Witness in Rice Case. NEW YORK, Oct. 28.—Two new witnesses have been found by the prosecution in the case against Lawyer Albert T. Patrick, charged with murder of William Marsh Rice. The District attorney refuses to give their names but they will corroborate the testimony of Vallet Jones, it is denied.

EXTRA GUARDS WATCH

All Trains Entering Auburn, N. Y.

And Men Will be Placed in His Cell all Night.

The Death-Sentence Will be Read to Him This Evening.

AUBURN, N. Y., Oct. 28.—Officials of Auburn prison today began the final preparations for the execution of Leon F. Czolgosz, Tuesday morning. It is expected that the prison officials will use every precaution to prevent Czolgosz from talking in the death chamber, if being their desire that anything he may wish to say shall be said in the condemned cell. The prisoner's attitude is reported unchanged. Apparently he does not desire to see anyone. He declines to talk except in monosyllables. Tonight at six o'clock after the death warrant has been read, an extra guard will be placed in the cell with Czolgosz. Extra guard at the prison gates will be maintained until after the execution. Police keep a close watch on all trains entering the city.

MILES' ANNUAL REPORT

Hull's Reorganization Bill Created Another Bureau

WASHINGTON, Oct. 28.—Lieut. General Miles in his annual report gives the total strength of the army at present as 81,513, of which number 33,874 are in the United States and 47,639 in the Philippines. Miles does not approve of the present organization of the artillery corps saying it established another bureau at Washington.

He believes in the former regimental organizations. Speaking of the army canteen, which is abolished by the army reorganization law, he says no injury resulted, and in the main the canteen law was beneficial.

RUSSIAN EXPORTS GROWING

NEW YORK, Oct. 28.—The Odessa correspondent of the London Times and the New York Times says the Russian customs returns show a great increase in exports lately. In 1890, the imports exceeded the exports by 28,000,000 roubles ($14,420,000). In 1900 the exports exceeded the imports by 5,000,000 roubles, while in the first half of the current year the exports exceeded the imports by 53,000,000 roubles. Comparing the first half of this year with the same period in 1899, the export of foodstuffs increased 43,000,000 roubles and that of unfinished products 12,000,000 roubles.

NEW YORK, Oct. 28.—The St. Petersburg correspondent of the London Times and the New York Times commenting upon the customs returns, says it is interesting to note that while Russia imported from the United States in the first half of this year goods valued at 22,777,000 roubles, the value of the return trade, consisting almost entirely of sugar, is estimated at only 2,267,000 roubles.

RELIGION IN PERU

NEW YORK, Oct. 28.—A dispatch to the Herald from Lima, Peru, says previous to the closing of Congress, Senator Brasas submitted a plan of constitutional reform under which all religions will be tolerated in Peru, but only the state religion will be recognized in public ceremonies.

Lieut. Gov. Northcott will speak at the Grand Opera House Tuesday night for the Modern Woodmen.

FOUND IN TEN DAYS

To Rescue Miss Stone if Living.

That is Now the Limit Promised From Various Sources

Sofia Evening Paper Tells the Story of How They Were Captured.

SOFIA, Bulgaria, Oct. 28.—Six young Bulgarians have banded themselves together to search for Miss Stone and Mme. Telka, with the consent of the Bulgarian authorities. They left Samakov for Mebomia with this object in view. Absence of news about Miss Stone has led to revival of the report that she is already killed.

NEW YORK, Oct. 28.—According to the Sofia correspondent of the Journal and Advertiser, Colonel Kantschew, Prefect of the Bulgarian police, has made the following statement regarding Miss Stone, the missing missionary: "If Miss Stone is living she will be found within 10 days. Three different parties are now en route to establish communication with the brigands. Dickinson has sent two young men from Sofia. They are Macedonians and know the country well. A party of five has gone from Spankov with the same object. They are former pupils of Miss Stone and volunteered for the trip. Mr. Dickinson pays all expenses.

"The third party consisted of one sent by the Russian Minister. This is the most mysterious affair we have had since the court photographer was captured in the woods near Samakov 13 years ago. He is still living, and his frugal life with the brigands cured him of several diseases.

