AMUSEMENTS.

TONIGHT.
Edison—Vaudeville.
COMING ATTRACTIONS.
Grand—Charles B. Hanford.

Charles B. Hanford.
The appearance of Mr. Charles B. Hanford in "Orpheus" at the Grand opera house on Friday, March 3, is an event of more than ordinary interest, as he represents the school of acting which is considered in the fore front. An actor who has remained "good" for so long, over the same circuit and before the same people, as has Mr.

Hanford, secures a standing which cannot be estimated lightly. Mr. Hanford's name is a guarantee. He has been a welcome visitor season after season for many years and has never failed to give a performance which gratified the critical sense and delighted the auditor who seeks the theater for an evening's diversion. Trained as he was in his early career by the great masters of his art, he has steadfastly clung to the highest ideals of his profession and has claimed the admiring confidence of the public as an actor, as a manager and as a producer.

New Edison Theater.

Next week the management of the popular Edison theater has one of the strongest bills of the season to offer. Every act is a top-liner; every act the highest salaried in their special line. Particular stress is laid upon the performance of Baby June Mandeville, the justly wonder of the twentieth century. The remarkable talent displayed by this prodigy has baffled many investigators. She occupies the stage for 15 minutes, and holds the audience spellbound. In conjunction with this wonder there will be Ted & Lazell, eastern stars; Berger Bros., remarkable acrobats, and the usual accessories necessary to make up an Edison program. Next week's "Bill."

Sheriff Has Collected $70,000.

Tax money in large sums is still being received by Sheriff Culver, he having received on the tax rolls, up to date, over $70,000, and issued about 1900 receipts. The exact sum deposited in the bank last night amounted to $66,000.74. He has turned over to the county treasurer already $41,562.52, and will make another turnover on Monday.

SOCIAL EVENTS

George Washington Party.

"The Oaks," the pleasant home of Mrs. E. A. Pierce, was the scene of a most enjoyable gathering Wednesday afternoon, when Mrs. E. A. Pierce and Mrs. F. E. Slater entertained about 30 of their friends in honor of Washington's birthday. The decorations were entirely in keeping with the day, red, white and blue being everywhere noticeable.

The amusement of the afternoon was "blind" whist. The "Washington" ideas were carried out in the score cards, which were red, white and blue hatchets. The first prize was won by Mrs. Russell Catlin, which was an etching of George Washington. The second prize, a pot of red tulips, was won by Mrs. T. C. Smith, Sr., and the consolation, a bottle of cherries, was won by Mrs. J. B. Whitney.

The decoration scheme was carried out very nicely in the dainty luncheon. Little tin hatchets adorned the cakes, while the ices were served in red, white and blue cases. Mrs. H. J. O. tenheimer assisted in the serving.

The affair was enjoyable in every way, and the handsomely gowned ladies, together with the congenial surroundings, made it one of unusual pleasure.

Afternoon Reception.

One of the society events of the past week was the afternoon reception Tuesday, at which Mrs. E. Breyman, Mrs. C. L. McNary and Mrs. R. P. Boise, Jr., received over 150 ladies at the Breyman home on Court street. The event was in honor of Washington's birthday, and the decoration of the home was in keeping with the day, the national flags being much in evidence.

The ladies were assisted in receiving by Mrs. Wm. Brown, Mrs. W. H. Byrd, Mrs. Willis Morris, Mrs. Henry Meyer and Miss Bertha Byrd. The door was opened by George and Martha Washington in costume. Donald Byrd took the part of George Washington, while Breyman Boise was Martha. Mrs. R. F. Prael, of Portland, presided at the punch bowl. Refreshments were served in the dining room, and McElroy's orchestra discoursed music throughout the afternoon.

The affair was one of the most brilliant of the social season.

Entertained Friends.

The home of Mr. and Mrs. D. P. West, on Summer and Union streets, was the scene of an enjoyable event on Monday evening, when they entertained a number of their friends at progressive "Hearts," the occasion being in honor of Mrs. West's birthday. The first prizes were won by Mrs. A. L. Brown and R. C. Fisher, and the consolation prizes were captured by Mrs. S. A. McFadden and Russell Stevens.

With social conversation and other amusements the evening passed very pleasantly. Dainty refreshments were served during the evening.

Those present were: Mr. and Mrs. E. D. Stover, Mr. and Mrs. S. A. McFadden, Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Brown, Mr. and Mrs. D. H. James, Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Hall, Mr. and Mrs. Col. J. Olmstead, Mr. and Mrs. T. B. Davis, Mr. and Mrs. P. L. West, Mr. and Mrs. F. A. Powell, the Misses Belle West, Mae Stevens and Russell Stevens.

Enjoyable Social Party.

Miss Bertin Kay entertained a number of young people last evening in a most delightful manner at the home of her sister, Mrs. C. P. Bishop, on Church street. She was assisted in receiving by Roy and Channey Bishop. The entertainment of the evening consisted of music, both vocal and instrumental, and games. Refreshments were served during the course of the evening. Mrs. C. P. Bishop, Miss Sallie Shaw, Misses Bessie and Eva Co-show and Miss Gabrielson assisted in the serving.

The evening was a delightfully informal affair, and Miss Kay won new laurels in her art of entertaining.

Those attending from out of town were: Miss Stewart, Albany; Miss Bessie Coshow, Roseburg; Miss Freeman, Portland; Miss Slade, Boston; Miss Simonton, Portland, and Miss Mabel Jones, Brooks.

Surprise Party.

A number of friends of Miss Grace Dane surprised her at the home of her parents last evening in South Salem, in a very pleasant manner. The evening was spent in playing numerous games, and the young people made merry until a late hour.

Enjoyable Social.

The Women of Woodcraft gave a most enjoyable basket social last evening in their hall at the Holman block. The chief feature of the evening was the selling of the baskets at auction. Dancing was the amusement of the evening, and the time was spent very pleasantly.
