General Election May Soon be Held.

The Deposed General is Made Much of in Music Halls.

Chamberlain Says the War in South Africa Was Forced on the British.

LONDON, Oct. 23.—The Daily News says it hears from a quarter usually well informed, that the government contemplates a general election in 1902, and that the Conservative election agents have received instructions to be prepared for eventualities.

LONDON, Oct. 23.—The leaders of the Liberal leaders have been called, as called to the United States by a news agency, to consider the advisability of issuing a manifesto to the country calling on the government to resign or call a special session of Parliament to discuss the Boer War, the dismissal of General Buller and other matters.

The efforts made by several of the London daily newspapers to create a feeling against Buller's favor are due partly to their desire to make party capital, as these papers, previous to the action of the War office, could scarcely say anything but enough about the General.

A great meeting of sympathy in Hyde Park is now under consideration and there is talk of the presentation to the General of a sword of honor as a national tribute.

In the west of England, where General Buller's home is situated, the feeling runs high. Frequent meetings have been held to denounce the government's action.

It was a stormy interview ending in General Buller's refusal to resign. It is said General Buller even then did not believe that the War Office would venture to retire him.

Walter Long, president of the government board in the course of a long speech at Liverpool yesterday afternoon said the government would defend General Buller's appointment to the command at Aldershot.

The Scottish Liberal Association, at a meeting at Sterling at which Sir Henry Campbell-Bannerman presided, passed a resolution that "the continued existence of Lord Salisbury's Government threatens the country with humiliation and disaster and the Liberal party should unite under Sir Campbell-Bannerman's leadership for the government's overthrow."

During the course of his speech Sir Henry said the Liberals no longer feared for Ministerial denunciations. The nation had lost all confidence in the cabinet.

capability of the government though it might be sometime before the nation took entirely sane views of the terrible state of things in South Africa.

EDINBURGH, Oct. 23.—Mr. Chamberlain, Colonial Secretary, addressing more than 800 persons in Waverly Market, Edinburgh announced that the government intended to frame new rules for the House of Commons so as to limit Irish obstruction.

"We purpose," he says, "to bring forward rules which shall give to the majority of the commons greater control over its own business, and greater control over the men who insult and outrage it, and we shall endeavor to protect the mother of parliaments from those who would destroy her usefulness and reputation."

But this was not the only thing Mr. Chamberlain declared the government intended to do.

"The present representation of Ireland is," he said, "an abuse and scandal. No alteration could be made except in immediate anticipation of a general dissolution and we are not contemplating that. But when we get nearer to the time we shall ask you whether you think Irish representation is so precious to you, is so valuable to the national interests that it is desirable to know it on a scale which gives the Irish a representation enormously exceeding the proportionate representation of Ireland and England."

The Colonial Secretary went on to point out that on the basis of population Ireland had thirty members too many in the house of Commons and on the basis of her contributions for imperial purposes, as considered at the time of the union, he had from 40 to 50 members too many.

"I say that this constitutes an abuse," he continued, "and there is no reason why it should be perpetuated."

In another portion of the speech, which was largely devoted to the Irish question, he observed: "If these gentlemen who now openly shout for the Mahdi and pray for the Boers, if they had a parliament of their own, if all of the strings of Irish government had been in their hands, if they had the power, it is not certain they would have refused to have paid their contribution to the war and that would have placed us in a position of embarrassment."

The relations of the parliamentary opposition with the Irish party, Mr. Chamberlain said, he considered "dangerous to the empire." In reviewing the war in South Africa, which he declared again had been forced upon Great Britain by the Boers he said the government acknowledged that it had made a mistake as to the time of ending the war and that he admired the tenacity of the Boers, but he insisted that it was the duty of Great Britain to meet this tenacity with equal resolution.

"I think the time has come, or is coming," said the Colonial Secretary, "when measures of greater severity may be necessary and if that time comes we can find precedents for anything we do, in the actions of those nations who now criticize our barbarity and cruelty, but whose examples in Poland, in the Caucasus, in Algeria, in Tonquin, in Bosnia and in the Franco-German War we have never approached."

REBELS TAKE A CITY

WASHINGTON, Oct. 26.—Consul General Gudgeon, at Panama, in a dispatch to the state department dated Oct. 14th, says the report has reached him that at Tamaco the Liberals captured the Morro which commands the entrance to the city and surrounded the government troops. Effort has been made to relieve the troops but to no purpose. It is expected the city will soon be taken.

ARMY CHANGES MADE

In the Philippines by Sec'y. Root

Report on Ordinance Made by General Miles.

New Canal Treaty That Will Meet the Ideas of all the Leaders.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 25.—Having reached a decision to check, at least temporarily, the natural reduction which is going on in the United States Army in the Philippines as a consequence of the expiration of terms of enlistment, Secretary Root has before him details of a plan for replacing these men from the forces now in the United States while a final determination as to the particular organizations as to exchange has not been reached, as it is in contemplation to withdraw from the Philippines the Fourth, Thirteenth, Seventeenth, Twentieth, Twenty-First, Twenty-Second and Twenty-Third Infantry, the organizations to return to the United States in order in which they went to the islands. Before leaving the Philippines there will be many changes in these organizations, however, for it is the intention of exchange into them from the other regiments in the Philippines the men whose terms of enlistment are about to expire.