"It is ominous that nothing has been heard of the captive for a month. Our severe measures have driven the brigands from the frontier to the interior and it is known there will be a race between the three relief parties to see which will find her first. Some one is sure to find her if living."

Consul General Dickinson asserts that the real cause of the delay in finding Miss Stone is the rivalry between the Turkish and Bulgarian Governments who fix the responsibility on each other. Turkey wants to find her in Bulgarian Territory and vice versa.

Mr. Dickinson also declared that 300 Bulgarian soldiers are totally inadequate for the frontier over 100 miles long.

NEW YORK, Oct. 28.—A special to the Press from Boston says: Under the caption "The Odyssey of Miss Ellen Stone," the Evening Post of Sofia, Bulgaria, copies of which have just been received in Boston, publishes a description of the capture of the American missionary. The article contains an interview with Konstantine Pleten, the Bulgarian horse keeper whose horses were ridden by Miss Stone and her party when they were held up by the brigands from the frontier. It thus describes the capture: "We were traveling from Banko to Djumay (both are in Turkish territory) upon the mountain road. In this place known as Gradoviste there suddenly appeared ten men who, covering us with Mausers, called out 'surrender!'"

"We were all on horseback, six women and three men, including Grigor Telka (the husband of Mme. Telka) and the student Dimitr Kostov. We all dismounted and were driven straight up the mountain. The place was impassable. The saddles of the horses and even the clothes of the women were scratched and torn to threads by the heavy underbrush.

"About 600 metres from Leaning Rock our captors were joined by 22 more Turks and Arabs, who searched the women and took away their watches and other valuables on the spot. Miss Stone had about 50 lire Turkish with her. Then they led off Miss Stone and Mme. Telka and left the rest of us under a guard of fifteen men. There we remained all night under pain of being shot if we stirred. When daybreak came we saw that the guard had vanished and we went to Mahonia.

"The brigands spoke only Turkish. On the day after my arrest in Mebomia I was taken before the Kadi, who urged me to say that the brigands were Bulgarians. This I refused to do, because I did not wish to perjure myself. Then they put me on the ground and beat me with rods and kicked me until I was unconscious. On the next day the Turkish soldiers captured all the woodcutters in the mountains of Gradoviste and massacred the men, while the women and children were driven to Djumay in chains. After three days I was released and succeeded in making my way to the mountains and then escaped into Bulgaria."

In another issue the Sofia Post prints an interview with a Macedonian refugee who made his escape from Bulgarian territory into Bulgaria.

The Post quotes the refugee as saying: "In the town of Gradovo 15 townsman were driven in chains to Djumay, where they were subjected to fearful tortures in prison. In the village of Sodinovo peasants were seized and their feet placed in vices.

After each tightening of the screws they were urged to make a confession identifying the brigands as Bulgarians. In many other villages the same barbarities are being practiced, all on the pretext of trying to locate the captured Americans."

THE WAR IN CHINA

Between the Commander of the Armies During Period of Occupation.

NEW YORK, Oct. 28.—The Paris Matin, says the Paris correspondent of the London Times and the New York Times, publishes three letters written by General Voyron, who commanded the French forces in China, to Field Marshal Count Von Waldersee. The letters show how strained, during the entire period of foreign occupation, were the relations between the French General and the Commander-in-chief of the allies. The publication, remarks the correspondent, is significant, because it must be by the consent of General Voyron or some authorized colleague of that General. The first letter upholds the French right to protect Catholic missions which Count Von Waldersee contested. The second letter, replying to the Field Marshal's protest against the numerous French flags run up between Peking and Pao Ting Fu, says that the French occupation does not exclude other powers except where French rights are exclusive. The third letter criticizes Count Von Waldersee's scheme for organizing the government of Peking.

