A Positive Necessity.

Having to lay upon my bed for 14 days from a severely bruised leg, I only found relief when I used a bottle of Ballard's Snow Liniment. I can cheerfully recommend it as the best medicine for bruises ever sent to the afflicted. It has now become a positive necessity upon myself.

TEXAS RANGER TONIGHT

Lyceum Company Puts up a Good Southern Play Tonight

"The Texas Ranger," a play possessing all the requisites of a characteristic frontier melo-drama, will be presented at the Grand Opera House tonight.

The play has an innocent exile hero, under the name of Jack Dallam. He meets with reverses, and when out on the plains in need of medical assistance is found and nursed to health by "White Pawn," an Indian maiden, who loves him, and refuses to leave her. He afterwards marries her, and becomes what is known as a "squaw man." After their son attains the age of six years, Mrs. Alice Rosleigh, accompanied by the family attorney, Mr.

 Thomas Jackson, comes to take the child back to the east to educate him in the ways of the world, and fit him to take charge of the family estate, to which he has fallen heir.

"White Pawn," the mother, on learning of the intention to take away her little son, grieves and finally commits suicide, leaving Jack Dallam or Frank

Mr. Zella Covington, The Lyceum Theatre Company.

Frank Rosleigh, who takes his brother's crime on his shoulders to shield the family name from disgrace, and emigrates to Texas, and becomes a ranger Rosleigh to return East with his boy.

 The Kecey Sisters and Miss May Fleming will entertain between the acts with clever sketches.

NEXT WEEK'S PLAYS

Mr. Lee Willard, the young actor, has done some remarkably good work in support of Henry Miller, Nance O'Neill and Frederick Warl. He has been formerly connected with companies in New York, Chicago, Philadelphia and all the great Eastern cities.

Mr. Willard has a fine presence and strong personality. He is exceedingly clever and versatile, and is destined to permanence on the great Broadway of New York. He has strong dramatic ability, and handles his roles with the finish of an artist.

Mr. Willard appears at the Grand Opera House on Monday, the 7th, in a "Gay Deceiver," which is a play that gives great opportunity for not only the star, but every member of the company.

Miss Marie Dunn, who supports Mr.
 Willard, is well-known throughout the United States, England and Australia, having supported Mr. Wilson Barrett.

Postmaster Robbed.

G. W. Fouts, postmaster at Riverton, Ia., nearly lost his life and was robbed of all comfort, according to his letter, which says: "For 20 years I had chronic liver complaint, which led to such a severe case of jaundice that even my finger nails turned yellow; when my doctor prescribed Electric Bitters; which cured me and have kept me well for 11 years." Sure cure for biliousness, neuralgia, weakness and all stomach, liver, kidney and bladder troubles.
 A wonderful tonic. At J. C. Perry's drug store. 50 cents.

Probate Matters.

In the matter of the estate of W.
 Scott Taylor, his wife, Annie E. Taylor, was yesterday appointed administratrix. The estate consists of property valued at $2000. The appraisers are P. H. Fitzgerald, James Fairchilds and B. A. Nathan. The heirs are the widow and a son, J. Lynn Taylor. The administratrix gave bond in the amount of $4000.

DOING FINE WORK

Lyceum Theater Company One of the Best Ever in Salem

The Lyceum Theater Company, while it will probably not carry away much of Salem's money will surely carry away whole lots of friendship and hearty good wishes. The work of the members of the company is honest, clean and conscientious, and the result is good. There is no shirking and there is an evident desire to do their very best on the part of each and all.

The only mistake the company made in Salem was in putting a low price on its merits. It has talent, and talent of a high order. There were some bits of acting last night that could not be improved on, and it was not from one, but from all. The company is remarkable in that respect, that it is strong down to the least.

As dancers, the Kecey Sisters could have taken the lead of that famous girl, Herodias, and she danced the heads off some good people. As a singer, May Fleming reminds the writer of Sunrise in California in the summer, when all the wild canaries awake at once, in an ecstasy of melody in the big fir trees, and she is as pretty as she is musical. Salem people are missing one of the best—well that's what it is.

Of course you pay your money, But you get your money's worth.
 For what does your money mean to you When Rocky Mountain Tea's on earth!
 —Dr. Stone's Drug Store.

Will Meet Eugene.

The Willamette University baseball team leaves this evening for Eugene to meet the University of Oregon Saturday. The locals are not at all confident of the outcome, and, taking yesterday's game as a criterion, the Willamettes will probably go up against the stiffest proposition they have ever had to meet. Unruh will catch and Rhodes will be shifted to the outfield. King and Simpson will alternate in delivering the ball.

Professor Boyer will accompany the team. The U. of O. nine is reported to be the swiftest bunch the wearers of the lemon have ever mustered out. At all events, it will be a rattling good game.

 Chicago university, Northwestern university and University of Michigan, are assembled here to take part in the interesting contest. One of the interesting features is that the University of Michigan will, for the first time in its history, be represented by a Japanese student, K. S. Knui, who won highest honors at the inter-class oratorical contest of his alma mater. He will speak on a subject bearing upon

Here's an "ELASTIC" Idea for Spring House-Cleaning

THE Globe-Wernicke Unit Book-Case Libraries are as easy to take down as they are to build up! You can move them from room to room or from house to house without taking out the books.

What a boon to housekeepers! Not to have to take out every book, dust it and put it back in the same old way on the same old shelf. Globe-Wernicke Book-Case Units are dust-proof—every unit has a glass door that is lined, and also an anti-binding equalizer that prevents the door jamming or sticking.
 * The opportunities for making an attractive home library with these cases are practically unlimited.

A set of illustrated suggestions for home libraries mailed free to any enquirer. * No other