To take the place of returning troops, the Department will send out the Eleventh, Twelfth and Fifteenth cavalry and the Twenty-seventh, Twenty-eighth and Twenty-ninth infantry. The cavalry organizations will be brought up to the maximum strength by recruitment before they go out, while the infantry regiments will be swelled up to the exceptional figure of 1600 men each. In addition at least 1000 men will be recruited and sent out in battalion organizations for attachment to depleted regiments in the Philippines.

The Quartermaster's Department is making every preparation to discharge this heavy transportation problem and it is believed that the government can begin within a month after the orders are issued.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 26.—The army board of ordinance and fortifications, headed by Lieutenant-General Miles has submitted to the War Department for transmission to Congress its report for the eight months ended June 30, 1901. The board asks for an appropriation of $200,000 to carry on its work during the coming year. It had a balance of $209,662 on hand on June 30 last.

The board urges upon Congress the importance of making liberal appropriations for the purchase of ammunition and for the practical instruction of artillery, and renews a former recommendation to provide the coast artillery with at least three practice ranges—one for the North Atlantic Coast, one for the South Atlantic and Gulf and one for the Pacific, pointing out that target practice with heavy guns is practically out of the question under present conditions.

A recommendation is made that appropriations be made for the purchase of rapid fire guns and mounts in proportion to the large calibre guns and mortars installed. The rapid fire principle, as applied to all guns of six inch calibre and less, it is said, has now reached such perfection of mechanical development as to leave no question of its efficiency and utility in service and at least 20 such guns, the report says, should be provided for each important fortified harbor.

New York, Oct. 26.—General Greeley, Chief of the United States Signal Service in Washington, returned to New York on Wednesday, on the Columbia, says the Herald's London correspondent. He was a recent caller at the American Embassy. General Greeley expressed himself as highly pleased to get back from the Philippines.

VOLGA WATERWAY BLOCKED

New York, Oct. 26.—A dispatch from Odessa to the London Times and the New York Times says the water of the Volga is falling at an alarming rate, and that there is no hope of getting the accumulated traffic through before the river is ice bound. Several hundred steamers and ice barges are aground.

Grave charges of mismanagement and corrupt practices have been made against the contractors and officials connected with the administration of the Volga waterway.

which the new Hay-Panncote treaty should be drawn and the State Department is satisfied it has now succeeded in framing a convention that will meet the complete acquiescence of the Senatorial leaders. This is true even of some of the Democratic Senators.

Mr. Choate, United States Ambassador at London, who is now in New England, has reported fully to Secretary Hay upon the conditions as he left them in London.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 26.—Orders for the movement of troops have been announced as follows: The 60th, 62nd, 63rd, 64th, 65th, 68th, 70th and 71st companies of Coast Artillery from the Philippines to San Francisco, where they will be assigned to stations in the department of California.

SOUTH AMERICAN ARMIES

New York, Oct. 26.—President Castro of Venezuela, has sent a dispatch to Senator Barriel, President of the state of Bolivar, announcing that circumstances have required him to lease a decree suspending the grants of all expenses to the several states, including grants of expenditures for public instruction and the clergy of the Republic, says the Port of Spain correspondent of the Herald. A vessel sailing under British registry, which started from Port of Spain for Barranquilla, put into Colofos to seek protection.

Her Captain said that she had been chased by the Venezuelan gunboat Miranda. Other reports call attention to this and similar acts perpetrated by Venezuelan gunboats under command of General Ybarra.

The relations between President Castro and General Uribe Uribe, it is reported, are seriously strained owing to the latter's failure to defeat the Colombian forces.

New York, Oct. 26.—The Port of Spain, Trinidad, correspondent of the Herald cables: "The latest advices received here indicate that the revolution in Colombia has sustained a severe check. General Rojas, who led the insurgents in an attack upon the government forces near the frontier of Ecuador has been defeated.

The number of casualties is not known but it is reported that General Rojas was killed. According to an official bulletin in Laguneras, the port of Caracas, General Wrostecki and Salazar, who were taken prisoners by the Venezuelan revolutionists, have escaped.

This bulletin also announces that General Rivas and his revolutionary force has been defeated and their ammunition captured.

SHIPMENT OF WAR UTENSILS

SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 26.—Suspicious circumstances surrounding a big shipment of arms and ammunition on the Chilean steamer Los, now lying in this port, has led to an action, by the United States officials, to prevent any possibility of the warlike goods reaching the hands of the Central American insurgents.

The cases contain 4,500 Remington rifles and bayonets and 2,500,000 ball cartridges. The bills of lading show that the guns and ammunition came to this city from El Paso, where they are supposed to have been reshipped from some point in Mexico.

The ships manifest stated that the munitions of war were for the government of Salvador and were to be landed at Acapulco, the Consul General of Salvador were disclaiming knowledge of the shipment, through Schwarz Bros, the ostensible shippers claims to be acting for Bloom Bros., of New York, who are agents for the Government of Salvador. The steamer will be held pending an investigation by the United States authorities.