TREACHERY OF NATIVE FILIPINOS

NEW YORK, Oct. 28.—Captain S. S. O'Connor, a former captain in the Ninth Regiment of the National Guard, who has just returned from the Philippines where he did valiant service as a captain in the Fourth Volunteer Infantry, said in an interview upon the subject of the massacre of the Ninth United States Infantry on the island of Samar:

"The American people can form no idea of the treachery of the natives. They have been likened to the American Indian, but the comparison does not do justice to their capacity for betrayal. Such a body of fighters as the Ninth Infantry are, never would have been caught in such a trap by the Indians. The Indians have never learned to play the friend like the Filipino. A soldier on the western plains would be on his guard always against the redskins but they cannot disguise. They may ambush you and rush you at night, but they do not know how to play the amingo trick, as did the Filipinos.

"That the Filipino is a past master in treachery, I soon learned after getting into the field over there. Consequently I decided to be as severe as possible. I was provost marshal in several towns and apparently unduly harsh, but I found that the only way to meet the natives."

SEVERE STORM

VANCOUVER, B. C., Oct. 28.—The severest storm of the season broke over the Northern Coast last week and for three days shipping was nearly at a standstill. Skagway steamers were forced to seek shelter and the steamer New England and Capilano, which have arrived here report that the sea was the roughest seen on the North Coast for a year.

The greatest damage was done at Port Essington, just above the Indian village of Inverness. There the building of the Church of England had been levelled by the storm and a half a dozen other buildings were blown over and pieces of their roofs scattered for half a mile up the river.

RAILROAD MANAGERS

SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 28.—J. A. Monroe, freight traffic manager of the Union Pacific road, and C. J. Lane, first assistant general freight agent, have arrived here from Omaha to meet J. C. Stubbins, traffic director of the Harriman lines and Freight Traffic Manager William Spruille of the Southern Pacific, with whom they expect to spend several days in the discussion of traffic matters of mutual interest to the two roads.

Witness in Rice Case. NEW YORK, Oct. 28.—Two new witnesses have been found by the prosecution in the case against Lawyer Albert T. Patrick, charged with murder of William Marsh Rice. The District attorney refuses to give their names but they will corroborate the testimony of Vallet Jones, it is denied.

SCHLEY CONCLUDES TESTIMONY

Corrects Conversation Had With Evans.

Denies This His Ship Ever Turned and Ran to the South.

The Brooklyn Received the Full Bombardment of the Spanish Fleet.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 28.—When the Schley court of inquiry resumed sitting today, Admiral Schley continued his testimony. Raynor asked Schley regarding conversations with Captain Evans, July 4th to 5th.

"I would say of Captain Evans as I said of all others, I do not believe he would willingly misstate," said Schley.

"I think his recollection at fault. He did have a conversation with me relating to shooting of bow of one of torpedo boats, and stern of another, putting his helm to starboard, taking one ship then a port and raking another. My recollection now is that preliminarily he said to me:

"Did you see Captain Phillips start to run?" and I said 'No,' and that he was mistaken. It was the Brooklyn that made the turn, and I asked him if he did not see the tactical necessity for it.

Raynor then called Schley's attention to the testimony of Admiral Taylor and Captain Dawson, of battleship Indiana, to the effect that the Brooklyn, when she made the loop, went southward a mile or a mile and a half.

"I think they are entirely and absolutely mistaken," replied the witness. "I say emphatically the Brooklyn did not run south, and any statement to the contrary is a mistake."

The Admiral by permission spoke of the hits on the Spanish squadron. The Brooklyn, he testified, was the only ship carrying five-inch guns. Record showed thirty-six per cent of hits for the Brooklyn, and that she received thirty of forty-two hits from the Spanish fleet, or about seventy per cent. With this statement Admiral Schley concluded his direct testimony, and Judge Advocate Lomley began to cross examination.

DUKE OF MANCHESTER

May Not Receive Aid from Eugene Zimmerman.

NEW YORK, Oct. 28.—A dispatch from Kimbolton, England, to the World, says: It is now feared since the child of the Duke and Duchess of Manchester is a daughter and not a son, Eugene Zimmerman, the father of the Duchess will not make the settlement expected. It is positively stated that the Duchess has received nothing from her father since her marriage except the income from her dead mother's estate. Until a male heir is born, Lord Charles Montague, the second son of the Duchess of Devonshire (whose first husband was the present Duke of Manchester's grandfather) will remain the heir presumptive to the title and estate of the Duke of Manchester. It would greatly enhance the importance of the young Duchess of Manchester's position if she were the mother of the future Duke. The young Duke will not go to war now. He had intended to do so and had so announced if an heir to the title was born.

