WILL TAKE PART

Governor and Mayor will Assist in Opening Ceremonies

The Former will Make an Address and the Latter Receive and Assist in Crowning Queen

Preparing for the opening of the Carnival the General Manager and executive board have invited both Governor Chamberlain and Mayor Bishop to be present and take part in the crowning of the queen and other opening ceremonies. The invitations and replies are as follows:

Salem, Oregon, June 1, 1903. Hon. Geo. E. Chamberlain, Governor of Oregon, Salem, Oregon.

Dear Sir: As General Manager of the Greater Salem Midsummer Carnival, and in the name of the Executive Board having charge of that festival, I very respectfully request your compliance with the expressed wish of the committee, namely: that at 8 o'clock on the evening of June 29th, 1903, at the Carnival grounds in this City you will deliver a brief inaugural address opening the greatest festival ever known in Salem. We shall count ourselves particularly fortunate if you can see your way to honor us.

Awaiting your earliest convenient reply, I am with great respect, Your obedient servant, N. J. JUDAH, General Manager.

Salem, Oregon, June 2, 1903. Hon. N. J. Judah, Mayor of Salem, Oregon.

Dear Sir: I am directed by the Governor to acknowledge receipt of your favor of June 1st, requesting the Governor to deliver a brief inaugural address at the opening of the Salem Carnival.

The Governor requests me to state that he will take great pleasure in availing himself of the opportunity of making an address upon that occasion. Yours very truly, W. N. GATENS, Private Secretary.

Salem, Oregon, June 1, 1903. Hon. C. P. Bishop, Mayor of Salem, Oregon.

Dear Sir: It is the expressed wish of the Executive Board of the Greater Salem Midsummer Carnival that you will take leading part in the reception of the Carnival ceremonies incident to the installation of the Queen of the Carnival at 8 o'clock on the night of June 29th, 1903, at the Carnival grounds in this city, at which time and place we shall ask you to formally receive the queen, crown her and abdicate your position in her favor for the Carnival week in such terms as your own particular invention shall indicate. The Price of Pleasure.

It is hard for a lovely woman to forego the pleasures of the life which she was created to enjoy and adorn. She may have to be busy all day in office or in store, yet she cannot deny herself the social pleasures which are offered her.

But the fatigue is often too great for her, and she suffers from headache and backache as a consequence of over-exertion. Women who are tired and worn out will find a perfect tonic and nerve in Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription. It cures headache, backache and the other aches and pains to which women are subject. It establishes regularity, dries weakening drains, heals inflammation and ulceration, and cures female weakness. It makes weak women strong and sick women well.

"I am so pleased with your instructions, I hardly know what to say to you for your kind favors," writes Mrs. M. B. Bryant, of Loda, Tennessee, Co. Ga. "I suffered so much with great stomach and palpitation of the heart that at times I could hardly lie down. Could hardly get up in the morning, but after using three bottles of Favorite Prescription, I and two children of Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets, I am like a new woman."

Sick women, especially those suffering from diseases of long standing, are invited to consult Dr. Pierce, by letter, free. All correspondence is held as strictly private and sacredly confidential. Address Dr. R. V. Pierce, Buffalo, N. Y.

Letters from Women

Cured by the use of Kodol are received daily. Their troubles nearly all begin with indigestion or other stomach disorder.

If the food you eat fails to give strength to your body, it is because the juices secreted by the stomach and digestive organs are inadequate to transform the nutrient properties of the food into blood. That is indigestion. The system is deprived of the amount of nourishment required to keep up the strength, and the result is that one or more of the delicate organs gradually grows weak, and then weaker, until finally it is diseased. Here a great mistake is made. That of treating the diseased organ. The best doctors in the land make this very mistake. Why should they? It is so easy to see that the trouble is not there.

Kodol Cures

This famous remedy puts the stomach and digestive organs in a healthy condition so that rich, red blood is sent coursing through the veins and arteries of every muscle, tissue and fiber throughout every organ of the entire body, and by Nature's law of health, full strength and vigor is soon restored to each.

Kodol cures indigestion, dyspepsia and all stomach disorders. I have taken Kodol for nearly two months after each meal and it is the only remedy that gave relief from the terrible pains I endured. After a time I would take it but once a day, and now, while I keep a bottle handy, I seldom need it, as it has cured me. Mrs. J. W. COOLIDGE, Milo Center, N. Y.

Salem, Oregon, June 2, 1903. N. J. Judah, General Manager, Salem Midsummer Carnival.

Dear Sir: Replying to yours of June 1st, pertaining to opening of Carnival, would say that I thank you for this kind invitation and if it is thought that the presence of the Mayor of Greater Salem will contribute in any way to the dignity or honor of the occasion, I will be pleased to be present. Very truly yours, C. P. BISHOP.

Restand Now an Academician.

Paris, June 4.—The reception of Edmond Restand at the Academy today was a Parisian event of the first order. According to what academicians say, for many years past, or not since the reception of Paul Bourget, there has not been such a crush or such a demand for tickets. It was before a party of well dressed ladies and literary celebrities that M. Restand made his entry between his pair of sponsors.

At the president's desk were seated the Vicomte Melehoir, M. Gaston Boissier, the secretary, and other officers of the academy. There was quite a full compliment of members of the institute. The other four sections, which, with the academy proper, constitute the institute of France were also well represented.

M. Restand began to read his address in strong well-pitched tones and his remarks were frequently interrupted by applause. He touched upon literary matters in general and after a superb eulogium of literary probity he took his seat amid a burst of applause.

The sitting was brilliant for M. Restand, who scored a great success. He succeeded in making all that possibly could be made out of the literary personality of his predecessor, M. Henri de Bornier, and created a superb piece of oratorical literature.

Elected Queen.

Miss Inez Williams, of Dusty, is to be queen of the carnival. When the voice were all in, at midnight Monday, she was far in the lead. Her total vote was 12140. The next to her was Miss Mae Gibson, with a total of 3727. The vote of the others was: Miss Dilley, 1609; Miss Henkle, 458; Miss Lane, 182; Miss Davis and Miss Alford, each 100.
