible to learn who all the owners of wheat on store are for several days, as the company's books and office are in a state of chaos as yet.

It is suggested that much of the wheat which is damaged by water only might be saved by drying out in the life fruit dryers of the vicinity. Thus, Jory, of South Salem, saved about 1200 bushels in that way, which was damaged by the rain, and it is said to be a practical proposition.

As a spectacle the fire was the grandest ever seen in Salem. The blaze rose a hundred above the roof of the warehouse in a waving mass of solid flame, leaping and throwing of great bodies of fiery incandescence which rose high above before they vanished.

A great crowd of towns people collected in the vicinity, but kept a respectful distance, as the intense heat forbade a near approach. The upper windows of the Hotel Willemette were filled for a couple of hours with the faces of interested spectators.

Farmers must not forget that they can still store or sell their wheat in Salem, with the firms of A. M. Humphrey & Co., and Tillson, Bartlett & Co.

From eighteen to twenty-five men were employed in and about the mill and many of them will be thrown out of work, though some will be employed in clearing away the wreck.

The fire boys ask THE JOURNAL to express their gratitude to the Salem ladies who brought them a breakfast at the scene of the blaze after the worst was over. They all had good appetites and appreciate the thoughtfulness of those who so generously thought of them.

M. E. CONFERENCE.

Thursday's Work Devoted to Woman's Foreign Missions.

Que and Waters Elected as Delegates to Chicago Conference Next Year.

Thursday at 3 p. m. occurred the anniversary of the Woman's Foreign Missionary society. The singing was conducted by Prof. W. A. Ginn.

Mrs. M. C. Wire offered the opening prayer. Scripture read by Mrs. Meninger of Ashland.

Rev. N. F. Jenkins, of Grants Pass, delivered an address.

This society was organized in 1869 by nine ladies.

They sent out two missionaries. Now there are 185. They now have $85,000 worth of property in foreign lands.

$329,000 has been expended by the ladies in missionary work.

They have 495 auxiliary societies with a membership of 121,814. Young Woman's societies 548, members 12,298. Children's band 747; members 17,993.

Total organizations 6308; total members, 152,974. Light Bearers, 156; members 3403; Conference secretaries, 97; District secretaries 296.

The influence for good of these missionaries in heathen land is immeasurable.

The Master says, "Go ye into all the world and preach the gospel to every creature." This is a command to every saved soul.

Only women missionaries can reach the women and girls in heathen lands. Christ recognized the value of woman's work in spreading his gospel.

This address was followed by a solo by Prof. Ginn, entitled, "Cast Thy Bread Upon the Waters."

Mrs. A. N. Fisher-Branch, secretary, spoke of Miss May Lily, a former student at Willamette university, who has been at Singapore, India, for two years doing splendid work. The higher classes of Chinese are asking for American teachers for their daughters as there are no schools for girls in China. The Columbia river branch of the W. F. M. S. has recently sent Miss Parkinson to take up some of this work.

Mrs. Abbot read her report as conference secretary. She also presided at the entire service.

Mrs. M. C. Wire gave a short and earnest appeal to the women to take up this work and push it as a divine command.

After singing a hymn Rev. Moore pronounced the benediction.

TUESDAY EVENING.
Opened with singing "Rock of Ages."
Prayer by Rev. T. L. Jones. Rev. John Parsons read the seventy second Psalm, after another hymn Dr. M. C. Wire of Albany preached the educational sermon as he was appointed to do by the conference last year. It was a masterly and scholarly effort, and disproved the idea of the twelve apostles, being unlearned and ignorant men and strongly urged the necessity of thorough education specially among ministry.

Education, however is not to take the place of piety.

God wants well trained men with consecrated lives.

The church needs efficient men.

Patient practice and efficient drill will make radiant soldiers for Christ.

F. S. McDaniel of Portland, Dr. A. N. Fisher editor of the Pacific Christian Advocate, and Dr. H. K. Hines of Portland are attending the conference.

DELEGATES ELECTED.
This forenoon, among the other business transacted, which will be reported tomorrow, Dr. Que, of Portland, and Presiding Elder Waters were elected delegates to the general conference in Chicago next May.

Moths.
The Shirley company presented the dramatized version of Ouida's famous novel last evening, before the largest audience which has yet greeted them. Lack of space prevents an extended notice, but those present were highly pleased with the performance. Tonight Bulwer-Lytton's "great play, 'The Lady of Lyons,' in which Mrs. Langtry made her American debut will be put on the boards, and the matinee tomorrow afternoon will be "A Game of Whist," which is very funny.

Horse Stolen.
On Monday night, last from field near the barn of E. R. Wimer who lives on the road to Dayton and about four miles north of Salem. The horse is a bay, weighs about 1100. T.J. upside down on same shoulder, white collar mark on right shoulder.

OLINGER and RIGDON

Undertakers and Embalmers.

We wish to announce to the general public that we have purchased the most elegant and magnificent funeral car, of latest design, and are therefore in a position to handle funerals in a much better manner than heretofore, and with less expense. We have long felt that Salem, being the capital city of a great state, should be up to date in the manner of handling funerals, and we have therefore spared no expense in purchasing the car. It was built by the James Cunningham Co., Rochester, New York, who build the finest vehicles in the United States. While this is not the most expensive funeral car ever built, still it is the finest ever shipped to Oregon.

We cordially invite all to inspect our facilities, and when necessity requires, to give us liberal patronage.