PANAMA CANAL QUESTION

NEW YORK, Oct. 28.—According to the Paris correspondent of the Herald, the Paris correspondent of the Herald, the London correspondent stating that the new treaty which is to be submitted to the Senate as the result of the conference of Mr. Choate and Lord Lansdowne and Paucotoff to take the place of the Clayton-Bulwer treaty, provides that the United States will be the sole guarantor of the principle of the neutralization of the canal and recognizes the right of the United States to fortify the canal. The stipulations of the new treaty will apply not only to the Nicaragua Canal, but to all other canals taken up by the United States.

BRITISH ARMY OFFICERS

Will be Questioned as to Their Conduct.

Boers Captured While Cultivating Fields -- German Press Antagonistic to England.

The Dutch Contemplating a Boycott of British Commerce.

NEW YORK, Oct. 28.—Nothing has been heard for some time of the promise made by the government to institute an inquiry into military operations in South Africa, particularly in regard to the Modder River and Natal campaigns, says the London correspondent of the Tribune. The promise was exacted at a time when untoward events at the seat of war were stirring up popular feeling in England, but as the causes which led to the demand have to a large extent passed into the background the desire for an official inquiry waned considerably. Recent revelations in the Buller controversy have awakened recollections of the promise and the matter will be raised as soon as Parliament meets. The government will be asked to include in the scope of the inquiry all the allegations which have been made and are being made against certain British officers in respect to their conduct toward the soldiers under them.

NEW YORK, Oct. 28.—Discussing the recent reported capture of Boers, the London correspondent of the Tribune says:

Two much importance is not to be attached to the reported capture of 250 Boers in the Rustenburg district. These men were mostly unarmed and apparently engaged in cultivating the fields, presumably to provide footstuffs for their most belligerent comrades.

NEW YORK, Oct. 28.—According to the Brussels correspondent of the London Times and the New York Times, the Independence Belge says the nations of the continent are paving the way for a situation that is likely to breed a plentiful crop of troubles for themselves in their discussions and actions upon the Boer question. The British nation is fully conscious of the danger arising from universal dislike, says that newspaper, and may make a supreme effort to consolidate the Anglo-Baxon race the world over, whereby Europe's commercial and industrial supremacy would be seriously threatened.

NEW YORK, Oct. 28.—Mr. Chamberlain's speech at Edinburgh last Friday evening, says the Berlin correspondent of the London Times and the New York Times, has evoked a perfect storm of indignation protest on the part of the German press. The Neuste Nachrichten says Mr. Chamberlain ought long ago to have withdrawn into private life.

The National Zeitung says that Great Britain treats the Boers, who are still, in a military sense, masters of the country.

NEW YORK, Oct. 28.—The Brussels correspondent of the London Times and the New York Times, says the agitation among the Dutch Workmen's Association in favor of boycotting British commerce has succeeded in arousing a certain amount of notice in the Dutch and Belgian press.

It is generally admitted that an attempt to boycott British vessels at Rotterdam would mean ruin for local interests.

RUSSIAN PEASANTS

Will Lose Their Horses and Cattle for Want of Feed.

St. Petersburg, Oct. 15.—(Correspondent of the Associated Press.)—A letter from Saratoff predicts the wholesale loss of horses and cattle unless energetic measures are taken to provide fodder. The government Zemstvo has declined to assume the responsibility for the repayment of an advance of 350,000 roubles for this purpose and the central government has not yet decided whether to loan the money to the peasants without guarantee. The government has never recovered from the loss of horses and cattle during the previous famine of the last 10 years, four of which have been marked by partial or complete crop failures in some districts. The Zemstvo has declared the entire province to be in a state of famine and has voted 250,000 roubles for highway and 100,000 for the purchase of grain.

Under circumstances which point to possible suicide, the body of George C. Howell, a miner from Alaska, has been found in his room at Oakland, Cal.
