

PICKED WHILE ALIVE

Unnecessary Torture in Preparing Turkeys for Market

Eye-Witness Describes the Process—One Picker Says He Saw Picked Bird Run Away

The pretty little city of Oakland, in Douglas county, Oregon, is a sort of a turkey metropolis, and people seem to give more attention to the raising of the national bird than does any other locality in the state; at least, Oakland ships more turkeys than any place in the state of anywhere near its size. We have shipped from here within the last day or two about 11,000 birds, and we congratulate ourselves. And now I want to call attention of all good people to the exquisite torture and cruelty of their slaughter. But, before, I proceed, I want to exonerate the dealers of any responsibility in the matter, for they are probably as humane as the rest of us, but the market requirements are such that they are possibly unable to handle fowls otherwise. The bird is "stuck," or bled, in the mouth, and as soon as this is done it is handed to the picker, who hangs it up by the feet, and then goes to picking, and this seems to be the most terrible torture, for the bird seems not to heed the operation of sticking, or the very slow loss of blood, which is a protracted dribble, but protests with a most piteous shriek as each handful of feathers is jerked out of his body, and when the picker pulls out the wing feathers, which he does first, he frequently pulls the wings out of joint, and the frantic struggle of the tortured bird you may imagine; but that plaintive, piteous shriek of pain you must hear to appreciate. I was told by a picker tonight that a few days ago he saw a turkey picked clean and handed over to the boss, who received it and gave a check for it, and the bird escaped from him and ran some distance and was caught and then killed, and anyone who desires can see live turkeys hanging on the rack.

Talk about the horrors of the Inquisition—that was fanaticism. Of Indian torture—that was vengeance. Of vivisection—that is necessary, perhaps. But this turkey torture cannot find justification in anything but usage and arbitrary market requirements. As to the remedy, The bird should be decapitated, and then the picker could go to work at once and get the fowl picked while warm, and we could be sure that the bird was, from the moment of decapitation, insensible.

I had thought of writing to the Humane society, or some such organization, and imploring their intervention. But finally came to this conclusion:

We are sending out from this place 11,000 Thanksgiving turkeys, all to be served up on this Coast, and it does not strain one's imagination, or his mathematics, to see this contribution of Douglas county to our great annual national feast the crowning glory of family feasts and reunions in 10,000 homes, and to realize that 20,000 fathers and mothers will, as they survey the delicacies which their love and bounty have provided,

There often comes a time in the struggle with pulmonary disease when the victim loses heart and gives up hope. The ambition to be up and around gives way before growing weakness, and the sufferer keeps to the bed.

No one who suffers from lung disease should lose heart or give up hope while there is a possibility of cure. In many cases Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery has cured lung "trouble" when the cough was obstinate and deep seated, with hemorrhage, emaciation, night-sweats and general weakness. A great many men and women are living to-day in the full enjoyment of health and happiness who had been "given up" by doctors, but found a perfect and permanent cure in the use of "Golden Medical Discovery."

"My wife had hemorrhage of the lungs," writes W. A. Sanders, of Hern, Mason Co., W. Va. "she had ten hemorrhages, and the people all around here said she would never be well again. But she began to take Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery and she soon began to gain strength and flesh. After taking ten bottles she was as healthy as I. Should you think this would do you any good to publish, just use it, and if any one disputes the merits of this almost omnipotent medicine they may refuse self-addressed envelope with stamp, and I will answer, the same as written in this letter."

FREE. Dr. Pierce's Common Sense Medical Adviser is sent free on receipt of stamps to pay expense of mailing only. Send 21 one-cent stamps for the book in paper covers, or 31 stamps for the cloth-bound volume. Address Dr. R. V. Pierce, Buffalo, N. Y.

feel a little more gratitude to the giver of all good for the objects of their devotion and their ability to gratify them, and that 40,000 children (for race suicide does not prevail here yet) may call for more Douglas county turkeys and say it is good. Hereafter, henceforth and forever, will it be the prayer of your humble scribe that each one of these 20,000 parents and 40,000 children will never buy a Thanksgiving turkey that has not died of decapitation.

I had two bridges placed in my mouth, and a tooth extracted, and can say that it is the only dental work I have ever had done that did not torture me beyond endurance.

Climatic Cures.

The influence of climatic conditions in the cure of consumption is very much overdrawn. The poor patient, and the rich patient, too, can do much better at home by proper attention to food digestion, and a regular course of German Syrup. Free expectoration in the morning is made certain by German Syrup, so is a good night's rest and the absence of that weakening cough and debilitating night-sweat. Restless nights and the exhaustion due to coughing, the greatest danger and dread of the consumptive, can be prevented or stopped by taking German Syrup liberally and regularly. Should you be able to go to a warmer climate you will find that of the thousands of consumptives there, the few who are benefited and regain strength are those who use German Syrup. Trial bottle, 25c; regular size, 75c. At all druggists. At Dr. Stone's drug stores.

Many Extra Eyes.

Many animals possess more than two eyes which do not act together. A leech, for example, has 10 eyes on the top of its head which do not work in concert, and a kind of marine worm has two eyes on the head and a row down each side of the body. Some lizards have an extra eye on the top of the head which does not act with the other two. A bee or wasp has two large compound eyes, which possibly help each other and are used for near vision, and also three little simple eyes on top of the head which are employed for seeing things a long way off.—TIT-BITS.

Bed Time

I take a pleasant herb drink, the next morning I feel bright and my complexion is better. My doctor says it acts gently on the stomach, liver and kidneys, and is a pleasant laxative. It is made of herbs, and is prepared as easily as tea. It is called Lane's medicine. All druggists sell it at 25c and 50 cents. Lane's Family Medicine moves the bowels each day. If you cannot get it, send for free samples. Address, Orator Woodward, LeRoy, N. Y.

We do what We Claim

We kill and remove cancers and tumors without the aid of a knife.

Read the testimony of a prominent Salem man:

TO THE PUBLIC. In justice to Dr. Cook, and that the world may know what great work he is doing, I wish to inform them that I have been taking treatment from him for the past fifteen months and in that time he has removed from my alimentary canal three tumors of cancerous growths, as large as a man's hand, all from the larger intestine. Also another cancerous growth from off my right right foot and another from my right thumb. This has all been accomplished through medicines alone, they killing the growth and the spider like roots and nature itself casting them off, without the aid of knife or surgery. I do not believe I could have found equally successful treatment anywhere in the world and cheerfully recommend Dr. J. F. Cook, the Botanical Doctor, to all who read this testimonial. R. J. Spencer. We can do as much for you or more if you need it.

J. F. COOK

Deutscher Botanical Doctor. Cures all Diseases. Salem, Liberty St.
